Wordweaving Wordweaving:

Wordweaving Trevor Silvester, 2003 This text presents a new approach to the use of hypnotic suggestion For years hypnotherapists have used scripts which are aimed at a particular problem like smoking or weight loss rather than aiming at the client who smokes or has weight issues Trevor Silvester suggests that it is not the problem that is the problem it s the client s unique relationship with the problem that s the problem The book aims to free you from the constraints of scripts and enable you to use your creative skill to weave subtle spells that empower your clients by changing their model of reality It presents the science behind suggestion and the means of using that science to create magical ways of influencing others

Word Weaving Jaki Brien, 2006 A collection of the best entries for the Cheshire Prize for Literature 2005 which was for an original and previously unpublished piece of writing for children The 18 stories and 2 poems in the anthology include the eventual prize winners The First Prize was won by David Whitley and the Runner Up Prizes by Tricia Durdey and Sheila Powell while John Mead won the Prize awarded for the entry that most impressed an advisory panel of young readers The book also contains an introduction by the former Children s Laureate Michael Morpurgo who contributed to the final stages of the judging

Textiles and Textile Imagery in Early Medieval English Literature Maren Clegg Hyer, 2025-04-22 Identifies and analyses a wide range of textile metaphors and imagery from peace weaving in Beowulf to word crafting in Elene Textile metaphors or metaphors involving the process and product of cloth making occur widely in literary traditions around the world The same phenomenon holds true among the peoples of early medieval England As close observers of a long and culturally significant textile tradition pre Conquest English writers drew upon their close familiarity with spinning and weaving to create a wide range of metaphorical textile images in both Old English and Anglo Latin literature This book examines early medieval English textile imagery in close detail situating it within its cultural and material contexts and addressing the ways in which lived experience informed these metaphors whether inherited invented or both It explores imagery linked to themes of creation peace death magic and fate in a comprehensive variety of texts including Beowulf and Elene Anglo Latin letters and riddles the Exeter Book riddles prognostics penitentials hagiographic and homiletic texts medical collections and glosses Overall it demonstrates how an understanding of this important body of textile metaphors alters and shapes the ways in which we read the literature of this period

Textiles, Text, Intertext Maren Clegg Hyer, Jill Frederick, 2016 The theme of weaving a powerful metaphor within Anglo Saxon studies and Old English literature itself unites the essays collected here They range from consideration of interwoven sources in homiletic prose and a word weaving poet to woven riddles and iconographical textures in medieval art and show how weaving has the power to represent textiles texts and textures both literal and metaphorical in the early medieval period They thus form an appropriate tribute to Professor Gale R Owen Crocker whose own scholarship has focussed on exploring woven works of textile and dress manuscripts and text and other arts of the Anglo Saxon peoples
