The Spiritual Practices Of Rumi Radical Techniques For Beholding The Divine:

The Spiritual Practices of Rumi Will Johnson, 2007-08-13 The secret Rumi found in beholding the Divine in his sacred relationship with Shams i Tabriz Shows how in 1244 Sufi poet and mystic Jalaluddin Rumi was first brought to a state of ecstatic union with the cosmos and all its creatures Reveals the radical spiritual practice Rumi formulated in his private retreat with the mendicant seeker Shams i Tabriz Uses the poetry and prose of Rumi to explain how to come face to face with the Divine One of the most extraordinary events in the history of Sufism occurred in 1244 when the Sufi poet and mystic Jalaluddin Rumi met a wandering seeker named Shams i Tabriz Upon meeting the two men immediately went into private retreat together emerging ninety days later in a transformed condition In The Spiritual Practices of Rumi Will Johnson reveals the radical spiritual practice that transpired between Rumi and Shams To put it simply they sat and gazed into each other's eyes Because the eyes are portals to the soul their sustained gazing formed the basis of a devotional practice that opened the doors to a profoundly ecstatic state of divine union Johnson draws on the poetry and prose of Rumi to unfold his story He also explains how one may embark on the practice of intentional gazing to experience the state of ecstatic divine union shared by Rumi and Shams so many centuries ago Spiritual Practices of Rumi Will Johnson, 2007 Rumi's Four Essential Practices Will Johnson, 2010-01-19 Poems and commentary that open the door for a new generation to experience the ecstatic and embodied spiritual truths contained in Rumi's poetry Reveals how the four practices of eating lightly breathing deeply moving freely and gazing intently can invoke the divinity within us all Explains how these practices dissolve the self's need for identity so that we may experience a state of transcendent ecstasy and union with the divine Takes Rumi's path to finding God from theoretical to embodied practices The great thirteenth century Sufi mystic and poet Jalaluddin Rumi began his life as an orthodox Islamic believer but felt that to fully experience complete union with the divine he must abandon institutionalized religion and its prescribed forms of worship Surrendering his will to his overriding urge for a much more immediate intuitive and compelling union with the divine he found that by manipulating certain behavioral aspects of his physiology eating lightly breathing deeply moving freely and gazing raptly he was capable of loosening the rigid confines of the self thereby overriding its limitations and achieving a transcendent merging with his own divinity His message is simple if you wish to affect the spirit you must first make changes in the way your body responds to the world Through clearly written commentary interspersed with Rumi's beautiful poems this book details these four practices in a very precise way As such it is a sweet and open invitation to follow the examples set forth in order to embark upon one's own path of inner illumination The freshness of Rumi's poetry dissolves the 700 years that separate his life from our own time making his message as pertinent today as when he walked the streets of Konya Anatolia present day Turkey reciting his inspiring verse This book allows us through Rumi's gentle guidance to touch the face of God that resides deep within us all Posthuman Spiritualities in Contemporary Performance Silvia Battista, 2018-06-19 This book provides an interpretative analysis of the notion of spirituality through the lens of contemporary performance and posthuman theories The book examines five performance artworks The Artist is Present 2010 by Marina Abramovi The Deer Shelter Skyscape 2007 by James Turrell CAT 1998 by Ansuman Biswas Journey to the Lower World by Marcus Coates 2004 and the work with pollen by Wolfgang Laib Through the analysis of these works the notion of spirituality is grounded in materiality and embodiment allowing the conceptual juxtaposition of spirit and matter to introduce the paradoxical as the guiding thread of the narrative of the book Here the human is interrogated and negotiated with within a plurality of other living organisms intangible existences and micro and macrocosmic ecologies Silence meditation shamanic journeys reciprocal gazing restraint and contemplation are analyzed as technologies used to manipulate perception and adventure into the multilayered condition of matter

Luminous Life Jacob Israel Liberman, 2018-01-22 Let Light Guide Your Life The most important things in life are our health and happiness Yet most of us are neither healthy nor happy We have been led to believe that if we think ahead and make the right choices we can manifest our dreams Yet despite our best efforts we still have more disease and discontent than ever before Is it possible that our essential ideas about life are flawed We are all aware of the impact of sunlight on a plants growth and development But few of us realize that a plant actually sees where light is emanating from and positions itself to be in optimal alignment with it This phenomenon however is not just occurring in the plant kingdom humans are also fundamentally directed by light In Luminous Life Dr Jacob Israel Liberman integrates scientific research clinical practice and direct experience to demonstrate how the luminous intelligence we call light effortlessly guides us toward health contentment and a life filled with purpose

