Semiotics and Visual Communication IV Evripides Zantides, Sonia Andreou, 2024-06-25 The chapters in this book consist of selected papers which investigate the theme of Myths Today paying homage to the notion of myth as defined by Roland Barthes in the late 1950s which provided a theoretical framework under which daily habits as well as consumer practices can be examined as socially constructed signs idealized through verbal narratives While myth is a type of speech it is also a type of image typeface cinema photography sports online networks politics TV shows sound and fashion can all serve as groundwork for mythical discourses Under this framework the book explores myths today in the context of global networks globalisation visuals and mass communication The interdisciplinary nature of the book provides a platform for discussion and research broadens the scope of semiotic and visual communication thinking and challenges the boundaries of various disciplines

Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater Wenying Xu, 2012-04-12 Asian American literature is one of the most recent forms of ethnic literature and is already becoming one of the most prominent given the large number of writers the growing ethnic population from the region the general receptivity of this body of work and the quality of the authors In recent decades there has been an exponential growth in their output and much Asian American literature has now achieved new levels of popular success and critical acclaim Nurtured by rich and long literary traditions from the vast continent of Asia this literature is poised between the ancient and the modern between the East and West and between the oral and the written The Historical Dictionary of Asian American Literature and Theater covers the activities in this burgeoning field First its history is traced year by year from 1887 to the present in a chronology and the introduction provides a good overview The most important section is the dictionary with over 600 substantial and cross referenced entries on authors books and genres as well as more general ones describing the historical background cultural features techniques and major theatres and clubs More reading can be found through an extensive bibliography with general works and those on specific authors The book is thus a good place to get started or to expand one's horizons about a branch of American literature that can only grow in importance

Postcolonial Disaster Pallavi Rastogi, 2020-04-15 Postcolonial Disaster studies literary fiction about crises of epic proportions in contemporary South Asia and Southern Africa the oceanic disaster in Sri Lanka the economic disaster in Zimbabwe the medical disaster in South Africa and Botswana and the geopolitical disaster in India and Pakistan Pallavi Rastogi argues that postcolonial fiction about catastrophe is underpinned by a Disaster Unconscious a buried but mobile agenda that forces disastrous events to narrate themselves She writes that in disaster fiction a literary Story and its real life Event are in constant dialectic tension In recent disasters Story and Event are tied together as the urgency to circulate information and rebuild in the aftermath of the disaster dictates the flow of the narrative As the Story acquires temporal distance from the Event such as the seventy three years since the partition of India in 1947 it plays more with form and theme to expand beyond a tale about an all consuming tragedy Story and Event are in a constant dance with each other and the Disaster Unconscious plays the tune to which they move Rastogi creates a narratology for postcolonial disaster fiction and brings concepts from Disaster Studies into the realm of literary analysis spheres These fields are now rapidly converging and this handbook aims to reinforce the common concerns and methodologies of the sibling disciplines The Routledge Handbook of Ecocriticism and Environmental Communication charts the history of the relationship between ecocriticism and environmental communication studies while also highlighting key new paradigms in information studies diverse examples of practical applications of environmental communication and textual analysis and the patterns and challenges of environmental communication in non Western societies Contributors to this book include literary film and religious studies scholars communication studies specialists environmental historians practicing journalists art critics linguists ethnographers sociologists literary theorists and others but all focus their discussions on key issues in textual representations of human nature relationships and on the challenges and possibilities of environmental communication The handbook is designed to map existing trends in both ecocriticism and environmental communication and to predict future directions This handbook will be an essential reference for teachers students and practitioners of environmental literature film journalism communication and rhetoric and well as the broader meta discipline of environmental humanities

