North American Fiddle Music A Research and Information Guide is the first large scale annotated bibliography and research guide on the fiddle traditions of the United States and Canada These countries both of which have large immigrant populations as well as Native populations have maintained fiddle traditions that while sometimes faithful to old world or Native styles often feature blended elements from various traditions Therefore researchers of the fiddle traditions in these two countries can not only explore elements of fiddling practices drawn from various regions of the world but also look at how different fiddle traditions can interact and change In addition to including short essays and listings of resources about the full range of fiddle traditions in those two countries it also discusses selected resources about fiddle traditions in other countries that have influenced the traditions in the United States and Canada Focus: Irish Traditional Music Sean Williams,2013-02 Focus Irish Traditional Music is an introduction to the instrumental and vocal traditions of the Republic of Ireland and Northern Ireland as well as Irish music in the context of the Irish diaspora Ireland s size relative to Britain or to the mainland of Europe is small yet its impact on musical traditions beyond its shores has been significant from the performance of jigs and reels in pub sessions as far flung as Japan and Cape Town to the worldwide phenomenon of Riverdance Focus Irish Traditional Music interweaves dance film language history and other interdisciplinary features of Ireland and its diaspora The accompanying CD presents both traditional and contemporary sounds of Irish music at home and abroad Contemporary Fiddle Tunes from the Northeast of Ireland Rowan Leslie,2020-03-05

This unique collection celebrates the contemporary fiddle music of northeast Ireland much of it for the first time in print Not surprisingly given its location and long history of traditional music the fiddle music of this region shares some characteristics with Scottish music yet it has its own distinct style For those who are not familiar with this ruggedly attractive part of Ireland this book will introduce you to some of its music and musicians The tunes presented here collected by County Antrim fiddler Rowan Leslie have all been written relatively recently by local musicians Each tune is offered in two versions one with the barebones melody and suggested accompaniment chords and a second with ornamentation articulation and bowing details All tune types from northeast Ireland are represented including jigs and reels

polkas and hornpipes marches barn dances and waltzes plus set dances and slow airs Moreover the biographical sketches and backstories provided for each composer and tune demonstrate how the land itself along with personal experiences and relationships influence the fiddle music of northeast Ireland Irish Folk Music Francis O'Neill, 1910
