the same kinds of stories whether they grow up in a slum or a suburb That people who read more fiction are more empathetic Of course our story instinct has a darker side It makes us vulnerable to conspiracy theories advertisements and narratives about ourselves that are more truthy than true National myths can also be terribly dangerous Hitler s ambitions were partly fueled by a story But as Gottschall shows stories can also powerfully change the world for the better We know we are master shapers of story The Storytelling Animal finally reveals how stories shape us Lively San Francisco Chronicle Absorbing Minneapolis Star Tribune One of my favorite evolutionary psych writers always insightful and witty Steven Pinker

The Story Paradox Jonathan Gottschall, 2021-11-23 Storytelling a tradition that built human civilization may soon destroy it Humans are storytelling animals Stories are what make our societies possible Countless books celebrate their virtues But Jonathan Gottschall an expert on the science of stories argues that there is a dark side to storytelling we can no longer ignore Storytelling the very tradition that built human civilization may be the thing that destroys it In The Story Paradox Gottschall explores how a broad consortium of psychologists communications specialists neuroscientists and literary quants are using the scientific method to study how stories affect our brains The results challenge the idea that storytelling is an obvious force for good in human life Yes storytelling can bind groups together but it is also the main force dragging people apart And it s the best method we ve ever devised for manipulating each other by circumventing rational thought Behind all civilization s greatest ills environmental destruction runaway demagogues warfare you will always find the same master factor a mind disordering story Gottschall argues that societies succeed or fail depending on how they manage these tensions And it has only become harder as new technologies that amplify the effects of disinformation campaigns conspiracy theories and fake news make separating fact from fiction nearly impossible With clarity and conviction Gottschall reveals why our biggest asset has become our greatest threat and what if anything can be done It is a call to stop asking How we can change the world through stories and start asking How can we save the world from stories

Taking a Deep Breath for the Story to Begin Ernst M. Conradie,Lai Pan-Chiu,2022-08-23 This first volume in the proposed series will address some preliminary issues that are typical of a prolegomena in any systematic theology It will focus on the following question How does the story of who the Triune God is and what this God does relate to the story of life on Earth Or Is the Christian story part of the earth's story or is the earth's story part of God's story from creation to consummation This raises many issues on the relatedness of religion and theology the place of theology in multi disciplinary collaboration the notion of revelation the possibility of knowledge of God the interplay between convictions and narrative accounts hermeneutics the difference between natural theology and a theology of nature and the role of science vis vis indigenous worldviews The Fiction of Our Lives Sandra M. Alderman, 2020-08-20 Quoting Derrida in The Animal at Unease with Itself Death Anxiety and the Animal Human Boundary in Genesis 2-3 Isaac M Alderman draws attention to the fact that humans are the only animals who are disturbed by nakedness This unease with regard to our own bodies is an important aspect of the study of disgust and death anxiety Alderman seeks to apply terror management theorists focus on death anxiety to biblical studies and to utilize the concept of animal reminder disgust the visceral reaction to reminders of our animality to better understand the opening chapters of Genesis dealing particularly with themes of mortality the human body and the animal human boundary in those chapters After describing relevant aspects of cognitive science terror management theory and animal reminder disgust Alderman demonstrates using Genesis 2:3 and the role of clothing as a marker of the animal-human boundary there as a case study that an interdisciplinary approach that draws on cognitive science can illumine the biblical text in important ways

The Function of Story in the Hebrew Psalter Rebecca W. Poe Hays, 2021-06-29 Providing balance to the general scholarly trend to focus on the non-narrative aspect of Hebrew poetry this book argues that the Hebrew Psalter does contain stories and their inclusion in ancient Israel's worship texts contributes to the rhetorical power of the psalms in ways distinct from other poetic devices Rebecca W. Poe Hays builds on literary theory and biblical studies of narrative to establish a clear definition of story and to identify where story appears in the book of Psalms The majority of the book explores how these story portions of the Psalter divided into the three broad categories of retellings of history testimonies and paradigms function within their larger contexts Each chapter includes a discussion of a particular category's general characteristics a close reading of representative texts and an assessment of distinctive ways each type of story functions in the psalms in which they appear These poetic psalmic stories have the rhetorical power to draw readers uniquely into narrative worlds and inspire empathy to guide readers into particular understandings of history and teach inductively and to concretize the abstract and so shape the beliefs and behaviors of the communities who regard them as sacred texts stories begin with a disclaimer that they are fictional. Instead they claim to be true even when they are not. Such stories blur the line between fiction and reality pushing audiences to consider where fiction ends and reality begins. These kinds of horror stories comprise the understudied subgenre of liminal horror. As the first book on this subject, this volume surveys a variety of liminal horror films. It discusses the different variations within liminal horror's subgenres and considers why horror films are obsessed with the natures of and borders between fiction and reality. After first laying out the basic traits of the horror genre in the context of liminality, this book then dives into film more specifically and how the medium is uniquely situated to explore the movement between the fictional and the real. Through lenses such as dreaming, memory, and perception, the following chapters explore the role liminal horror plays in the human psyche's subconscious, unconscious, and the various functions of the human mind in perceiving or misperceiving reality.

Narrativizing Theories Benjamin John Peters, 2020-02-06

Ours is an age of offense, a time of reactionary shock always received, never given. Ours is an age that has forgone cultural narratives, a time of individualism wherein personal identities trump the collective spirit. Ours is an age of failing earth, a time of ecological collapse yet the consumption of global capitalism continues to run amok. But don't fear. You have the correct worldview, the best solutions. It's not your fault; these things are happening. It's the president's, the immigrant's, and the Islamicist's. Or perhaps it's the socialist's, the tree hugger's, and the baby killer's. But it's not your fault. Never yours. For the world exists as you see it in an echo chamber lined with golden pixels. Do I still have your attention? Then join me. Within the covers of Narrativizing Theories, I dive into ambiguity and aesthetics to depict how clashing worldviews exist side by side yet remain mutually incompatible. I examine how cultures distinguish between acceptable and unacceptable beliefs, embodiments, and identities. And I outline an aesthetic theory of ambiguity that highlights through the twists and turns of literature the provisionality of knowledge and the narrativization of reality.
