Handbook of Research on the Global View of Open Access and Scholarly Communications Alemneh, Daniel

Gelaw,2022-04-29 In an information and knowledge society access to information and knowledge is a basic human right making equitable and fair access to information and knowledge paramount Open Access OA plays a huge role in addressing inequities as well as broad based and inclusive scientific progress On the surface the number of publications discussing OA issues from various angles are on the rise However what is missing is a comprehensive assessment of the extent of OA implementation and a discussion of how to proceed in integrating OA issues from various perspectives The Handbook of Research on the Global View of Open Access and Scholarly Communications articulates OA concepts and issues while demystifying the state of the art knowledge domain in the areas of OA and scholarly communications from diverse perspectives as well as implications for the information and knowledge society Covering topics such as ethics copyright challenges and open access initiatives this book is a dynamic resource for publishers librarians higher education administrators policymakers students and educators of higher education researchers and academicians Cultivating Ecologies for Digital Media Work Catherine C Braun,2013-12-25 The onslaught of the digital age has rapidly redefined the parameters of virtually every aspect of daily life and the world of academic scholarship is no exception In English departments across American institutions of higher education faculty members face an uphill battle in the struggle for professional recognition of their digital works In Cultivating Ecologies for Digital Media Work author Catherine C Braun calls for a shift in thinking about the professional methods and digital goals of the English studies discipline and its central texts Braun s in depth study documents English professors and the challenges they face in both career and classroom as they attempt to gain appropriate value for digital teaching and creation within their field departments and institutions Braun proposes that to move English studies into the future three main questions must be addressed First what counts as a text How should we approach the reading of texts Finally how should we approach the production of texts In addition to reconsidering the nature of texts in English studies she calls for crucial changes in higher education institutional procedures themselves including new methods of evaluating digital scholarship on an even playing field with other forms of work during the processes for promotion and tenure With insightful expertise Braun analyzes how the new age of digital scholarship not only complements the traditional values of the English studies discipline but also offers constructive challenges to old ideas about texts methods and knowledge production Cultivating Ecologies for Digital Media Work is the first volume to offer specific examination of the digital shift s impact on English studies and provides the scaffold upon which productive conversations about the future of the field and digital pedagogy can be built Teaching and Studying Transnational

Composition Christiane Donahue, Bruce Horner, 2022-11-18 Transnational composition is a site for engaging with difference across populations, economies, languages, and borders and for asking how cultures, languages, and national imaginaries interanimate one another. Organized in three parts, the book addresses the transnational in composition in scholarship, teaching, and administration. It brings together contributions from institutional, geopolitical, and cultural contexts ranging across North America, Europe, Latin America, Africa, the Middle East, Asia, and the Caribbean and covers writing in English, Chinese, multiple European languages, Latin American Spanish, African and West Indian Creoles, and Guianan French. Exploring the relationship among transnational, international, global, and translingual approaches to composition while complicating the term composition itself, essays draw on theories of border work, mobility, liminality, cross-border interaction, center-periphery, contours, superdiversity, and transnational rhetoric and address among other topics models of cognitive processing, principles of universal design, and frames of critical literacy awareness. Narratives and Practices of Mentorship in Scholarly Publication Pejman Habibie, Robert Kohls, 2024-05-14 This edited volume explores mentorship in knowledge production and dissemination and examines its implications for academic lives and careers of novice scholarly writers. By bringing together experts in a variety of areas in applied linguistics, the book addresses the complex topic of mentorship in scholarly publication practices of junior scholars. Drawing on the perspectives and experiences of novice scholars, supervisors, practitioners, and researchers, it intends to demystify the socialization process of junior academics and help paint a richer and more nuanced picture of the practices, experiences, and challenges of mentorship in writing for publication. An important aspect of the book is a serious attempt to explore the experiences of different stakeholders both through empirical research and personal histories and accounts. The book acts as a valuable resource for graduate students and both novice and established scholars looking to build a more holistic understanding of mentorship in scholarly publication today in such fields as English for research, publication purposes, applied linguistics, and TESOL. Anarchist Perspectives for Social Work Alexander W. Sawatsky, 2024 This book seeks to rigorously and specifically engage with anarchist theory and find application to social work fields of practice and social work theory.
