The Sufi Path Of Knowledge Ibn Al Arabis Metaphysics Of Imagination:

The Sufi Path of Knowledge William C. Chittick, 1989-06-01 Ibn al Arabi is still known as the Great Sheik among the surviving Sufi orders Born in Muslim Spain he has become famous in the West as the greatest mystical thinker of Islamic civilization He was a great philosopher theologian and poet William Chittick takes a major step toward exposing the breadth and depth of Ibn al Arabi s vision The book offers his view of spiritual perfection and explains his theology ontology epistemology hermeneutics and soteriology The clear language unencumbered by methodological jargon makes it accessible to those familiar with other spiritual traditions while its scholarly precision will appeal to specialists Beginning with a survey of Ibn al Arabi s major teachings the book gradually introduces the most important facets of his thought devoting attention to definitions of his basic terminology His teachings are illustrated with many translated passages introducing readers to fascinating byways of spiritual life that would not ordinarily be encountered in an account of a thinker s ideas Ibn al Arabi is allowed to describe in detail the visionary world from which his knowledge derives and to express his teachings in his own words More than 600 passages from his major work al Futuhat al Makkiyya are translated here practically for the first time These alone provide twice the text of the Fusus al hikam The exhaustive indexes make the work an invaluable reference tool for research in Sufism and Islamic thought in general

Ibn Al- Arabi S Metaphysics Of Imagination The Sufi Path Of Knowledge Prithivi Nath Kaul Bamzai, 2009-01-01 For the first time in the History of Orientalism a thorough study of ibn al Arabi s thought is now available William Chittick has given us a translation of numerous passages from the work of the Magister Magnus and placed them in their theological context thus removing many misunderstandings that have prevailed both among Muslim and in the West when interpreting Ibn al Arabi s mystical worldview Chittick has done this with admirable clarity and his book will always remain a most important milestone in the study of Islamic mystical theology

Rethinking Ibn 'Arabi Gregory A. Lipton, 2018-04-02 Exploring how the medieval mystic Ibn Arabi has been read as an inclusive universalist through the interpretative field of Perennial Philosophy this book shows how his metaphysics is inseparably intertwined with Islamic supersessionism Ibn Arabi s universalist reception is thus traced to lineages of Eurocentrism revealing how Perennialism is itself exclusionary

The Sufi Path of Divine Knowledge William C. Chittick, 2006 A survey of Ibn al Arabi s major teachings with translated passages from al Futuhat al Makkiyyah Ideology and Utopia in the Twenty-First Century Stephanie N. Arel, Dan R. Stiver, 2018-11-23 This edited work is spurred by the 30 year anniversary of the groundbreaking work by Paul Ricoeur Lectures on Ideology and Utopia 1986 and the 40 year anniversary of the original lectures 1975 Ricoeur took these concepts that continue to be enormously important in social and political analysis and connected them in a uniquely intricate dance The ensuing interplay of these concepts provides a framework for a more deft and subtle evaluation than is common Little has been done to engage Ricoeur s skill in interpreting ideology and utopia or their creative tension perhaps due to his significant contributions in other areas When one combines Ricoeur's intricate analyses of ideology and utopia however with his contributions in other areas of philosophy such as hermeneutics anthropology embodiment and philosophy of religion one has fertile grounds for reflection in many directions The essays in this book draw on these resources not only to engage the strengths and weaknesses of Ricoeur's original work but they also expand his understanding in creative new directions such as the social imaginary embodiment gender theory immigration and extremist political rhetoric The text will bring to the fore how this aspect of Ricoeur's work has significance for the wider twenty first century political landscape Just as his original work this book provides much needed resources for critique of each term along with their relationship to one another while recognizing the positive dimension of their function     Sehrenciz, Urban Rituals and Deviant Sufi Mysticism in Ottoman Istanbul B. Deniz

Calis-Kural, 2016-04-01 ehrenciz is an Ottoman genre of poetry written in honor of various cities and provincial towns of the Ottoman Empire from the early sixteenth century to the early eighteenth century This book examines the urban culture of Ottoman Istanbul through ehrenciz as the Ottoman space culture and traditions have been shaped by a constant struggle between conflicting groups practicing political and religious attitudes at odds By examining real and imaginary gardens landscapes and urban spaces and associated ritualized traditions the book questions the formation of Ottoman space culture in relation to practices of orthodox and heterodox Islamic practices and imperial politics The study proposes that ehrenciz was a subtext for secret rituals performed in city spaces carrying dissident ideals of Melami mysticism following after the ideals of the thirteenth century Sufi philosopher Ibn al Arabi who proposed a theory of creative imagination and a three tiered definition of space the ideal the real and the intermediary barzakh In these rituals marginal groups of guilds emphasized the autonomy of individual self and suggested a novel proposition that the city shall become an intermediary space for reconciling the orthodox and heterodox worlds In the early eighteenth century liminal expressions of these marginal groups gave rise to new urban rituals this time adopted by the Ottoman court society and by affluent city dwellers and expressed in the poetry of Ned m The author traces how a tradition that had its roots in the early sixteenth century as a marginal protest movement evolved until the early eighteenth century as a movement of urban space reform     Knowledge

