Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto, 2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault's de centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self transformation The author's original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault's concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology

Shalom, the Spirit and Pentecostal Conversion Grace Milton, 2015-08-17 In Shalom the Spirit and Pentecostal Conversion Grace Milton presents a uniquely practical theological model of Pentecostal conversion centered on empirical data from a congregational case study Pentecostal Charismatic conversion is commonly equated with a dramatic Damascus road type event which directly opposes prevailing theories within the social sciences that conversion is a more gradual process over time This raises the question how far do these Pentecostal stereotypes reflect lived experience In this book for the first time the experiences and beliefs of ordinary Pentecostal believers are drawn into conversation with conversion theories from the human sciences sociology psychology and anthropology and theology The result is a distinctly Pentecostal model of conversion which interprets religious transformation through the theological lens of Shalom
