Charles Billingsley,2011-06 Did you know that God sings There are many things God does that you may not have thought about ever before and the more we know the better we can respond to Him God sees God winks God hears He cries He waits and He runs He is jealous and gets angry He smiles frowns and laughs Reflecting on the attributes and activities of God is the best way to become like Him In God Laughs Elmer Towns and Charles Billingsley invite the reader to deeply consider God's character and qualities They contend that it is only as we get to know Him that we can become more like Him and it is only when we glimpse God for who He is that we can worship Him in Spirit and in truth Readers are challenged to dig deeply into Scripture where God reveals that He has a heart and a nose and that He whistles The Lost Saint Sherry Durgapershad,2017-08-11 What do you know about love A question that has had many answers but with little justification But the worlds first documented love came from the roots of Christianity This book is the untold story of lord Jesus Christ and his saviour his purity his purpose his love Saint Mary Magdalene An epic poetic display of a womans valour and resolve poetic brilliance and spiritually humbling This book is a play on words as you have never seen before A condemned love story vindicated by the grace of art and poetry This book preserves the legacy of the bravest woman the world will ever know A never before told journey written with the spirit of the Lord and his love as a guide This book will detail love for the beauty it is and serve as a reminder that love true love is always victorious God, Relationships, and Evil Loren Meierding,2000-11-02 As an undergraduate the author was influenced strongly by Bertrand Russell s rejection of Christianity due to the amount of evil in the world After years of reading and reflecting on this topic this book was written in the hope of providing better insight on this issue The book s first part offers an analysis of the two primary historical approaches to theodicy the free will theodicy originated by Augustine and the soul making or character development theodicy elaborated by John Hick But the great value of human free will and character development does not seem adequately to justify all the evil we perceive The second part shows why development of relationships among God and human beings requires considerable evil Important non relationship oriented explanations are taken into account Justifications for permitting horrific evils including holocausts and world wars are given The final part provides an analysis of the argument from evil including forms of the argument which have appeared in recent years in philosophical journals Although evidence restricted to some evils or evil alone may have some weight when good is included as well as evil theists are justified in claiming the evidence supports their position far better than atheism By His Stripes Cameron Hodge,2010-12-29 A young college student struggles with unforgiveness suicide insecurity rape and more yet she finds freedom and joy in Jesus Christ The power of the cross and the resurrection of Jesus Christ changed her life forever Small Things With Great Love Donna-Marie Cooper O'Boyle,2019-01-01 This collection draws heavily from the core devotional strain in Miller s poetry offering what novelist Fenton Johnson described in his review of Iron Wheel as the vision and experience of that place where dark merges seamlessly into light the house and home of grace unasked for and perhaps undeserved but transformative all the same Framed by meditations on the beginnings and possible post human ends of culture the new poems reflect on the callings and limits of art in responding to desire history mortality and injustice Set in the American South Wales France the Czech Republic and Sudan the poems address and invoke the divine The New Man and the Eternal Life: Notes on the Reiterated Amens of the Son of God Andrew Jukes,1881 Woman and Love Bernhard Adam Bauer,1927 Some heart stopping collection Fulfillment of Prophecy Gary Gallant, 2023-08-30 Many believers neglect to study the Old Testament because they find it confusing or because they assume that it is less important to the Christian faith than the New Testament. We cannot understand Jesus or His gospel without a proper grounding in the Old Testament Scriptures. Thus we need to read and study the whole counsel of God. Let us not neglect the study of either testament. Unique among all books ever written, the Bible accurately foretells specific events in detail many years, sometimes centuries, before they occur. Approximately 2,500 prophecies appear in the pages of the Bible, about 2,000 of which already have been fulfilled to the letter, no errors. The remaining 500 or so reach into the future and may be seen unfolding as days go by. Since the probability of any one of these prophecies having been fulfilled by chance averages less than one in ten, figured very conservatively, and since the prophecies are for the most part independent of one another, the odds for all these prophecies having been fulfilled by chance without error is less than one in 102,000, that is, 1 with 2,000 zeros written after it. God is not the only one, however, who uses forecasts of future events to get people's attention. Satan does too. Through clairvoyants such as Jeanne Dixon and Edgar Cayce, mediums, spiritists, and others, come remarkable predictions, though rarely with more than about 60 percent accuracy, never with total accuracy. Messages from Satan furthermore fail to match the details of Bible prophecies, nor do they include a call to repentance. The acid test for identifying a prophet of God is recorded by Moses in Deuteronomy 18:21-22. According to this Bible passage and others, God's prophets, as distinct from Satan's spokesmen, are 100 percent accurate in their predictions. There is no room for error. The New Testament indicates that what happened at the cross, and on it was what the prophets had predicted would happen long before. Details of Jesus' life and death were written in divine prophecy hundreds of years before He was born in Bethlehem. Throughout the Gospels, this amazing truth is emphasized. As Jesus and His apostles left the upper room for the Garden of Gethsemane, He said to them, "You will all fall away because it is written, 'I will strike down the shepherd and the sheep shall be scattered.'" Mark 14:27. After Judas' betrayal, Jesus rebuked Peter for drawing his sword and cutting off the ear of Malchus, and said to him, "Put your sword back into its place. How then will the Scriptures be fulfilled, which say that it must happen this way?" Matthew 26:52-54. On the cross, Jesus waited until He saw that all things had already been accomplished before He uttered His only physical request, "I am thirsty." John 19:28. Later, the spear was thrust into Jesus' side, and blood and water came out. We read, "For these things came to pass to fulfill the Scripture, 'Not a bone of Him shall be broken.'" And again, another Scripture says, "They shall look on Him whom they pierced." John 19:36-37. The angel who was at the tomb on the morning of the resurrection said, "Remember how He spoke to you while He was still in Galilee, saying that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified, and the third day rise again." Luke 24:6-7. When Jesus met with the apostles and disciples Sunday evening, the same day He arose from the dead, He said to them, "These are My words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, that all things which are written about Me in the Law of Moses and the Prophets and the Psalms must be fulfilled. Thus it is written that the Christ would suffer and rise again from the dead the third day and that repentance for forgiveness of sins would be proclaimed in His name to all the nations beginning from Jerusalem Luke 24 44 47 In Jesus affirmation to those Sunday night witnesses He referred to all three divisions of the Hebrew Old Testament the Law of Moses the Prophets and the Psalms as He described the prophecies that had been fulfilled in Him It has been said that if one reads any part of the Bible and does not see Jesus in it he should go back and reread it for he has missed something very important In Peter s first gospel sermon on the Day of Pentecost he declared that Jesus had been delivered into the hands of godless men to be put to death by the predetermined plan and foreknowledge of God Acts 2 23 In his second sermon in Acts Peter covered in one sweeping sentence the prophecies of the whole Old Testament saying that Jesus sufferings on the cross fulfilled all that had been prophesied But the things which God announced beforehand by the mouth of all the prophets that His Christ would suffer He has thus fulfilled Acts 3 18

Fletcher,2009-06-22 There may be just two great questions in life why am I here and why is there suffering In seeking answers to those questions believers and skeptics alike have reduced God and the character and our understanding of God into neat pointless little boxes into which neither God nor the universe fit In seeking resolution can it be found in science nature and the universe itself Does the universe hold clues to the nature of God and can it point in the direction of solving both the question of life s meaning and purpose and the existence of evil and suffering This is a beautifully and powerfully written book of science and faith seamlessly woven together not so much to provide answers as to break believers and skeptics out of their metaphysical theological and scientific ruts The Watchtower ,1925 Unspoken Words Fareeda A.
