The Bishop of Rwanda John Rucyahana, 2008-07-27 In 1994 as his country descended into the madness of genocide Anglican Bishop John Rucyahana underwent the mind numbing pain of having members of his church and family butchered John refused to become a part of the systemic hatred He founded the Sonrise orphanage and school for children orphaned in the genocide and he now leads reconciliation efforts between his own Tutsi people the victims of this horrific massacre and the perpetrators the Hutus His remarkable story is one that demands to be told

The National Rifle Association and the Media

Brian Anse Patrick, 2013-10-25 Were it not for the negative coverage that it receives from elite American news organizations the National Rifle Association and American gun culture as a whole would not be in the position of strength they enjoy today The more negative coverage the elite media have dished out the more people have been attracted to NRA and gun culture Brian Anse Patrick presents the evidence for this startling case As an analysis of the data unmistakably shows not only are the elite media systematically biased against NRA they have indeed inadvertently helped to mobilize American gun culture making it one of the most successful social movements of modern times In the new edition of this groundbreaking study with a new Foreword by the author Prof Patrick makes his case The evidence is incontrovertible and based on scientific content analysis of ten years of actual NRA coverage in many elite news publications compared and contrasted with similar coverage of other major American social movements Additionally Prof Patrick presents an innovative model for how information is disseminated from top to bottom in the mainstream media which he terms administrative democracy and suggests how groups like the NRA flourish in part because of the increasing availability of non centralized social media which allow dissenters from the prevailing media paradigm to construct their own narratives with which to understand society and their place within it Written in a lucid and penetrating style this book should be of interest to readers on either side of the gun rights debate as well as to those wishing to study the workings of a successful citizens advocacy network

Sub-Saharan Political Cultures of Deceit in Language, Literature, and the Media, Volume II Esther Mavengano, Isaac Mhute, 2023-12-12 This two volume set charts a cross disciplinary discursive terrain that proffers rich insights about deceit in contemporary postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics In an attempt to produce a nuanced and multifaceted academic dialoguing platform the two volumes have a particular focus on the aspects of treachery fear of difference oppositional politics and discourses semiotics of mis self representation The major aim of the proposed volumes is to contribute toward the often problematised conversations about the unfolding post colonial Sub Saharan world which is topical in decolonial and Pan African studies The volumes seek to place political thinking and postcolonial political systems under the scholarly gaze with the view to highlight and enhance the participation of African cross disciplinary scholarship in the postcolonial political processes of the continent Most significantly it is through such probing of the limitations of our own disciplinary perspectives which can help us appreciate the complexity of the postcolonial Sub Saharan African politics The first volume uses Zimbabwe as a case study while the second volume examines postcolonial politics in Sub Saharan Africa more broadly The first volume uses Zimbabwe as a case study while the second volume examines postcolonial politics in Sub Saharan Africa more broadly

The Genocide in Rwanda in Comparative Perspective Klaus Bachmann, 2025-03-31 This book combines social science concepts history and transitional justice studies to examine the social dynamics specific actors and ideologies involved in the genocide in Rwanda and examines what makes this genocide a unique case of mass violence and political transition compared with other cases of mass violence It analyzes the conditions necessary for people to engage in intimate violence against their neighbors and family members asking what inclines ordinary men and women to join gangs of killers and what role policies authorities ideologies emotions negotiations and material incentives play in the mobilization for mass atrocities Comparing genocidal events elsewhere in time and location the book provides an up to date overview of the 1994 events in Rwanda and offers new and surprising insights from previously inaccessible archival records explaining how to facilitate foreign intervention in the future This book is of key interest to scholars and students of African politics genocide studies and more broadly to security studies conflicts and conflict resolution studies decolonization studies and contemporary and comparative history

Words on Fire Helio Fred Garcia, 2020-06-30 Words on Fire is about the power of communication to do great harm and how civic leaders and engaged citizens can hold leaders accountable to prevent such harm Author Helio Fred Garcia focuses on the language President Trump uses that conditions an audience to accept condone and commit violence against a targeted group rival or critics The book includes a history of such rhetoric and identifies a playbook consisting of twelve forms of communication that typically precede genocides and other acts of mass violence The Nazis used all twelve the Rwandan Hutu used ten Trump uses all twelve The language triggers lone wolves to commit violence Since 9 11 the use of rhetoric that provokes violence has been known as stochastic terrorism a phrase that tends to confuse and that makes discussion difficult The author suggests a more accessible name lone wolf whistle violence on the model of dog whistle politics The book draws on the most recent scholarship on lone wolves their mindset and what it takes to activate them to commit violence The book documents Trump s increasingly dangerous rhetoric through his campaign and first term and how some lone wolves were motivated by the rhetoric to commit violence It also describes the changes in the nation s political culture and media that led to Trump s nomination and presidency It profiles leaders who dialed back their rhetoric when it was shown to put people s lives in danger Words on Fire closes with a call to action We can learn the lessons of today to prepare for tomorrow to help civic leaders engaged citizens journalists and public officials recognize the phenomenon and take steps to hold other leaders accountable in the future when they use such language

The Media and the Rwanda Genocide Allan Thompson, 2007-01-20 Explores the role of the media in the Rwandan genocide within the country and beyond

Debate as Global Pedagogy Ben Voth, 2021-03-18 Debate as Global Pedagogy Rwanda Rising illustrates that the teaching of debate offers an ideal educational approach for the prevention and remediation of genocide As the antithesis of propaganda debate and argument instruction promotes the critical thinking necessary to resist processes of propaganda that enable injustice and human rights abuses Case studies of argumentation instruction and deliberative forums worldwide demonstrate how environments of discursive complexity can be fostered through education in debate and argumentation The central example of Rwanda recovering from genocide in 1994 with help from innovative pedagogy by iDebate Dreamers Academy provides a model for how argumentation instruction can reduce and prevent social injustices

