Women To Preach Or Not To Preach 21 Outstanding Black Preachers Say Yes:

Women Ella Pearson Mitchell, 1991 Should women be equally free to use their God given gifts in fulfilling their calling to preach the Good News of Jesus Christ confronting this question head on brings a distinctively new approach to this third volume of sermons Mitchell has compiled Introduction to the Practice of African American Preaching Frank A. Thomas, 2016-11-15 The Introduction to African American Preaching is an important groundbreaking book This book acknowledges African American preaching as an academic discipline and invites all students and preachers into a scholarly dynamic and useful exploration of the topic Author Frank Thomas opens with a bus tour study of African American preaching He shows how African American preaching has gradually moved from an almost exclusively oral to an oral written tradition Readers will gain insight into the history of the study of the African American preaching tradition and catch the author's enthusiasm for it Next Thomas traces the relationship between homiletics and rhetoric in Western preaching demonstrating how African American preaching is inherently theological and rhetorical He then explores the question what is black preaching Thomas introduces the reader to methods of close reading and ideological criticism And then demonstrates how to use these methods using a sermon by Gardner Calvin Taylor as his example The next chapter considers the question what is excellence in black preaching The next chapter seeks to create bridges and dialogue within the field of homiletics and in particular the Euro American homiletic tradition The goal of this chapter is to clearly demonstrate connections between the African American preaching tradition and the field of homiletics Thomas next turns to questions about the relevancy of the church to the Millennial generation Specifically how will the African American church remain relevant to this generation which is so deeply concerned with social justice Claiming the Call to Preach Donna Giver-Johnston, 2021-05-25 Claiming the Call to Preach critically examines the dominant historical narrative that overtly or covertly has exercised its power to keep women from preaching Donna Giver Johnston here recovers the histories of four notable female preaching pioneers who affected change in the religious landscape of nineteenth century America Jarena Lee Frances Willard Louisa Woosley and Florence Spearing Randolph These women diverse in religion race class and culture each told their story of call in distinctive ways that articulated strong and effective rhetorical arguments for ecclesiastical sanction to give them a place in the pulpit Contemporary African American preaching P3040 , L Susan Bond reveals the full range and diversity of African American preaching in this exploration of African American homiletical theories Portraying the many approaches that are empowering preaching in African American churches today Bond shows how different theological perspectives produce different methods of sermon preparation and delivery different strategies for selecting illustrative material and even different ways of beginning and ending sermons Her goal is not to lift up the right way to preach in the African American tradition but to show the richness and nuance contained within this powerful cultural expression Preaching with Sacred Fire: An Anthology of African American Sermons, 1750 to the Present Martha Simmons, Frank A. Thomas, 2010-08-16 One hundred sermons that display the victorious although sometimes painful historical and spiritual pilgrimage of black people in America A groundbreaking anthology Preaching with Sacred Fire is a unique and powerful work It captures the stunning diversity of the cultural and historical legacy of African American preaching more than three hundred years in the making Each sermon as editors Martha Simmons and Frank A Thomas reveal is a work of art and a lesson in unmatched rhetoric The journey through this anthology which includes selections from Jarena Lee Frederick Douglass Malcolm X Martin Luther King Jr Gardner C Taylor Vashti McKenzie and many others offers a rare view of the unheralded role of the African American preacher in American history The collection provides new insights into the underpinnings of the black fight for emancipation and the rise and growth of the Civil Rights and Black Power movements Sermons from the first decade of the twenty first century point toward the future of African American preaching Biographies of the preachers put their work in the cultural and homiletic context of their periods The preachers of these sermons are men and women from a range of faiths ancestries and educational backgrounds They draw on a vast and luminous landscape of poetic language using metaphor rhythm and imagery to communicate with their congregations What they all have in common is hope resilience and sacred fire Even during the most difficult and oppressive times Simmons and Thomas write in the preface the delivery creativity charisma expressivity fervor forcefulness passion persuasiveness poise power rhetoric spirit style and vision of black preaching gave and gives hope to a community under siege This magnificent work beautifully renders the complexity spiritual richness and strength of African American life

This compendium of primary resources reflects the important but often overshadowed contribution of African American believers to the dynamic growth of the modern Pentecostal movement the fastest growing segment of global Christianity The doctrinal statements sermons songs testimonies news articles as well as scholarly treatises included here allow black leaders scholars and laypeople to speak in their own voices and use their own language to tell us their stories and articulate the issues that have been important to them throughout the one hundred year history of this movement Among the constant themes that continue to emerge is their appreciation of an empowering encounter with the Holy Spirit as the resource for engaging the dehumanizing racial reality of contemporary America The Politics of Power and the Ordination of Women Adolphus Amadi-Azuogu, 2007-08 The politics of power in the church hinders the ordination of women today Once ecclesiastical power is involved ruling is also involved Consequently the altar has also become the throne and this tempts men to suppress women The author argues that Jesus refrained from using any gender specific paradigms that would have excluded women from ritual leadership Christian Deborah's Daughters Joy A. Schroeder, 2014 Joy A Schroeder offers the first in depth exploration of the biblical story of Deborah an authoritative judge prophet and war leader For centuries Deborah s story has challenged readers traditional assumptions about the place of women in society Schroeder shows how Deborah s story has fueled gender debates throughout history An examination of the prophetess s journey through nearly two thousand years of Jewish and Christian interpretation reveals how the biblical account of Deborah was deployed against women for women and by women who aspired to leadership roles in religious communities and society Numerous women and men who supported women s aspirations to leadership used Deborah s narrative to justify female claims to political and religious authority Opponents to women s public leadership endeavored to define Deborah s role as private or argued that she was a divinely authorized exception not to be emulated by future generations of women Deborah s Daughters provides crucial new insight into the history of women in Judaism and Christianity and into women s past and present roles in the church synagogue and society
