Biblical Theology: Old Testament Chester Lehman, 2018-11-30 Atonement and the Logic of Resurrection in Hebrews

9:27-28 William W. Henry, 2024-09-05 The general believer waiting for salvation by Jesus hopes to see him appear while living or promptly at death Comfort during loss of life usually portrays those passing now in heaven Conversely the more religiously academic the less one thinks anyone ever goes to heaven Trained scholars typically choose a closed heaven with temporal delays and spatial detours in limitation of God's promises about so great salvation Better typically perceives as a resuscitated flesh on earth that lives by decay of the surrounding creation Hearing word meaning by mapping creation with an old first century option for plural heavens this project reexamines the conversation recommended by the pastor in the letter to the Hebrews about promises regarding the twofold ministry of Christ By analysis with current study tools the conversation both challenges the common academy views and reintroduces a first century hearing option for God's speech concerning prompt postmortem Christ fulfillment into heaven Listening includes the milk of the beginning teaching requirements for atonement and logic of resurrection to God immediately after death and judgment Hearing senses the solid food about priestly intercession by Jesus after death at judgment to shepherd his believers for salvation into heaven a very little while after individual death and judgment

From Temple to Tent Sarah L. Hart, 2019-07-31 The principal interest of the text on the tabernacle tent Exodus 24 15 Numbers 10 28 is Israelite worship cultic place the cultic people and laws for the regulation of cultic life The method followed is description of the biblical text and collation of the evidence as would a classicist go about classifying an ancient Greek Vase The findings reveal a virtual world of Israelite cult The transportable tabernacle tent with its courtyard and altar resembles a temple in its complexity Through words the reader is invited into the atmosphere of the tabernacle tent where all the senses are evoked The beautifully embellished fore room of the tent illuminated by the light of the lamp stand is seen the waft of incense smelt the atmosphere of fear or attraction that emanates from the epicentre of holiness felt The tabernacle tent is constructed of words not of stones It is indestructible and does not succumb to the vagaries of time as pristine today as it was over 2 500 years ago when it was first created
