Garth Lean, Russell Staiff, Emma Waterton, 2017-07-01 Travel and Representation is a timely volume of essays that explores and re-examines the various convergences between literature art photography television cinema and travel The essays do so in a way that appreciates the entanglement of representations and travel at a juncture in theoretical work that recognizes the limits of representation things that lie outside of representation and the continuing power of representation The emphasis is on the myriad ways travelers scholars employ representation in their writing analyses as they re-think the intersections between travelers fields of representation imagination emotions and corporeal experiences in the past the present and the future
