The Soul of the Story Rabbi David Zeller, 2014-02-11. What Happens When Your Spiritual Path Leads You Far from Home. Many who embark on a spiritual quest discover that the people they meet along the way ultimately point them back home into the very soul of the religious tradition they had left behind. So it was with David Zeller, whose spiritual odyssey took him across the globe through traditions including Zen Buddhism and Hinduism and into relationship with some of the world's most compelling spiritual teachers. Thoughtful and endearing, provocative and witty, Zeller's delightful stories recall his meetings with the likes of Carl Jung, Shlomo Carlebach, Alan Watts, Sri Padmababa, the Mother, Sri Aurobindo, Ashram, Carlos Castaneda, and many others, well-known and unknown, and the experiences and teachings that ultimately allowed him to rediscover his own spiritual heritage. From the stimulating days of California's Bay Area in the 1960s to a kibbutz in Israel.

to the time he spent as a sadhu in India living outdoors and bathing in rivers these stories of Zeller s spiritual adventures remind us all that even the most meandering path can in the end bring us to our true spiritual home

The Soul of the Soldier Thomas Tiplady, The sketches in this book and in my previous one The Cross at the Front are attempts to show the soul of the soldier serving in France as I have seen it during the year and a half that I have been with him It is a padre s privilege and duty to be the voice with which in public worship the soldiers speak to God and through which their last thoughts are borne to their friends at home He is their voice both when they are sick or wounded and when they lie silent in the grave He speaks of their hopes and fears hardships and heroisms laughter and tears As best he may he tries to tell to those who have a right and a longing to know how they thought and how they bore themselves in the great day of trial when all risked their lives and many laid them down Soldiers as a rule are either inarticulate or do not care to speak of themselves and the padre has to be their spokesman if ever their deeper thoughts and finer actions are to be known to their friends To do this he may have to bring himself into the picture or even illustrate a common thing in their lives by a personal experience of his own To reveal life and thought at the Front in the third person and without sacrificing truth and vividness requires a degree of literary power and art which cannot be expected of a padre to whom writing is but a by product and not his main work I have written but little of military operations these things are not in my province Moreover they are not the things which are most revealing The presence of Spring is first and most surely revealed by the flowers in our gardens and lanes and the soldier is most clearly seen in the little things that happen on the march in his billet or in the Dressing Station Some things are not seen at all They are only felt and my opinion about them must be taken for what it is worth One knows what the men are by their influence on one's own mind and life I do not judge the morality and spirituality of our soldiers entirely by their habits and speech for these are but outward and clumsy expressions of the inner life and are largely conventional There is something else to put in the reckoning and to find out what the soldiers are worth to us we must somehow get behind their words and actions and find out what they are worth to God whose terrible wheel of war is shaping their characters I appraise them mostly by the total effect of the impact of their souls on mine I know their thoughts and feelings by the thoughts and feelings they inspire in me Do men gather grapes of thorns or figs of thistles There are certain thoughts and emotions that only come to me strongly when I am with the soldiers or when I am living again with them in memory and so I take these as their gift to me and judge the men by their influence on my character Character is in its influence subtle as Spring Words and actions by themselves are too coarse and conventional to do anything but mislead us in judging the quality of our men By their fruits ye shall know them Not by their leaves Fruit is seed In the seed the tree reproduces itself And reproduction whether in physical moral or spiritual life is the test of vitality To be continued in this ebook addressing the fundamental themes of human existence which find expression in cultural texts in both colloquial and artistic language and which have a prominent place in anthropological psychological metaphysical and theological debates     The Soul of Harmony: Being a Collection of the Most Admired Glees, Catches, Etc ,1804     Charles Bonnet, Analytical Essay on the Faculties of the Soul ,2022-01-06 In the course of the eighteenth century understanding human cognitive life came to be construed as something to be explored in terms of the physiology of the sensory organs the nerves and the brain a form of naturalization that effectively moved cognition out of the realm of philosophy as it had traditionally been understood Bonnet s Analytical Essay on the Faculties of the Soul was at the forefront of these developments and this is its first English translation Drawing on his earlier work in natural history he was the leading entomologist of his era he approaches problems of the nature of the mind via the physiology and anatomy of the brain and sensory systems His approach is one of reverse engineering starting from an organic statue without faculties and investigating how it would need to be modified to produce a human being Bonnet takes up a position that cuts across the standard understanding of the period as a clash between materialism and dualism While his approach was rigorously naturalistic and physiological this did not lead him to reject the notion of a soul Instead he argues that in order to make sense of their sensory abilities we need to attribute a soul to animals as well as human beings At the same time he argues that if personal immortality is to be possible it can be conceived along the lines of insect metamorphosis which shows how different biological forms can harbour a single identity     The Soul of the Far East Percival Lowell,1802     The Soul of the Far East Percival Lowell,2019-12-04 In The Soul of the Far East Percival Lowell embarks on an insightful exploration of Asian cultures particularly focusing on Japan and China His literary style is characterized by vivid imagery and a reflective narrative that bridges personal experience with scholarly inquiry This work published during the late 19th century captures the nuances of Eastern philosophy art and societal norms offering Western readers a contemplative perspective on the complexities of these civilizations during a pivotal time of cultural exchange and imperial interest Lowell s prose invites readers to appreciate the subtleties of the East urging them to transcend mere Western assumptions and engage deeply with the broader spectrum of human experience Percival Lowell an American astronomer and cultural ambassador was profoundly influenced by his travels in Asia and his keen interest in Eastern philosophical traditions The son of a wealthy Boston family Lowell was educated at Harvard where he developed a fascination with cultural anthropology and the intricacies of human societies His travels to Japan and China inspired him to document the rich tapestry of Eastern life thus laying the foundation for this seminal work I strongly recommend The Soul of the Far East to readers interested in cultural studies travel literature and the intersections of East and West This book not only enhances our understanding of the Far East but also provides contemporary readers with a lens through which they can appreciate the intricate dynamics of global cultures making it a timeless addition to any scholarly library     Restoring the Soul of the University Perry L. the whole world but lost its soul Christian universities must reimagine excellence in a time of exile placing the liberating arts before the liberal arts and focusing on the worship love and knowledge of God as central to academia This pioneering work charts the history of the university and casts an inspiring vision for the future of higher education The Soul of Art Christian Gaillard, 2017-05-17 The beginnings of art are lost in the dim reaches of prehistory eons before humans began recording and codifying their experiences in writing And yet philosophers artists and historians have for centuries noted the intimate and perhaps inseparable relationship between human consciousness and the artistic impulse As analyst and professor Christian Gaillard notes we can see some of the earliest expressions of this intimacy in the cave paintings at Lascaux and the relationship continues to the present day in the works of modern creators such as Jackson Pollock and Anselm Kiefer What fascinates Gaillard and indeed what fascinated Carl Jung is among other things the notion that art enables us to explore our inner landscapes in ways that are impossible by any other means In The Soul of Art Analysis and Creation Gaillard takes readers on a tour of his own gallery of the mind examining works of art from throughout history and prehistory that have moved challenged and changed him He also explores instances where particular works of art have proven deeply significant in his or his colleagues understanding of their analyses and their ability to serve as capable guides on the journey toward self awareness
