The Taste of New Wine Keith Miller, 1969 Samson and the Pirate Monks Nate Larkin, 2007-02-18

With no holds barred honesty and poignant storytelling, Nate Larkin introduces a model of community and friendship that is reinvigorating men's ministry across the country: a model he calls The Samson Society. Too many men see the biblical hero Samson as their model for manhood: a rugged individualist of the highest order. Yet Samson's solitary successes were eventually overcome by moral weaknesses. Larkin, through the story of his own past and the stories of those in The Samson Society, offers a radical, refreshing alternative.

Ice and Cold Storage, 1925 Making Taste Public Carole Counihan, Susanne Højlund, 2018-12-13

Making Taste Public takes an ethnographic approach to show how social relations shape and are shaped by the taste of food. Recognizing that different cultures have different taste preferences and flavor principles embedded in cuisine, editors Carole Counihan and Susanne Højlund ask how these differences are generated. The editors have compiled 14 chapters to show how specific influences become a part of our sensorial apparatus and identity through shared experiences of making, eating, and talking about food. Using case studies from Asia, Europe, and America, the book presents a theory of how taste is made public through everyday practices. The authors are exploring how place, production methods, and cooking techniques create tastes. They discuss the criteria determining good and bad tastes and how tastes and memories evolve over time. Subjects such as how values can be embedded in taste and the role of taste education in food movements, homes, and schools.

are explored The different chapters examine definitions and mobilizations of taste in different institutions public places and regions around the world to reveal ethnographic understandings of how people learn experience and share taste With contributions spanning the Solomon Islands Denmark Japan Canada France the USA and Italy Making Taste Public is a fascinating account of how our sense of taste is continuously shaped and re shaped in relation to social and cultural context societal and environmental premises The book will interest anyone studying anthropology sociology food studies sensory studies and human geography Industrial Refrigeration ,1915 Ice and Refrigeration ,1915 Miscellany ,1916
