The Suffering Of God According To Martin Luthers Theologia Crucis:

Luther's Theology of the Cross Dennis Ngien,2018-06-11 Luther was fundamentally a preacher pastor a care taker of souls whose ingenuity lies in his usage of the biblical message as a source of pastoral encouragement This book seeks to capture the often overlooked pastoral side of the Reformer through an examination of his sermons on John s gospel The sermons on John show the intrinsic close and causal link between doctrine and consolation They are an exercise of his vocation as a pastor or more precisely as a theologian of the cross who seeks to inculcate the good news of justification by faith in his people leading them to experience it within the dialectic of law and gospel St John said Luther is the master in the article of justification Luther s theological method namely his theology of the cross permeates and governs the exposition of the text and all major themes of his theology Christology Trinity and soteriology appear in his exegesis of John

Luther as a Spiritual Adviser Dennis Ngien, 2007-06-01 Most Luther scholars have focused largely on the polemical side of the Reformer with occasional allusion to his Devotional Writings in volumes 42 and 43 of the American editions The aim of this book is to unfold the pastoral not the polemical side of the reformer drawing on the spiritual insights he offers to people of high and low estate These writings are devotional and catechetical in shape and intent yet not devoid of rich theological substance the fruit of his rigorous reflections They are the exercises of Luther's basic calling as a theologian pastor and are the concrete illustrations of the interface of theology and piety the former being the abiding presupposition and logical cause of the latter Through them readers are informed not only of the Reformation theology of justification but also introduced to a distinct expression of the Christian faith in which Christ and his cross occupy the centre stage What is noticeable is the one single overarching theme God's ways with people that the Reformer as a spiritual adviser sought to relate to the events of his days such as evils severe afflictions the prevalent lay abuse of the Eucharist He counseled how to meditate aright on Christ's passion prepare to face the terror of death advise the sick rightly approach the sacrament of the altar why and how to pray aright what benefits could be gained from the Lord's Prayer and how to live out a life of discipleship under the cross Ngien's work reveals Luther as a true theologian i.e. theologian of the cross at work in the pastoral context

The Theology of the Cross in Historical Perspective Anna M.

Madsen,2007-01-01 The theology of the cross is indisputably a trendy concept today Numerous seminars books and dissertations tackle the topic But The Theology of the Cross in Historical Perspective demonstrates that theology of the cross is no passing fancy Theologies of the cross appear at the beginnings of the church in the sixteenth century reformations of the church and in the more contemporary modernization of the church Without theologies of the cross what the church is called to be and to preach becomes unclear So then what is the theology of the cross Anna Madsen surveys the theology of the cross in the thinking of Paul and Luther She also outlines several important twentieth century contributions to the subject On the basis of her analysis Madsen suggests that the theology of the cross reveals God to be found even in death In death after all boundaries disappear The theology of the cross assures Christians that God is present in the death of sin and in the realities of suffering and uncertainty Given that it announces God s presence the theology of the cross is ultimately a theology of grace freedom and trust

Mission in Context: In Search of Asian Strategic Communication of the Gospel Thang Deih Lian Davidlianno,2018-05-09 There is a profusion of missional issues emerging in the Asian fields that call Christ s followers to actively witnessing the Truth Missionaries from different continents have come to serve the Asian nations and yet these God s loving missionaries effectiveness often seem to have left in the shade by some damaging fruits and sometimes being too much of Westernness stemming from a diversity of lacking knowledge particularly the local contexts to contextualize and lack of preparation The irrefutable finding is appealing within the Asian mission study in regard to the essentiality in equipping the Christians so that the ministries in Asia will experience the effectiveness in cultivating the diverse contexts cultures with the text Scripture they have Many principles and practical information from this book grew out of the authors experiences and the reflection of Missiologists and scholars such as Andrew Walls Christopher Wright Kazoh Kitamori Paul Hiebert etc

Risking Truth Scott A. Ellington,2008-09-01 Ours is a world characterized by change Often the most fundamental changes in our lives result from experiences of profound suffering and loss as we are wrenched from our familiar world and driven into one that is alien In the midst of such loss we are compelled to choose between trying to cling to the remnants of a reality that is passing away and trying to make a home in a strange new world Biblical prayers of lament wait for us at this crossroad of loss and newness Prayers of lament are marked both by loss and by the inexplicable silence of God Everything we believe about God s justice and goodness is placed in doubt by his hiddenness The cry of lament is an act of tremendous risk To lament is to abandon the sinking ship of religious certainty and strike out in a small dingy amidst stormy seas in search of a hidden God Faced with God s silence the biblical writers are willing to place at risk their most fundamental beliefs and to lament The Psalm writers risk the loss of the Exodus story by crying out to a God who has failed to save demanding that he once more part the chaotic waters and make a way in the desert Job risks the loss of a moral God by confronting God with his injustice Jeremiah risks the loss of the covenant by calling out for God to return yet again to a faithless partner and a failed marriage Matthew and John the Revelator recognize that the coming of Messiah is impelled by the cries of innocent sufferers Throughout the Bible lament risks the possible loss of relationship with God and presses for a new though uncertain experience of God's presence