Re-discovering Age(ing) Núria Casado-Gual, Emma Domínguez Rué, Maricel Oró-Piqueras, 2019-06-13 Since Mentor Telemachus advisor in Homer s Odyssey gave name to the figure of the wise teacher fictional representations of mentoring have permeated classic and contemporary cultural texts of different literary genres such as fiction poetry and life writing The contributions of this volume explore wisdom in old age through a series of narratives of mentorship which either from a critical or a personal perspective undermine ageist views of later life

Breathing through the Whole Body Will Johnson, 2012-01-25 Explores the Buddha s own words on breathing meditation for healing wholeness and a deeper understanding of his teachings Explains the complete series of steps in the Buddha s Satipatthana Sutta for refining awareness of the breath from posture and center of gravity to extending breath awareness beyond the nostrils lungs and abdomen to the entire body Shows that stillness in meditation refers only to the mind not to the body Reveals breath to be a direct agent of healing for chronic tensions and an agitated mind Explaining how stillness in meditation refers not to a rigid and frozen body but to a quality of mind Will Johnson examines the Buddha s own words at the core of the Satipatthana Sutta As you breathe in breathe in through the whole body as you breathe out breathe out through the whole body an instruction often overlooked in the majority of Buddhist schools Exploring the Buddha s complete series of steps for deepening awareness of the breath he shows how to invite natural responsive movement back into the posture of meditation by extending breath awareness beyond the nostrils lungs and abdomen to the entire body a practice that unifies the breath body and mind into a single shared phenomenon Showing how the flow of breath is directly affected by chronic tensions in the body and in the mind Johnson explains that when breath starts flowing through more and more of the body it becomes a direct agent of healing massaging and melting any areas of tension it touches and moves through whether physical or emotional By breathing through the whole body in accordance with the Buddha s instructions on breath the body becomes much more comfortable the mind starts resolving its addiction to thinking and meditative practice deepens much more rapidly allowing the teachings of the Buddha to be directly glimpsed and revealed

Living on the Other Side Lisa M. Hess,2025-05-15 Living on the Other Side recounts and aims to redress the unspoken largely unconscious abandonment of the Feminine in ecclesial and academic settings through an economic trinity of voices a feminist with a forgiveness problem a conscious feminine theologian serving in academic and ecclesial environments unconsciously hostile to the Feminine and a preacher s wife coming to voice about the realities of congregational Christianity held redemptively in covenantal love Fruit of decades in theological education these pages demonstrate the necessity of sacred bewilderment for deepening spiritual maturity the purposes of rage becoming holy when able to acknowledge its limitation and an unexpected freedom that arises when forgiveness finds us in faith renewed in the Body of Humanity Current and prospective students in theology and religion seasoned pastors and willing congregations will find a compelling narrative and theological sense making of one woman s life in the Spirit disrupted so to become regrounded in a renewed and renewing trinitarianism arising out of historic Christian traditions

Rumi, Gazing at the Beloved Will Johnson,2003 In 1244 the Sufi poet Jallaludin Rumi met a wandering seeker named Shams i Tabriz Upon meeting the two men immediately went into private retreat together and emerged 90 days later in a transformed condition Rumi Gazing at the Beloved reveals the esoteric practice that Rumi and Shams were engaged in

Eyes Wide Open Will Johnson,2016-04-11 Meditation practices to awaken the body and create a mind like a mirror to literally see things as they are Draws on the story of the monk Shenxiu to create a meditation practice for profound relaxation inclusion and connection to the world around us and realization of our essential nature Explains how our attitudes beliefs and bodily tensions distort our perceptions and lead to our sense of separation from the world outside our bodies Details techniques of vision such as sky gazing eye gazing and mirror gazing that lead to an ecstatic mindfulness Right behind your eyes you are there You can feel yourself there looking So intimate is your connection with your looking that when you say I m looking you re implying that how you look and what you see are a direct reflection of who you are in this moment Your attitudes and beliefs reflect what you see and the way you live in your body can color your perceptions as well This splitting in two of experience an inside the body world and an outside the body world creates in many of us a sense of isolation and loneliness a feeling of disconnection from the larger world at which we look But the visual field is equally capable of reflecting a sense of connection and inclusion an invitation to merge with the larger universe rather than confirming how irrevocably separated we are Drawing on the story of the seventh century Chinese monk Shenxiu Will Johnson offers meditation exercises to create a mind like a mirror cleansing it of obscuring layers of worry and emotion to literally see things as they are not just how we perceive them to be He explains how to awaken your body to the sensations we learn to ignore when we lose ourselves in thought and tense ourselves in ways that stifle the body's vibrancy He offers meditative techniques to silence the projections of the mind and enter into a condition of ecstatic mindfulness He details gazing practices such as sky gazing eye gazing and mirror gazing to cleanse our vision and remove whatever is distorting our perceptions Through this new kind of seeing divisions between your inner and outer world start to drop away You begin to experience an intimate connectivity to the world you look out onto By cleansing the mirror of the mind we can come out of the dreams of who we think we are and awaken into our true essential nature
