The Survivors Book One Life After War 1:

Holocaust Trauma Natan P.F. Kellermann Ph.D.,2009-08-17 Holocaust Trauma offers a comprehensive overview of the long term psychological effects of Holocaust trauma It covers not only the direct effects on the actual survivors and the transmission effects upon the offspring but also the collective effects upon other affected populations including the Israeli Jewish and the societies in Germany and Austria It also suggests various possible intervention approaches to deal with such long term effects of major trauma upon individuals groups and societies that can be generalized to other similar traumatic events The material presented is based on the clinical experience gathered from hundreds of clients of the National Israeli Center for Psychosocial Support of Holocaust Survivors and the Second Generation AMCHA an Israeli treatment center for this population and from facilitating groups of Austrian German participants in Yad Vashem and Europe as well as an upon an extensive review of the vast literature in the field a long awaited text from one of the most experienced and knowledgeable psychologists in the world The text is groundbreaking in its sensitivity historical grounding insight and scholarship Michael A Grodin M D The Social Life of Scotland in the Eighteenth Century Henry Grey Graham,1906 Mediating Violence from Africa George MacLeod,2023-10 Mediating Violence from Africa explores how African and non African Francophone authors filmmakers editors and scholars have packaged interpreted and filmed the violent histories of post Cold War Francophone Africa This violence much of which unfolded in front of Western television cameras included the use of child soldiers facilitated by the Soviet Union s castoff Kalashnikov rifles the rise of Islamist terrorism in West Africa and the horrific genocide against the Tutsi in Rwanda Through close readings of fictionalized child soldier narratives cinematic representations of Islamist militants genocide survivor testimony and Western scholarship George S MacLeod analyzes the ways Francophone African authors and filmmakers as well as their editors and scholarly critics negotiate the aesthetic political cultural and ethical implications of making these traumatic stories visible MacLeod argues for the need to periodize these productions within a post Cold War framework to emphasize how shifts in post 1989 political discourse are echoed contested or subverted by contemporary Francophone authors filmmakers and Western scholars The questions raised in Mediating Violence from Africa are of vital importance today How the world engages with and responds to stories of recent violence and loss from Africa has profound implications for the affected communities and individuals More broadly in an era in which stories and images of violence from terror attacks to school shootings to police brutality are disseminated almost instantly and with minimal context these theoretical questions have implications for debates surrounding the ethics of representing trauma the politicization of memory and Africa s place in a global as opposed to a postcolonial or Euro African economic and political landscape Efrain's Book Alfred Andersch,1994 Efrain s Book is the sophisticated offbeat novel about the peculiar society of post World II Berlin Its hero George Efrain is a Jewish reporter who has fought for the British on the Italian front and lost both parents to Auschwitz He returns home to Berlin in 1962 for the first time since the war to investigate the wartime disappearance of his editor's daughter only to begin writing a novel which helps him to embark on a certain arrangement of signs with the help of which I hope to chart my position Like the great German novels of Günter Grass and Heinrich Böll Alfred Andersch's Efraim's Book grapples with the legacy of World War II and the Holocaust in all its horror and sad humanity A troubling yet often humorous book it offers a poignant account of the traumatized German state

Aftermath of the Holocaust and Genocides Victoria Khiterer, Erin Magee, 2020-04-02 While many works have been published on different aspects of the Holocaust and genocides their aftermath and impact on society still require further research and discussion in scholarly literature This book illuminates unknown aspects of the aftermath of the Holocaust and genocides and discusses trials of Holocaust and genocide perpetrators commemoration of the victims attempts to revive Jewish national life and outbreaks of post World War II anti-Semitism It also analyzes the representation of the Holocaust and genocides in literature press and film The volume includes thirteen articles which are based on recently discovered archival materials and provides new approaches to the research of the Armenian genocide the Holodomor ethnic cleansing and the Holocaust

Exiting the Extraordinary Frances V. Moulder, 2015-11-11 This book is an exploratory study in sociological perspective of the process of returning to the ordinary world after extraordinary experiences Some people have transformative experiences in life that are so extraordinary that they cannot be at all adequately explained to those who have not had such experiences Experiences of this sort include being in military combat participating in great social movements revolutions or terrorist activities being incarcerated in concentration camps the Gulag and prisons surviving collective disasters such as floods or hurricanes serving in intelligence agencies and undercover roles being a member of unusual religious groups working as a journalist in war zones carrying out aid work in impoverished or war-torn regions and enduring slavery The book discusses the commonalities among extraordinary experiences why people are so profoundly changed by them the typical challenges faced by returnees and some typical strategies returnees have followed in order to deal with these challenges A central theme of the book is that returnees are challenged not simply by experiencing extreme events but by a great cultural divide between the extraordinary and the ordinary worlds The struggles of returnees need to be seen as a social issue rather than simply the private troubles of individuals The book is based on personal accounts by returnees interviews and secondary sources and contains many lively examples both historical and contemporary of the struggles and triumphs of those who go through extraordinary experiences and return to life in the ordinary world

The Soul of Things Éva Fahidi, 2020-10-01 An exceptional document of an extraordinary life The Soul of Things is the memoir of Holocaust survivor Éva Fahidi Since the memoir was first published in Hungarian in 2004 under the title Anima Rerum Fahidi has become a household name in Hungary and in Germany Featured in countless interviews and several prize-winning documentary films at the age of ninety-five she is a frequent speaker at Holocaust commemorations in Hungary Germany and elsewhere The Soul of Things combines a rare depiction of upper middle class Jewish life in pre-war Hungary with the chronicle of a woman's deportation and survival in the camps Fahidi is a gifted writer with a unique voice full of wisdom humanity and flashes of dark humour With an unsentimental philosophical perspective she recounts her journey from the Great Hungarian Plain to the extermination camp of Auschwitz Birkenau the forced labour camp of Mauthausen and back The English edition includes a new introduction by historians Eva Kovacs and Judith Szapor the original prefaces to the Hungarian and German editions an essay on the Mauthausen Camp by Fritz Brinkman Frisch and extensive notes providing historical and cultural context for Fahidi's narrative The Saturday Review of Politics, Literature, Science and Art, 1864
