The Spirit Of Revolution Beyond The Dead Ends Of Man:

The Spirit of Revolution Drucilla Cornell, Stephen D. Seely, 2016-01-19 In recent years feminist and queer theory have effectively disavowed both the human and revolutionary politics In the face of massive geopolitical crisis posthumanists have called for us to reconsider fundamentally the superiority and centrality of mankind and the human and question how Man can presume to change the world by revolutionary action particularly when Marx s dreams seem to have been swept into the dustbin of history This provocative book reaffirms what is most basic in feminism the attack on the universality and sovereignty of Man but contends that the only way this can mean anything other than pessimistic rhetoric is to embrace human agency and the struggle against colonialism and capitalism In a series of creolized readings Foucault with Ali Shariati Lacan with Fanon and Spinoza with Sylvia Wynter the authors demonstrate what is at stake in the ongoing debate between humanism and posthumanism putting this debate in the context of contemporary global crises and the possibilities of revolution In its defense of political spirituality this book pushes for a new trajectory in response to the gross inequalities of today one that offers us a very different view of revolution and its present day potential Decolonization,

Development and Knowledge in Africa Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2020-04-30 This provocative book is anchored on the insurgent and resurgent spirit of decolonization of the twenty first century The author calls upon Africa to turn over a new leaf in the domains of politics economy and knowledge as it frees itself from imperial global designs and global coloniality With a focus on Africa and its Diaspora the author calls for a radical turning over of a new leaf predicated on decolonial turn and epistemic freedom The key themes subjected to decolonial analysis include 1 decolonization decoloniality articulating the meaning and contribution of the decolonial turn 2 subjectivity identity examining the problem of Blackness identity as external and internal invention 3 the Bandung spirit of decolonization as an embodiment of resistance and possibilities development and self improvement 4 development and self improvement of African political economy as entangled in the colonial matrix of power and the African Renaissance as weakened by undecolonized political and economic thought and 5 knowledge the role of African humanities in the struggle for epistemic freedom This groundbreaking volume opens the intellectual canvas on the challenges and possibilities of African futures It will be of great interest to students and scholars of Politics and International Relations Development Sociology African Studies Black Studies Education History Postcolonial Studies and the emerging field of Decolonial Studies Words Made Flesh Justine Bakker, David Kline, 2025-06-03 The first sustained treatment of religion and religions in the scholarship of a prominent Caribbean thinker Sylvia Wynter is a profoundly transdisciplinary scholar whose works span an impressive array of theory literature science anthropology philosophy and religious studies as well as different forms including essays plays a novel and a 935 page unpublished manuscript entitled Black Metamorphosis New Natives in a New World Whatever the medium Wynter frequently engages religion as a relevant category of analysis from reflections on Christianity Islam and Rastafarianism to the category and role of religion as a universal aspect of human social production Wynter's writings have received enthusiastic attention by scholars in Black studies Caribbean theory critical race theory literature and philosophy But until recently little scholarly writing exists that directly engages the topic of religion in her corpus Words Made Flesh seeks to fill this gap by focusing exclusively on religion religions and religiosity in her work Bringing together scholars that provide a wide variety of theoretical perspectives on religion political theology social theory and science studies this book offers an in depth engagement with one of the most innovative and important thinkers of the last forty years and illustrates how Wynter's writing has significant implications for the study of religion and religion's relationship to colonialism race humanism science and political theology

Foucault's theatres Tony Fisher, Kéline Gotman, 2019-11-01 The volume contributes to a new articulation of theatre and performance studies via Foucault's critical thought With cutting edge studies by established and emerging writers in areas such as dramaturgy film music cultural history and journalism the volume aims to be accessible for both experienced researchers and advanced students encountering Foucault's work for the first time The introduction sets out a thorough and informative assessment of Foucault's relevance to theatre and performance studies and to our present cultural moment it rereads his profound engagement with questions of truth power and politics in light of previously unknown writings and lectures set in relation to current political and cultural concerns Unique to this volume is the discovery of a theatrical Foucault the profound affinity of his thinking with questions of performativity This discovery makes accessible the performance turn to readers of Foucault while opening up ways of reading Foucault's oeuvre theatrically

Black Iconography and Colonial (re)production at the ICC Stanley Mwangi Wanjiru, 2022-11-25 This book explores the reproduction of colonialism at the International Criminal Court ICC and examines international criminal law ICL vs the black body through an immersive format of art music poetry and architecture and post colonial critical race theory lens Taking a multi disciplinary approach the book interrogates the operationalisation of the Rome Statute to detail a Eurocentric hegemony at the core of ICL It explores how colonialism and slavery have come to shape ICL exposing the perpetuation of the colonial and warns that it has ominous contemporary and future implications for Africa As currently envisaged and acted out at the ICC this law is founded on deceptive and colonial ideas of what is wrong in with the world The book finds that the contemporary ICL regime is founded on white supremacy that corrupts the law's interaction with the African The African is but a unit utilised by the global elite to exploit and extract resources From time to time these alliances disintegrate with ICL becoming a retaliatory tool of choice What is at stake is power not justice This power has been hierarchical with Eurocentrism at the top throughout modern history Colonialism is seen not to have ended but to have regerminated through the foundation of the independent African state The ICC reproduces the colonial by use of European law and ultimately the over representation of the black accused To conclude the book provides a liberated African forum that can address conflicts in the content with a call for the end of the ICC's involvement in Africa The demand is made for an African court that utilises non colonising

