Dr. Bobbi Y. Cumpston

The Steward Leader Transforming People Organizations And Communities:

The Steward Leader R. Scott Rodin, 2013-11-14 In this book R Scott Rodin offers a unique and profoundly theologically informed model of leadership forged out of his extensive experience and theological studies This model is personal dynamic and transformative for the leaders themselves for the people they work with and for the institution or organizations in which they serve

Constructing Blue Collar Leaders in a White Collar World LaMar Herndon, 2018-03-06 In Constructing Blue Collar Leaders in a White Collar World Dr LaMar Herndon considers a group of leaders often overlooked and occasionally denigrated the bivocational pastor Constructing Blue Collar Leaders in a White Collar World integrates important theoretical leadership concepts with spiritual and practical realities Dr Herndon explores important topics such as trends and issues facing the global church and its leaders leadership models values and ethics character and integrity cultural effects creativity and innovation reverse mentoring and strategic planning This book is a profoundly honest hands on guide to what constitutes a true leader serving as a bivocational minister Dr Gary Oster Regent University School of Business whether bivocational or not Rev Jewel D Williams M R E Church of God Anderson IN Author of Fearfully and Wonderfully Made Living our Theology and the Path of a Preacher

Leadership Points Of Connection Dr. Bobbi Y. Cumpston, 2024-08-09 Leadership Points of Connection developed from the realization that leadership is about making connections in all walks of life But connections are not just for leaders Points of connection are specific interactions with others that bring about illumination creativity innovation and discussions that help relationships grow and organizations expand Connections can unite people for a common purpose that impacts an organization or community for good Meaningful connections can be intentional business meetings or spontaneous moments that leave a long lasting impact The author defines each type of connection along with leadership principles in each chapter through authenticity transformation and service Real life experience and practical examples demonstrate how points of connection can make a difference to individuals organizations and communities Each chapter ends with thought provoking questions that encourage the reader to know who they are what they have to offer others and how to make a positive impact through a point of connection The author hopes that the reader will learn that points of connection go beyond What s in it for me to the encouragement of others through authentic transformational connections that positively impact people and communities

Ecclesial Leadership as Friendship Chloe Lynch, 2019-03-01 When it comes to talking about the activity of directing the church the language of leadership and leaders is increasingly popular Yet what is leadership and how might theological narratives better resource the discourse and practice of leadership in ecclesial contexts In identifying and critiquing managerialism as a dominant narrative of leadership in the Western church this book calls for an alternative approach founded on the concept of friendship Engaging with the wider field of leadership studies the book establishes an understanding of leadership activity and brings it into conversation with an incarnational ecclesiology The result is a prophetic reimagining of ecclesial leadership in terms of a relational kenotic praxis This praxis of mutuality and love is framed here in the rich language of Christian friendship The book also wrestles deeply with the embodiment of such a praxis making explicit the power behaviours typical of friendship leadership and offering constructive guidance for practitioners in the task of implementation within a complex and fractured world This book offers a new vision of the centrality of friendship to leadership of a healthy church community As such it will be of great use to scholars of practical theology ecclesiology and leadership as well as practitioners in church ministry

Servantship Graham Joseph Hill, 2013-10-10 Servantship is essentially about following our Lord Jesus Christ the servant Lord and his mission it is a life of discipleship to him patterned after his self emptying humility sacrifice love values and mission Servantship is humbly valuing others more than yourself and looking out for the interests and wellbeing of others Servantship is the cultivation of the same attitude of mind Christ Jesus had making yourself nothing being a servant humbling yourself and submitting yourself to the will and purposes of the triune God Since servantship is the imitation of Christ it involves an unreserved participation in the missio Dei the Trinitarian mission of God In this pioneering work sixteen servants describe the four movements of radical servantship Servantship is the movement 1 from leadership to radical servantship 2 from shallowness to dynamic theological reflection 3 from theories to courageous practices and 4 from forgetfulness to transforming memory Servantship recognizes in word thought and deed that whoever wants to become great among you must be your servant and whoever wants to be first must be your slave just as the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many

A Leadership Development Project Design for Financial Stability and Missional Momentum at the Hnw-Sda Church Dr. Richard M. White CPA, 2019-07-22 This project document explored the Houston Northwest Seventh day Adventist Church's lack of evangelistic strategies and leadership development In addition to a community demographical surveys and a spiritual health assessment evaluation a series of contemporary evangelistic methods and strategies were deemed the best antidote for the problems of the church This study also took into account the church's demographics and their culture of origin religious convictions racial makeup traditional practices and economic conditions In order to develop these methods and strategies this project used the examples set forth by the Old Testament model on revitalized worship the example of King Hezekiah the New Testament model on leadership and the example of Jesus Christ to his disciples This mandate notes that once leaders are led by the Holy Spirit to bring the people of God back to worship they must proclaim the advent of Jesus Christ In addition leaders should as Jesus did teach members how to become steward leaders They should teach members on how to use their spiritual gifts talents and skills to proclaim the good news of Jesus Christ Finally church leaders should develop members into disciples and church leaders themselves

