Women In Literature Reading Through The Lens Of Gender:

Women in Literature Jerilyn Fisher, Ellen Silber, 2003-06-30 With the literary canon consisting mostly of works created by and about men the central perspective is decidedly male This unique reference offers alternate approaches to reading traditional literature as well as suggestions for expanding the canon to include more gender sensitive works Covering 96 of the most frequently taught works of fiction essays offer teachers librarians and students fresh insights into the female perspective in literature The list of titles created in consultation with educators includes classic works by male authors like Dickens Faulkner and Twain balanced with works by female authors such as Kate Chopin's The Awakening and Mary Shelley's Frankenstein Also included are contemporary works by writers such as Alice Walker and Margaret Atwood that are being incorporated into the curriculum as well as those advancing a more global view such as Sandra Cisneros' House on Mango Street and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart The essays are expertly written in an accessible language that will help students gain greater awareness of gender related themes Suggestions for classroom discussions with selected works for further study are incorporated into the entries The volume is organized alphabetically by title and includes both author and subject indexes An appendix of gender related themes further enhances this volume's usefulness for curriculum applications and student research projects

A Student Handbook to the Plays of Tennessee Williams Stephen Bottoms, Philip Kolin, Michael Hooper, 2014-09-25 A Student Handbook to the Plays of Tennessee Williams provides the essential guide to Williams most studied and revived dramas Authored by a team of leading scholars it offers students a clear analysis and detailed commentary on four of Williams plays The Glass Menagerie A Streetcar Named Desire Cat on a Hot Tin Roof and Sweet Bird of Youth A consistent framework of analysis ensures that whether readers are wanting a summary of the play a commentary on the themes or characters or a discussion of the work in performance they can readily find what they need to develop their understanding and aid their appreciation of Williams artistry A chronology of the writer s life and work helps to situate all his works in context and the introduction reinforces this by providing a clear overview of Williams writing its recurrent themes and concerns and how these are intertwined with his life and times For each play the author provides a summary of the plot followed by commentary on The context Themes Characters Structure and language The play in production both on stage and screen adaptations Questions for study and notes on words and phrases in the text are also supplied to aid the reader The wealth of authoritative and clear commentary on each play together with further questions that encourage comparison across Williams work and related plays by other leading writers ensures that this is the clearest and fullest guide to Williams greatest plays

Thinking, Childhood, and Time Walter Omar Kohan, Barbara Weber, 2020-10-06 Thinking Childhood and Time Contemporary Perspectives on the Politics of Education is an interdisciplinary exploration of the notion of childhood and its place in a philosophical education Contributors consider children s experiences of time space embodiment and thinking By acknowledging Hannah Arendt s notion that every child brings a new beginning into the world they address the question of how educators can be more responsive to the Otherness that childhood offers while assuming that most educational models follow either a chronological model of child development or view children as human beings that are lacking The contributors explore childhood as a philosophical concept in children adults and even beyond human beings Childhood as a forgotten dimension of the world Contributors also argue that a pedagogy that does not aim for an exodus of childhood but rather responds to the arrival of a new human being responsibly dialogically fosters a deeper appreciation of the newness that children bring in order to sensitize us for our own Childhood as adults as well and allow us to welcome other forms of childhood in the world As a whole this book argues that the experience of natality such as the beginning of life is not chronologically determined but rather can occur more than once in a human life and beyond Scholars of philosophy education psychology and childhood studies will find this book particularly useful

The Midwestern Novel Nancy L. Bunge, 2014-12-12 With Huckleberry Finn American fiction changed radically and shifted its setting to the middle of the country A focus on social issues replaced the philosophic and psychological explorations that dominated the work of Melville and Hawthorne Colloquial speech rather than elevated language articulated these fresh ideas while common folk rather than dramatic characters like Ahab and Hester Prynne played central roles This transformation of American literature has been largely ignored while during the 130 years since Huckleberry Finn the Midwest has continued to produce writers whose work like Twain's addresses injustice by portraying the decency of ordinary people Since the end of the 19th century Midwestern authors have dismissed the elite and celebrated those whom the power structure typically excludes children women African Americans and the lower classes Instead of wealth and power this literature values authenticity and compassion The book explores this literary tradition by examining the work of 30 Midwestern writers including F Scott Fitzgerald Willa Cather Ernest Hemingway Richard Wright Saul Bellow Toni Morrison Jonathan Franzen Jane Smiley and Louise Erdrich

Self and Space in the Theater of Susan Glaspell Noelia Hernando-Real, 2011-10-10 Founding member of the Provincetown Players Pulitzer Prize winning playwright best selling novelist and short story writer Susan Glaspell 1876-1948 was a great contributor to American literature An exploration of eleven plays written between the years 1915 and 1943 this critical study focuses on one of Glaspell's central themes the interplay between place and identity This study examines the means Glaspell employs to engage her characters in proxemical and verbal dialectics with the forces of place that turn them into victims of location Of particular interest are her characters' attempts to escape the influence of territoriality and shape identities of their own

Philosophical Children in Literary Situations Peter Costello, 2020-10-28 Philosophical Children in Literary Situations Toward a Phenomenology of Education argues that both phenomenology and children's literature can assist one another in understanding the lived experience of children Through careful readings of central figures in the phenomenological tradition including Husserl Heidegger and Merleau-Ponty Costello introduces both the novice and the scholar to the phenomenological method of describing community emotion religion gender and loss experiences that are central to all humans but especially to the developing child When turning to literary analysis Costello uses the phenomenological theory discussed to open up the literary texts of familiar and award winning children's chapter books toward new layers of interpretation reading such novels as To Kill a Mockingbird A Wrinkle in Time and Charlotte's Web to participate in ongoing conversations about childhood perception within children's literature studies and philosophy for children Scholars of philosophy education literary studies and psychology will find this book particularly useful

Domestic Abuse in the Novels of African American Women Heather Duerre Humann, 2014-06-04 The literary tradition begun by Zora Neale Hurston in the 1930s has since flourished and taken new directions with a diverse body of fiction by more contemporary African American women writers This book examines the treatment of domestic violence in Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God Gayl Jones's Corregidora Gloria Naylor's The Women of Brewster Place and Linden Hills Alice Walker's The Color Purple Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye and Love Terry McMillan's Mama and A Day Late and a Dollar Short and Octavia Butler's Seed to Harvest These novels have given voice to oppressed and abused women The aims of this work are threefold to examine how female African American novelists portray domestic abuse to outline how literary depictions of domestic violence are responsive to cultural and historical forces and to explore the literary tradition of novels that deal with domestic abuse within the African American community The House on Mango Street (Bloom's Guides)

Sandra Cisneros, 2010 Discusses the writing of The house on Mango Street by Sandra Cisneros Includes critical essays on the work and a brief biography of the author