God Class Sufism, 2004 This volume the ninth on Islamic material to be published in the Classics of Western Spirituality series brings to light a highly significant but little known area of Islamic spirituality Editor John Renard has assembled here a volume of texts most translated here for the first time culled from the great Sufi manuals of spirituality on the theme of the complex and multi faceted role of knowledge in relation to the spiritual life He presents excerpts on knowledge from the works of nine major Muslim teachers most translated from Arabic but also including important texts from Persian originals The Introduction offers a survey of the development of Sufi modes of knowing through the thirteenth century in their broader context and then focuses on the manuals or compendia of Sufi spirituality treated here Historical notes provide brief identifications of many of the individual sources and personalities mentioned throughout the treatises     Knowledge in Later

Islamic Philosophy Ibrahim Kalin, 2010-04 This study looks at Mulla Sadra's attempt to reconcile the three major forms of knowledge in Islamic philosophical discourses: revelation, Qur'an, demonstration, burhan, and gnosis or intuitive knowledge, irfan. In his grand synthesis, Mulla Sadra bases his epistemological considerations on a robust analysis of existence and its modalities. For Sadra, in knowing things, we unveil an aspect of existence and thus engage with the countless modalities and colours of the all-inclusive reality of existence.

Deep Knowledge Oludamini Ogunnaike, 2020-10-26 This book is an in-depth comparative study of two of the most popular and influential intellectual and spiritual traditions of West Africa: Tijani Sufism and Ifa. Employing a unique methodological approach that thinks with and from rather than merely about these traditions, Oludamini Ogunnaike argues that they contain sophisticated epistemologies that provide practitioners with a comprehensive worldview and a way of crafting a meaningful life. Using theories belonging to the traditions themselves as well as contemporary oral and textual sources, Ogunnaike examines how both Sufism and Ifa answer the questions of what knowledge is, how it is acquired, and how it is verified. Or more simply: What do you know? How did you come to know it? How do you know that you know After analyzing Ifa and Sufism separately and on their own terms the book compares them to each other and to certain features of academic theories of knowledge By analyzing Sufism from the perspective of Ifa Ifa from the perspective of Sufism and the contemporary academy from the perspective of both this book invites scholars to inhabit these seemingly foreign intellectual traditions as valid and viable perspectives on knowledge metaphysics psychology and ritual practice Unprecedented and innovative Deep Knowledge makes a significant contribution to cross cultural philosophy African philosophy religious studies and Islamic studies Its singular approach advances our understanding of the philosophical bases underlying these two African traditions and lays the groundwork for future study Rediscovering Enoch? International Relations Political Science and Sociology      Dreams and Lives in Ottoman Istanbul Asli Niyazioglu, 2016-10-04

Dreams and Lives in Ottoman Istanbul explores biography writing and dream narratives in seventeenth century Istanbul. It focuses on the prominent biographer Ad 1637 and with his help shows how learned circles narrated dreams to assess their position in the Ottoman enterprise. This book demonstrates that dreams provided biographers not only with a means to form learned communities in a politically fragile landscape but also with a medium to debate the correct career paths and social networks in late sixteenth and early seventeenth century Istanbul. By adopting a comparative approach, this book engages with current scholarly dialogues about life writing, dreams, and practices of remembrance in Habsburg Spain, Safavid Iran, Mughal India, and Ming China. Recent studies have shown the shared rhythms between these contemporaneous dynasties and the Ottomans, and there is now a strong interest in comparative approaches to examining cultural life. This first English language monograph on Ottoman dreamscapes addresses this interest and introduces a world where dreams changed lives: the dead appeared in broad daylight, and biographers invited their readers to the gardens of remembrance.

Mystical Languages of Unsay Michael A. Sells, 1994-05-02

The subject of Mystical Languages of Unsay is an important but neglected mode of mystical discourse: apophasis, which literally means speaking away. Sometimes translated as negative theology, apophatic discourse embraces the impossibility of naming something that is ineffable by continually turning back upon its own propositions and names. In this close study of apophasis in Greek, Christian, and Islamic texts, Michael Sells offers a sustained critical account of how apophatic language works: the conventions, logic, and paradoxes it employs and the dilemmas encountered in any attempt to analyze it. This book includes readings of the most rigorously apophatic texts of Plotinus, John the Scot Eriugena, Ibn Arabi, Marguerite Porete, and Meister Eckhart, with comparative reference to important apophatic writers in the Jewish tradition such as Abraham Abulafia and Moses de Leon. Sells reveals essential common features in the writings of these authors despite their wide-ranging differences in era, tradition, and theology. By showing how apophasis works as a mode of discourse rather than as a negative theology, this work opens a rich heritage to reevaluation. Sells demonstrates that the more radical claims of apophatic writers, claims that critics have often dismissed as hyperbolic or condemned as pantheistic or nihilistic, are vital to an adequate account of the mystical languages of unsaying. This work also has important implications for the relationship of classical apophasis to contemporary languages of the unsayable. Sells challenges many widely circulated characterizations of apophasis among deconstructionists as well as a number of common notions about medieval thought and gender relations in medieval mysticism.

