ACT Alliance and the Refugee Crisis Torbjörn Toll,2024-12-18 The thesis attends to ecclesial matters of aid by analysing the ecclesiological problem of identity and meaning of ACT Alliance African churches are participating in aid and Ethiopia is a good case with its intensity of church based aid work ACT Alliance was an ecumenical initiative to act in solidarity with people in need through coordination and collaboration ACT i e Action by Churches Together expresses the churches growing together in koinonia In theory this ecclesologically informed idea was conceptualised as ecumenical diakonia Christian aid agencies may suffer a mission drift and loss of identity causing inner secularisation in the churches thus endangering Christian commitment to the poor Tensions in the study signify an ambiguity that this thesis investigates through the case of the ETH141 ACT Appeal to support South Sudanese refugees in Ethiopia in 2014 with two churches in Ethiopia shedding light on the issue The ACT

forum failed to attract church funding and mobilised state funding by a consortium with a principled humanitarian approach appropriate for refugee assistance The Maedot of 1983 from the Ethiopian Orthodox Tewahido Church and the ECMY letter of 1972 from the Ethiopian Evangelical Church Mekane Yesus supported integral human development while criticising a donor based approach based on a sense of Ethiopian ownership Christian anthropology and the gospel The ETH141 resembles an international crisis model i e relief assistance by ecumenical specialised agencies coordinating with other stakeholders without being integrated with the churches intended as intra church aid or set up for Christian mission Tensions indicate superficial conflict but deep concord between aid and church and deep conflict between exclusive humanism and the churches mission to reach every person with the gospel and life of the church