Ten Thousand Steps Against the Tyrant Indran Amirthanayagam, 2022-02 There s an adage that journalism is the first draft of history but for the flesh and blood truth of lived experience the news that stays news has always been poetry And perhaps no poet is better situated to write of the tumultuous events of the recent past than Indran Amirthanayagam a true global citizen In TEN THOUSAND STEPS AGAINST THE TYRAN he encapsulates the full range of emotion surrounding the 2020 U S presidential election and subsequent insurrection taking place against the backdrop of a deadly global pandemic from terror and outrage to euphoria and hope for Joe and Kamala as he refers to the newly elected president and vice president this familiarity itself a desire for a return to decency and simple human dignity There are poems here that treat of politics and lofty affairs of state a world the poet has experienced as an international diplomat and of living through pandemic but for the heart of the collection look to his tender poem for his mother and his desire to keep her safe to hold her forever Decline and death are prohibited This same love is extended to all mankind throughout these poems They are a celebration but also a warning of the fragility of our tenuous step back from the brink of tyranny And if the first bloom of hope for the Biden administration is already wilting a bit in the harsh glare of reality that s all the more reason to persevere We need to hear the songs of your migrant heart he declares in his opening poem We need to keep singing We need to be prepared to take the next step beyond the 10 000 steps it has taken to reach this point ready for the moment the world wakes up from this pandemic dream alive and ready to move to make to fill and to rename the void Poetry The Runner's Almanac Indran Amirthanayagam, 2024-05-17 This intimate and haunting collection is a love song a soliloquy a work of praise a call to arms an offering of abundance There s an urgency to The Runner s Almanac what s inside the poet must come out These are poems of gusto of movement walking jogging striding hopping toward love inevitably Amirthanayagam is a poet of plurality who savors how a poem gets out of hand bursts its banks spills into the mind of the reader I think of

Amirthanayagam that sharp and tender poetic voice of his as a village elder a guide a truth teller But he s the elder that will hold your feet to the fire and not let you forget More than ever in The Runner s Almanac one feels his purpose even clearer to dedicate what remains of breath love and work to spread the word of poetry Blue Window (Ventana Azul) Indran Amirthanayagam,2021-07-25 Poetry Asian Asian American Studies African African American Studies Latinx Studies Translated by Jennifer Rathbun BLUE WINDOW VENTANA AZUL captures modern love in all of its contradictory emotions expressed online face to face and in memory The poems speak to all of our love entanglements and any reader can identify with the love and loss poured into these pages Acclaimed Chilean poet laureate Ra l Zurita says Indran Amirthanayagam as an immigrant of the language has not only rendered that language a magisterial book BLUE WINDOW but also a poem Illusion that is amongst the most moving love poems in the history of Spanish In these times of the pandemic where all over the world we have developed a new relationship to the window among windows on a Zoom screen with Cyrano moved from the street outside to every windowsill wherever the internet has travelled on fiber optic cables set deep into the oceans on internet balloons flying over large swatches of jungle and brush bringing people the world over to hear poems of love and loss and love renewed we give you BLUE WINDOW VENTANA AZUL In our time it s rare to find poets still writing about the glory of romantic love A noble tradition from Sappho to Neruda seemed to be exhausted But the poems in BLUE WINDOW read like a gift the Muse has handed down to Indran Amirthanayagam Jaime Manrique Indran Amirthanayagam is Euripides Pirandello Liza Minelli Bart Simpson Paul Gauguin in Polynesia Tom and Jerry Brady Pico della Mirandola Neruda Saint Augustine Joe Namath Joe Biden Joe Walsh Anne Sexton Robert Lowell Ozzie Osbourne Clark Kent Chance the Rapper Josephine Baker Benjamin Franklin Dolly Parton Pel Nelson Mandela Cantinflas Howard Hughes Langston Hughes Edna St Vincent Millay RuPaul Allen Ginsberg Banksy Steve Jobs Woody Guthrie Walt Disney Walt Whitman One of the most undervalued poets of our times Eduardo Espina In BLUE WINDOW Indran Amirthanayagam has developed a personal poetic cartography a geography of dilated air in the shadows The poetic voice evokes conjures and converses with people moments places This volume is a book of farewells dialogues interrupted by distance but continued in these pages that were life and are now maps logbooks of travel of poetry Carlos Aguasaco Tsunami Elizabeth A. Bernstein,1994 Tsunami Years Juliet S. Kono,1995 Poetry Juliet S Kono s second book TSUNAMI YEARS packs an unexpectedly hard poetic punch From the first section which grips you in the hilariously poignant caring for a mother in law with Alzheimer s Disease to the ending section where another kind of madness drives a son over the edge you will feel the rush of emotional waves that more than matches the real tsunami poems in between This is a book for real people to read
