squid as horror evoking and ugly creatures since the dawn of history and explains the origins of mythical sea monsters such as the Kraken The book is however more than a critical response to previous work It will point out that animals such as cephalopods which have largely been defined in biological contexts in recent times have a fascinating and multivariate past entangled with the history of humans in many remarkable ways Hence this book is not just about perceptions of giant sized squid or cephalopods but a historical inquiry into the transatlantic culture from the late eighteenth century to the turn of the twentieth century It will provide new knowledge about the history of mollusc studies seafaring culture and more broadly of the relationship between humans and animals during the period When Animals Dream David M.

Peña-Guzmán,2023-09-26 A spellbinding look at the philosophical and moral implications of animal dreaming Are humans the only dreamers on Earth What goes on in the minds of animals when they sleep When Animals Dream brings together behavioral and neuroscientific research on animal sleep with philosophical theories of dreaming It shows that dreams provide an invaluable window into the cognitive and emotional lives of nonhuman animals giving us access to a seemingly inaccessible realm of animal experience David Peña-Guzmán uncovers evidence of animal dreaming throughout the scientific literature suggesting that many animals run reality simulations while asleep with a dream ego moving through a dynamic and coherent dreamscape He builds a convincing case for animals as conscious beings and examines the thorny scientific philosophical and ethical questions it raises Once we accept that animals dream we incur a host of moral obligations and have no choice but to rethink our views about who animals are and the interior lives they lead A mesmerizing journey into the otherworldly domain of nonhuman consciousness When Animals Dream carries profound implications for contemporary debates about animal cognition animal ethics and animal rights challenging us to regard animals as beings who matter and for whom things matter The Unconscious Roots of Creativity Kathryn Madden,2016-10-27 From whence spring the sparks of creativity It is to this very question that the field of depth psychology especially that of C G Jung and his intellectual descendants has much to contribute Just as the Muses were the offspring of Mnemosyne the goddess of memory our memories are the ancestors of our creativity that finds its multifaceted expression in the written word image theater dance and music The Unconscious Roots of Creativity seeks to push the investigation into that domain of memory that is beyond our conscious reach With articles from 16 contributors the red thread running through each of the offerings in this volume is that whatever its ultimate expression the creative impulse has its roots deep in the psyche Edited By Kathryn Madden with articles by Linda Carter Anna Maria Costantino Carol Thayer Cox Leonard Cruz Lisa Raye Garlock James Hollis Naomi Ruth Lowinsky Ian Livingston Kathryn Madden Jordan S Potash Susan Rowland Murray Stein Ann Ulanov Tjeu van den Berk Robin van Loben Sels and Heidi S Volf What Is a Human? James Paul Gee,2020-09-17 In a sweeping synthesis of new research in a number of different disciplines this book argues that we humans are not who we think we are As he explores the interconnections between cutting edge work in bioanthropology evolutionary biology neuroscience human language and learning and beyond James Paul Gee advances also a personal philosophy of language learning and culture informed by his decades of work across linguistics and the social sciences Gee argues that our schools institutions legal systems and societies are designed for creatures that do not exist thus resulting in multiple interacting crises such as climate change failing institutions and the rise of nationalist nationalism As Gee constructs an understanding of the human that takes into account our social collective and historical nature as established by recent research he inspires readers to reflect for themselves on the very question of who we are a key consideration for anyone interested in society government schools health activism culture and diversity or even just survival

A Personalist Philosophy of History Bennett Gilbert, 2019-01-15 Historical study has traditionally been built around the placement of the human at the center of inquiry The destabilized concepts of the human in contemporary thought challenge this configuration However the ways in which these challenges provoke new historical perspectives both expand and enrich historical study but are also weak and vulnerable in their concept of the human lacking or omitting something valuable in our self understanding A Personalist Philosophy of History argues for a robust concept of personhood in our experience of the past as a way to resolve this conflict Focused on those who know history rather than on the abstract properties of knowledge it extends the moral agency of persons into non human trans human and deep history domains It describes an approach to moral life through historical experience and study rather than through abstractions And it describes a kind of historiography that matches factual accuracy to both the constructed nature of understanding and to unavoidable moral purpose

Questioning Humanity Thomas Osborne, Nikolas Rose, 2024-06-05 This visionary book questions what it means to be human today and in the future Drawing on the natural human and life sciences Thomas Osborne and Nikolas Rose encourage us to reconsider the human condition and the ways in which humans are affected by their animality technology and the prospect of their annihilation

Law and New Media Christian Delage, 2019-05-03 Will social media lead to social law The force of legal remediation Virtual courts and online judges Paperless trials Electronic discovery All of these novel legal developments impact how we conceive of the practice of law Here international specialists from new and established domains of law media film and virtual studies address the emergence of the jurist in the era of digital transmission From the cinema of the early 20th century to social media this volume explores the multiple intersections of these visual technologies and the law from the theoretical insight they generate to the nature of law to the impact they have on doctrinal development