Atonement Theories Ben Pugh, 2015-02-26 With the subject of the atonement of Christ attracting such a lot of polemical work at this time it is easy to conclude that the current debate is generating more heat than light Atonement Theories presents the beginning student pastor or researcher with an accessible and fair treatment of every school of thought on this subject Atonement Theories significantly updates previous histories of the doctrine providing analysis of some fascinating and highly significant recent developments It also intriguingly highlights at various points where aspects of this central message of Christianity might find a connection within contemporary culture It aims to empower the reader to quickly gain a working knowledge of current debates and the history behind them

The Apathetic God Daniel Castelo, 2009-10-01 This work seeks to create a via media between the tradition of divine impassibility and the contemporary preference for divine possibility within formal theological reflection Rather than dismissing divine impassibility as a Hellenized and antiquated notion the author seeks to reconfigure how this axiom functioned for the early church as a way to complement and deepen the present tendency toward divine possibility At stake in these discussions is not only the coherence of God talk across time but also what Christians take to be their guiding vision of God's character and action in the world a vision that inevitably determines the shape of Christian discipleship

Cross Narratives Neal J. Anthony, 2010-06-01 Luther's radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ and specifically its expression through the ubiquitous presence of the humanity of Christ is a fundamental integral expression of that same theology This expression of Luther's theology of the cross Anthony asserts provides both a fuller elaboration and an important and creative corrective with reference to recent signal expressions of the theology of the cross As contemporary theologians of the cross have articulated most notably Douglas John Hall and the late Alan E Lewis the theology of the cross through a transformation of the divine attributes that honors the integrity of created beings is preeminently a theology of redemption from within within redemption In the process of outlining and analyzing these theologies of within redemption Anthony exposes an impasse created by these theologies regarding the relationship of within redemption to individual human narratives It is through Luther's radical interpretation of the two natures of Christ Anthony contends that complete within redemption can be expressed Anthony also evaluates the Christology of Karl Barth from the perspective of his findings Not only is Anthony's work an innovative and fresh application of Luther's Christology for contemporary discussions of the theology of the cross but it places Luther's Christology at the cutting edge of contemporary discussions regarding the theology of the cross and its within redemption

God's Radical Love in Missio Dei Edward Kim, 2024-12-30 Although missio Dei the mission of God has been a burning theme in missiology since the end of the twentieth century a key verse John 3:16 has been widely neglected in missiology until today Yet John 3:16 reveals missio Dei as the triune God's salvific activities in the world and shows us the very motivation for missio Dei God's Radical Love a love so vast transcultural and universal that no English words can translate the Hebrew Three questions are explored herein How does God's Radical Love in John 3:16 justify God's motivation for missio Dei as the work of the triune God in the Old Testament What does God really plan to achieve in missio Dei And how can missio Dei be applied by Christians in the twenty first century Based on his own experiences the author specifically explores how Messianic Jewish congregations in Israel could respond to and participate in missio Dei with the hope that thoughtful readers may apply this study to their own contexts to engage their own congregations with a deeper understanding of God's Radical Love in missio Dei

What Has Wittenberg to Do with Azusa? David J. Courey, 2015-02-26 Global Pentecostalism is a twenty first century phenomenon Yet in North America where the movement was born it has stalled Courey uncovers the cause of this plateau in the triumphalism that is characteristic of both North American Protestantism and Pentecostalism Through the identification of parallels between Martin Luther and contemporary Pentecostals Courey detects in Luther's Theology of the Cross a potent remedy for this tension Utilising this insight Courey reflects on other faith traditions and provides a counterpoint to the triumphalism that inhibits the development of Pentecostalism in North America and around the world This work comprises of three parts The first is historical charting the antecedents and development of Pentecostal triumphalism The second is an experiment in historical theology seeking basic resonances between Luther and early Pentecostals and examining the Theology of the Cross as a means of probing Pentecostalism The final section is an effort in constructive theology applying the theologia crucis to some of the central aspects of Pentecostalism
