The Western Teacher, 1918 Western Teacher, 1896 Normal Instructor and Teachers World, 1905 Outlook and Independent, 1901 Outlook Alfred Emanuel Smith, Francis Walton, 1901 The Outlook Lyman Abbott, Hamilton Wright Mabie, Ernest Hamlin Abbott, Francis Rufus Bellamy, 1901 The Journal of the National Education Association National Education Association of the United States, 1925 Let's All Teach Computer Science! Kiki Prottzman, 2024-05-08

You belong in this world of computer science education and because of you adults of the future will understand how to responsibly participate in high tech environments with confidence. Districts, cities, and states are moving toward computer science requirements for all K-12 classrooms, even in courses that were not previously associated with technology. These new requirements leave many teachers feeling anxious and unprepared when it comes to integrating computer science into existing curriculum. This book is here to support educators in that shift by inviting them to explore computer science and coding in an approachable and unthreatening way. Let's All Teach Computer Science K-12 is a source of inspiration and empowerment for educators who are moving into this technological wonderland. Kiki Prottzman has more than 15 years of experience in computer science education and her insight informs thoughtful discussions on promoting creativity, problem solving, and collaboration in students. The book positions computer science in a way that supports other essential skills such as reading, writing, and mathematics by providing customizable frameworks that help to seamlessly integrate computer science into core subjects. This book provides powerful insights for creating innovative and inclusive learning environments. Offers practical examples of integrating computer science into traditional subjects like math, history, art, and more. Highlights the importance of addressing implicit biases and promoting computer science as an inclusive field for all students. Includes insights on classroom technology and educational technology as well as AI and its role in education. Encourages educators to work together to nurture digital innovators while recognizing potential challenges and frustrations. Let's All Teach Computer Science is an essential guide that equips K-12 teachers with the knowledge and tools necessary to begin teaching computer science immediately and does so in an enjoyable way thanks to Prottzman's friendly and playful style.

Action Research for English Language Arts Teachers Mary Buckelew, Janice Ewing, 2019-03-13

Offering preservice and inservice teachers a guide to navigate the rapidly changing landscape of English Language Arts education, this book provides a fresh perspective on what it means to be a teacher-researcher in ELA contexts. Inviting teachers to view inquiry and reflection as intrinsic to their identity and mission, Buckelew and Ewing walk readers through the inquiry process from developing an actionable focus to data collection and analysis to publication and the exploration of ongoing questions. Providing thoughtful and relevant protocols and models for teacher inquiry, this book establishes a theoretical foundation and offers practical, ready-to-use tools and strategies for engaging in the inquiry process in the context of teachers' communities.