The Persistence of History Vivian Sobchack, 2014-02-04 The Persistence of History examines how the moving image has completely altered traditional modes of historical thought and representation Exploring a range of film and video texts from The Ten Commandments to the Rodney King video from the projected work of documentarian Errol Morris to Oliver Stone's JFK and Spielberg's Schindler's List the volume questions the appropriate forms of media for making the incoherence and fragmentation of contemporary history intelligible Labor Relations Program United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Labor and Public Welfare, 1947 The Media as a Tool of International Intervention Nidžara Ahmetašević, 2023-09-12 This book explores the role of external powers and international organisations in media assistance in Bosnia and Herzegovina Through analysis of key documents media reports and interviews with key participants it examines the main actors their roles and the way in which they influenced the media and society Bosnia and Herzegovina remains one of the biggest experiments in international intervention in modern history Media assistance as well as international intervention was an enormous project which involved many donors and recipient organisations and large amounts of money but it is just one of many countries where democratisation and state building took place with little to no input from the local community Since the mid 1980s media assistance has been an integral part of international intervention used as a tool of democratisation in post conflict countries and societies The process is often led and created outside these countries and implemented by various international organisations led by technocrats and dictated by the will of donors The author uses the case study of Bosnia and Herzegovina to assess this in a broader context This volume will be of interest to scholars and students of Southeast Europe international organisations peace building and rebuilding society in post war countries as well as journalists and policy makers First International Thrift Congress. Sexual Violence and Armed Conflict Janie L. Leatherman, 2013-04-26 Every year hundreds of thousands of women become victims of sexual violence in conflict zones around the world in the Democratic Republic of Congo alone approximately 1 100 rapes are reported each month This book offers a comprehensive analysis of the causes consequences and responses to sexual violence in contemporary armed conflict It explores the function and effect of wartime sexual violence and examines the conditions that make women and girls most vulnerable to these acts both before during and after conflict To understand the motivations of the men and occasionally women who perpetrate this violence the book analyzes the role played by systemic and situational factors such as patriarchy and militarized masculinity Difficult questions of accountability are tackled in particular the case of child soldiers who often suffer a double victimization when forced to commit sexual atrocities The book concludes by looking at strategies of prevention and protection as well as new programs being set up on the ground to support the rehabilitation of survivors and their communities Sexual violence in war has long been a taboo subject but as this book shows new and courageous steps are at last being taken at both local and international level to end what has been called the greatest silence in history      Ideology and Mass Killing Jonathan Leader Maynard, 2022-05-26 In research on mass killings such as genocides and campaigns of state terror the role of ideology is hotly debated For some scholars ideologies are crucial in providing the extremist goals and hatreds that motivate ideologically committed people to kill But many other scholars are sceptical contending that perpetrators of mass killing rarely seem ideologically committed and that rational self interest or powerful forms of social pressure are more important drivers of violence than ideology In Ideology and Mass Killing Jonathan Leader Maynard challenges both these prevailing views advancing an alternative neo ideological perspective which systematically retheorises the key ideological foundations of large scale violence against civilians Integrating cutting edge research from multiple disciplines including political science political psychology history and sociology Ideology and Mass Killing demonstrates that ideological justifications vitally shape such violence in ways that go beyond deep ideological commitment Most disturbingly of all the key ideological foundations of mass killings are found to lie not in extraordinary political goals or hatreds but in radicalised versions of those conventional widely accepted ideas that underpin the politics of security in ordinary societies across the world This study then substantiates this account by a detailed examination of four contrasting cases of mass killing Stalinist Repression in the Soviet Union between 1930 and 1938 the Allied Bombing Campaign against Germany and Japan in World War II from 1940 to 1945 mass atrocities in the Guatemalan Civil War between 1978 and 1983 and the Rwandan Genocide in 1994 This represents the first volume to offer a dedicated comparative theory of ideology s role in mass killing while also developing a powerful new account of how ideology affects violence and politics more generally      Routledge Handbook of Character Assassination and Reputation Management Sergei A. Samoilenko, Martijn Icks, Jennifer Keohane, Eric Shiraev, 2019-12-05 In modern politics as well as in historical times character attacks abound Words and images like symbolic and psychological weapons have sullied or destroyed numerous reputations People mobilize significant material and psychological resources to defend themselves against such attacks How does character assassination work and when does it not Why do many targets fall so easily when they are under character attack How can one prevent attacks and defend against them The Routledge Handbook of Character Assassination and Reputation Management offers the first comprehensive examination of character assassination Moving beyond studying corporate reputation management and how public figures enact and maintain their reputation this lively volume offers a framework and cases to help understand critically analyze and effectively defend against such attacks Written by an international and interdisciplinary team of experts the book begins with a theoretical introduction and extensive description of the five pillars of character assassination 1 the attacker 2 the target 3 the media 4 the public and 5 the context The remaining chapters present engaging case studies suitable for class discussion These include Roman emperors Reformation propaganda the Founding Fathers defamation in US politics women politicians autocratic regimes European leaders celebrities nations Internet campaigns This handbook will prove invaluable to undergraduate and postgraduate students in communication political science history sociology and psychology departments It will also help researchers become independent critical and informed thinkers capable of avoiding the pressure and manipulations of the media
