Global Literary Studies Diana Roig-Sanz,Neus Rotger,2022-12-05 While the very existence of global literary studies as an institutionalised field is not yet fully established the global turn in various disciplines in the humanities and the social sciences has been gaining traction in recent years This book aims to contribute to the field of global literary studies with a more inclusive and decentralising approach Specifically it responds to a double demand the need for expanding openness to other ways of seeing the global literary space by including multiple literary and cultural traditions and other interdisciplinary perspectives in the discussion and the need for conceptual models and different case studies that will help develop a global approach in four key avenues of research global translation flows and translation policies the post 1989 novel as a global form global literary environments and a global perspective on film and cinema history Gathering contributions from international scholars with expertise in various areas of research the volume is structured around five target concepts space scale time connectivity and agency We also take gender and LGBTQ perspectives as well as a digital approach

Experimental Fiction Julie Armstrong,2014-08-28 Ever since Ezra Pound's exhortation to make it new experimentation has been a hallmark of contemporary literature Ranging from the modernists through the Beats to postmodernism and contemporary hyperfiction this is a unique introduction to experimental fiction Creative exercises throughout the book help students grapple with the many varieties of experimental fiction for themselves deepening their understanding of these many forms and developing their own writing skills In addition the book examines the historical contexts and major themes of 20th century experimental fiction and new directions for the novel offered by writers such as David Shields and Zadie Smith Making often difficult works accessible for the first time reader and with extensive further reading guides Experimental Fiction is an essential practical guidebook for students of creative writing and contemporary fiction Writers covered include James Joyce Virginia Woolf Franz Kafka Marcel Proust Ralph Ellison Allen Ginsberg Jack Kerouac William Gibson Italo Calvino Jeanette Winterson Don DeLillo Caitlin Fisher Geoff Ryman Xiaolu Guo Tom McCarthy James Frey and David Mitchell

Eos CVII (2020), fasc. 1-2 Jakub Pigoń,Krzysztof Nawotka, Minor Characters Have Their Day Jeremy Rosen,2016-10-04 How do genres develop In what ways do they reflect changing political and cultural trends What do they tell us about the motivations of publishers and readers Combining close readings and formal analysis with a sociology of literary institutions and markets Minor Characters Have Their Day offers a compelling new approach to genre study and contemporary fiction Focusing on the booming genre of books that transform minor characters from canonical literary texts into the protagonists of new works Jeremy Rosen makes broader claims about the state of contemporary fiction the strategies of the publishing industry over recent decades and the function of literary characters Rosen traces the recent surge in minor character elaboration to the late 1960s and works such as Jean Rhys's Wide Sargasso Sea and Tom Stoppard's Rosencrantz and Guildenstern Are Dead

These early examples often recover the voices of marginalized individuals and groups As the genre has exploded between the 1980s and the present with novels about Ahab s wife Huck Finn s father and Mr Dalloway it has begun to embody the neoliberal commitments of subjective experience individual expression and agency Eventually large scale publishers capitalized on the genre as a way to appeal to educated audiences aware of the prestige of the classics and to draw in identity based niche markets Rosen s conclusion ties the understudied evolution of minor character elaboration to the theory of literary character

Epic Ambitions in Modern Times Robert Crossley,2022-08-16 Epic Ambitions in Modern Times explores how artists in varied genres and media have aimed for in Milton s phrase things unattempted yet in epic creation Starting with the last books of Paradise Lost as a farewell to the ancient tradition of epic and extending to an assessment of four twenty first century women writers retelling canonical epics in the voices of marginalized characters the book s intervening chapters consider epic in the forms of an epistolary novel a work of history a poetic autobiography an opera a silent film a series of paintings two literary fantasies three poems set in the future and a play

Popular Receptions of Classical Antiquity Jens A. Krasilnikoff,Vinnie Nørskov,Christian Thruue Djurslev,2024-11-14 The present volume offers a fresh take on classical antiquity s enduring presence in popular culture It is structured around three key themes historical receptions comics and contemporary society covering a wide variety of material from literature and art to music and media It also provides new methodological considerations for anyone interested in classical reception One particularly innovative aspect of the volume is the special attention to the Danish experience of the ancient world What role does classical antiquity play in Denmark Contributors reveal how these ancient stories have been reinterpreted across time highlighting Denmark s own rich history of engaging with the classical world from Julius Caesar s unlikely influence in Danish Romanticism to the revival of Greek myths in contemporary art