Associate Pastors Michael Matthew Mauriello , 2022-06-21 Rather than simply leading or following why not consider stewarding Associate pastors of all kinds whether assigned to children youth worship adult or outreach are often caught in the middle of complicated relationships in their congregations It's an emotionally taxing and organizationally confusing position In Associate Pastors Michael Matthew Mauriello demonstrates how associate pastors can harness the ambiguity that accompanies their role in ways that can mutually benefit church members and other pastoral staff The heart of Associate Pastors comes from personal interviews with twenty five associate pastors in small to medium sized churches who have served in pastoral ministry positions for more than ten years Their shared experiences demonstrate the unique social and spiritual dynamics of the associate pastor role and suggest great promise for those willing to approach their calling with creativity and care Specifically when associate pastors facilitate learning within their congregations they confer benefits on church leadership and laypeople alike Dr Michael Mauriello's research is fueled by his love for God and the desire to see pastors flourish Associate Pastors Ministry from the Middle is a must read for Christian leaders Deborah Colwill associate professor of educational and leadership studies Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Dr Michael Mauriello has written a thoughtful and well researched guide for associate pastors who want to understand the dynamics and strategic advantages of their role He not only understands the position but he can help pastors serve effectively from the middle seat Lee Eclov adjunct professor Trinity Evangelical Divinity School columnist PreachingToday.com This is a much needed contribution to resources addressing the unique role of associate pastors those who navigate complicated relationships as a pastoral practice Donald C Guthrie executive director Center for Transformational Churches Jeanette L Hsieh Chair of Educational Leadership and director of the PhD educational studies Trinity Evangelical Divinity School Servant

Leadership: Research and Practice Selladurai, Raj, Carraher, Shawn, 2014-03-31 Leaders represent a necessary part of any organizational structure and leadership styles can vary greatly between individuals Servant leadership is one such leadership style which is helping individuals guide and encourage others within their organization Servant Leadership Research and Practice explores the concept of rethinking the leader subordinate relationship structure through the dissolution of an authoritarian leadership style This book supports current and future leaders through relevant discussions on methodologies and tools in support of servant leadership and is designed for use by business managers executives scholars and upper level students Steward Leadership in the Nonprofit Organization Kent R. Wilson, 2016-08-08 Kent Wilson presents a comprehensive model for steward leadership where leaders act as stewards or trustees rather than owners managing resources on behalf of others for the good of others Designed by a nonprofit leader for nonprofit leaders this fresh approach to leadership gives you a new focus to lead your organization with excellence Flourishing Together Lynn E.

Swaner, Andy Wolfe, 2021-11-16 How do students educators and schools flourish together especially in an era of increasing pressure from standardized testing growing challenges to student mental health and well being and frequent educator burnout Many schools strive toward academic achievement as their primary marker of success but this well meaning approach can lead to a reductionist view in which students are too often seen as statistics rather than whole human beings Teachers school leaders parents and of course students know that flourishing is a much broader and more holistic aim for education But what is to be done The goal of this book is to call Christian educators back to a better vision of flourishing within a robust theological framework with the practical guidance necessary for implementation To accomplish this Lynn Swaner and Andy Wolfe take readers through an exploration of five essential domains identified through extensive empirical research purpose relationships learning resources and well being An ideal resource for professional development and strategic planning Flourishing Together persistently adheres to the principle that anything that is worth building cannot be built alone Thus the vision for flourishing here is one in which the school community is understood as an interconnected ecosystem in which each one s flourishing is dependent on their flourishing together Accordingly teachers and administrators will be inspired and equipped to reshape their schools as places where they alongside their students can flourish together in a community of abundant life

Non-Governmental Development Organizations and the Poverty Reduction Agenda Jonathan J. Makuwira, 2013-12-04 The Non Governmental Development Organisations NGDOs have over the past two decades entered centre stage in their active participation in the social political and economic issues affecting both the developing and developed world This book offers a highly stimulating and concise summary of the NGDO sector by examining their history and metamorphosis their influence on the social political and economic landscapes of the Northern and Southern governments and societies The author analyses competing theoretical and conceptual debates not only regarding their contribution to the global social political dynamism but also on the sector's changing external influence as they try and mitigate poverty in marginalized communities This book presents NGDOs as multidimensional actors propelled by the desire to make a lasting change but constrained by market oriented approaches to development and other factors both internal and external to their environment While a lot of attention has been given to understanding international NGDOs like World Vision International Oxfam Care International and Plan International this book offers a critical analysis of grassroots organizations those NGDOs founded and established by locals and operate at the deepest end of the development contexts This work will be of interest to students and scholars in a range of areas including Development Studies International Organizations and Globalization

Christians in an Age of Wealth Craig L. Blomberg, 2013-11-26 What does the Bible say about money material possessions and stewardship In Christians in an Age of Wealth Craig Blomberg addresses tough questions about the place and purpose of wealth and material possessions in a Christian's life He points to the goodness of wealth as God originally designed it but also surveys the Bible's many warnings against making an idol out of money. Taking a close exegetical look at this topic as it's discussed in Scripture, Blomberg answers the toughest questions about Christianity and wealth. Is there any one key to keeping possessions in their proper God-intended perspective? Are there limits on how rich we should become or on how poor we should allow others to get? What does a truly Christian economic system look like? How does the Bible's teaching on wealth fit into the gospel? Blomberg expounds upon how the sharing of goods and possessions is the key safeguard against both greed and covetousness. He expands on the concept of giving generously even sacrificially to those who are needier, demonstrating how Christians can participate in God's original good design for abundance and demonstrate the world-altering gospel of Christ. _____ Part of the Biblical Theology for Life series, this practical and challenging book will help you and your church ground your worldly possessions on the solid foundation of biblical understanding and reflection. IDEaLs (Innovation and Design as Leadership) Joseph Press, 2021-08-16 Inspired by the actual transformation journeys of multinational companies, IDEaLs explores how re-framing our traditional theories reveals a more integrated approach to engaging people for systemic change. The Art of Retiring Gracefully Barrett Williams, ChatGPT, 2025-08-09 Redefine retirement as a launchpad for purpose, impact, and connection.