Reconsidering Islam in a South Asian Context M. Reza Pirbhai, 2009

Despite late reconsideration, a dominant paradigm rooted in Orientalist essentialisations of Islam as statically legalistic and Muslims as uniformly transgressive when local customs are engaged continues to distort perspectives of South Asia's past and present. This has led to misrepresentations of pre-colonial Muslim norms and undue emphasis on colonial reforms alone when charting the course to post-coloniality. This book presents and challenges staple perspectives with a comprehensive reinterpretation of doctrinal sources literary expressions and colonial records spanning the period from the reign of the Great Mughals to end of the British Raj 1526 1947 The result is an alternative vision of this transformative period in South Asian history and an original paradigm of Islamic doctrine and Muslim practice applicable more broadly Timing and Temporality in Islamic Philosophy and Phenomenology of Life Anna-Teresa

Tymieniecka,2007-09-19 From time immemorial concern with timing of life has been crucial for the regulation of human praxis as well as for the philosophical quest to understand existence by seeking its meaning The two used to inform each other until modernity when they parted In spite of the extensive progress in manipulating change and motion and of the abundance of metaphysical attempts to enlighten human beings about their fate the puzzling nature of temporality and timing of reality remains controversial The present collection of studies seeks a new answer by initiating a novel investigation informed by the ancient wisdom of the Greco Arabic Islamic sources and inheritance on the one side and the contemporary discernment of Occidental phenomenology of life on the other in a common dialogical effort to unravel this great enigma of existence Papers by Anna Teresa Tymieniecka William C Chittick Reza Akbarian Daniela Verducci Michael F Andrews Seyyed Mohammed Khamenei Nader El Bizri Mehdi Aminrazavi Massimo Durante Abdul Rahim Afaki Maria Chiara Teloni A L Samian Kathleen Haney Jad Hatem Robert J Dobie Michel Dion Revisioning Transpersonal Theory Jorge N.

Claude-Hélène Mayer,Elisabeth Vanderheiden,2021-05-04 This handbook is the winner of the William B Gudykunst Award for Outstanding Book in 2023 given by the International Academy of Intercultural Research This handbook includes state of the art research on love in classical modern and postmodern perspectives It expands on previous literature and explores topics around love from new cultural intercultural and transcultural approaches and across disciplines It provides insights into various love concepts like romantic love agape and eros in their cultural embeddedness and their changes and developments in specific cultural contexts It also includes discussions on postmodern aspects with regard to love and love relationships such as digitalisation globalisation and the fourth industrial revolution The handbook covers a vast range of topics in relation to love aging health special needs sexual preferences spiritual practice subcultures family and other relationships and so on. The chapters look at love not only in terms of the universal concept and in private intimate relationships but apply a broad concept of love which can also for example be referred to in postmodern workplaces. This volume is of interest to a wide readership including researchers practitioners and students of the social sciences humanities and behavioural sciences. In the 1970s through the 90s I was told that globalization was homogenizing cultures into a worldwide monoculture. This volume as risky and profound as the many adventures of love across our multiplying cultures proves otherwise. The authors' revolutionary and courageous work will challenge our sensibilities and expand the boundaries of what we understand what love is. But that's what love does. It communicates what it offers what can be and pleads for what must be. I know you'll enjoy this wonderful book as much as I do. Jeffrey Ady, Associate Professor, retired Public Administration Program, University of Hawaii at Manoa, Founding Fellow, International Academy for Intercultural Research. The International Handbook of Love is far more than a traditional compendium. It is a breath-taking attempt to synthesize our anthropological and sociological knowledge on love. It illuminates topics as diverse as Chinese love, one-night stands, teen romance or love of leaders and many more. This is a definitive reference in the field of love studies. Eva Illouz, author of The End of Love: A sociology of Negative relationships, Oxford University Press. This is not a volume to be read in a single sitting though I almost did due to a protracted hospital stay nor is it romantic or inspirational reading though in some cases I had hoped for more narrative examples and case studies. Rather it is a highly diverse scholarly effort, a massive resource collection of research papers on love in a variety of contexts, personal and professional settings and cultures. The work is well referenced providing a large number of resources for deeper exploration. We owe our thanks to the authors and editors of this handbook for work well done though that word in the title should not lead readers to suspect that enlightening as it is, this book is a vade mecum or practical tour guide that provides ready solutions to the vicissitudes and challenges of our love lives.
