Working For A Better World:

Working for a Better World Dr. Carolyn Y. Woo, 2015-04-08 God makes promises and keeps them and these promises are about love for us During every challenge every disappointment I have held on to this Carolyn Woo grew up in Hong Kong a city of refugees who had fled from the communist government in China as her own parents had done Relatives crashed on their couches and brutal stories of Red Guards filtered through but the ferment of the time fueled a drive to create opportunities Wasting no time Carolyn earned her doctorate in the United States and eventually became the highly successful dean of the Mendoza School of Business at Notre Dame And then Catholic Relief Services offered her the position of CEO and President of the global humanitarian arm of the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops Initially not interested Carolyn eventually accepted the position for which her faith education business experience and personal background uniquely equipped her Working for a Better World is an engrossing account not only of Dr Woo s own life but of the ongoing critical work of CRS in meeting the needs of the poor the traumatized and the needy throughout the world From typhoon flattened cities in the Philippines to earthquake devastated Haiti CRS is there before the TV cameras arrive and there after they leave And there in over 100 countries helping subsistence farmers and health care workers orphans and refugees in those neglected places where the cameras never come We must be docile and attentive to the cry of the poor and to come to their aid Pope Francis has said And in doing so Dr Woo affirms we never know when or how we will encounter God

Pragmatic Nonviolence: Working toward a Better World Andrew Fitz-Gibbon, 2020-12-29 Written in dialogue format Andrew Fitz Gibbon s Pragmatic Nonviolence argues that nonviolence is the best hope for a better world Human violence in all its forms physical psychological and systemic cultural is perhaps the greatest obstacle to well being in personal and community life Nonviolence as a practice that whenever possible seeks the well being of the Other by refusing to use violence to solve problems and by acting according to loving kindness is the best antidote to human violence By drawing on the philosophy of nonviolence the American pragmatist tradition and recent empirical research Pragmatic Nonviolence demonstrates that rather than being merely theoretical nonviolence is a truly practical approach toward personal and community well being