African norms which are uniquely suited to address local conflicts Multidisciplinary in nature this book will be of great interest to students and scholars of international criminal law criminal justice human rights law African studies global social justice sociology anthropology postcolonial studies and philosophy The SAGE Handbook of Nature Terry Marsden, 2018-03-23 The SAGE Handbook of Nature offers an ambitious retrospective and prospective overview of the field that aims to position Nature the environment and natural processes at the heart of interdisciplinary social sciences The three volumes are divided into the following parts INTRODUCTION TO THE HANDBOOK NATURAL AND SOCIO NATURAL VULNERABILITIES INTERWEAVING THE NATURAL SOCIAL SCIENCES SPACING NATURES SUSTAINABLE PLACE MAKING AND ADAPTATION COUPLED AND DE COUPLED SOCIO ECOLOGICAL SYSTEMS RISK AND THE ENVIRONMENT SOCIAL THEORIES PUBLIC UNDERSTANDINGS THE SCIENCE POLICY INTERFACE HUNGRY AND THIRSTY CITIES AND THEIR REGIONS CRITICAL CONSUMERISM AND ITS MANUFACTURED NATURES GENDERED NATURES AND ECO FEMINISM REPRODUCTIVE NATURES PLANTS ANIMALS AND PEOPLE NATURE CLASS AND SOCIAL INEQUALITY BIO SENSITIVITY THE ECOLOGIES OF HEALTH THE RESOURCE NEXUS AND ITS RELEVANCE SUSTAINABLE URBAN COMMUNITIES RURAL NATURES AND THEIR CO PRODUCTION This handbook is a key critical research resource for researchers and practitioners across the social sciences and their contributions to related disciplines associated with the fast developing interdisciplinary field of sustainability science Coloniality, Ontology, and the Question of the Posthuman Mark Jackson, 2017-11-22 This book brings together emerging insights from across the humanities and social sciences to highlight how postcolonial studies are being transformed by increasingly influential and radical approaches to nature matter subjectivity human agency and politics These include decolonial studies political ontology political ecology indigeneity and posthumanisms The book examines how postcolonial perspectives demand of posthumanisms and their often ontological discourses that they reflexively situate their own challenges within the many long histories of decolonised practice Just as postcolonial research needs to critically engage with radical transitions suggested by the ontological turn and its related posthumanist developments so too do posthumanisms need to decolonise their conceptual and analytic lenses The chapters interdisciplinary analyses are developed through global critical and empirical cases that include city spaces and urbanisms in the Global North and South food politics and colonial land use cultural and cosmic representation in film theatre and poetry nation building the Anthropocene materiality the void pluriversality and indigenous world views Theoretically and conceptually rich the book proposes new trajectories through which postcolonial and posthuman scholarships can learn from one another and so critically advance Throwing the Moral Dice Thomas Claviez, Viola Marchi, 2021-12-07 More than a purely philosophical problem straddling the ambivalent terrain between necessity and impossibility contingency has become the very horizon of everyday life Often used as a synonym for the precariousness of working conditions under neoliberalism for the unknown threats posed by terrorism or for the uncertain future of the planet itself contingency needs to be calculated and controlled in the name of the protection of life The overcoming of contingency is not only called upon to justify questionable mechanisms of political control it serves as a central legitimating factor for Enlightenment itself In this volume nine major philosophers and theorists address a range of questions around contingency and moral philosophy How can we rethink contingency in its creative aspects outside the dominant rhetoric of risk and dangerous exposure What is the status of contingency as the unnecessary and law defying in or for ethics What would an alternative ethics of contingency one that does not simply attempt to sublimate it out of existence look like The volume tackles the problem contingency has always posed to both ethical theory and dialectics that of difference itself in the difficult mediation between the particular and the universal same and other the contingent singularity of the event and the necessary generality of the norms and laws From deconstruction to feminism to ecological thought some of today s most influential thinkers reshape many of the most debated concepts in moral philosophy difference agency community and life itself Contributors tienne Balibar Rosi Braidotti Thomas Claviez Drucilla Cornell Hans Ulrich Gumbrecht Viola Marchi Michael Naas Cary Wolfe Slavoj i ek

Spaces of Anticolonialism Stephen Legg, 2025-03 Spaces of Anticolonialism is the first book length account of anticolonialism in Delhi as the capital of Britain s empire in India It pioneers a spatial governmentality analysis of the networks mobilizations and hidden spaces of anticolonial parrhesia or courageous speech and actions in the two decades before independence in 1947 Reading across imperial and nationalist archives newspapers memoirs oral histories and interviews Stephen Legg exposes subaltern geographies and struggles across both the new and old cities which have traditionally been neglected in favor of the elite spaces of New Delhi Presenting the dual cities as one interconnected political landscape Legg studies Indian National Congress efforts to mobilize and marshal support between the mass movements of Civil Disobedience 1930 34 and Quit India 1942 43 The book s six chapters compare the two movements in terms of their public spaces of nonviolent anticolonialism their problematization by violence and their legacies This bottom up analysis focused on the streets bazaars neighborhoods homes and undergrounds of the two cities foregrounds the significance of physical and political space it highlights the pioneering role of women in crafting these spaces and it exposes the microtechniques that Congress used to encourage Gandhi s nonviolence and to tolerate its testing in the face of the rising popularity of the radical left Legg s rereading of Michel Foucault s final lectures on parrhesia produces a bold new approach to questions of postcolonialism resistance and South Asian governmentalities This allows anticolonialism to be read not as an outside but as a coherent and bottom up project of self transformation and space making that was elite coordinated but whose sovereignty lay with a disobedient and not always nonviolent public This book provides an innovative and restive historical geography of spaces of anticolonialism in the capital of contemporary India s 1.4 billion people

Becoming Indigenous David Chandler, Julian Reid, 2019-10-04 Representations of indigenous peoples while never static have always served the interests of settler colonialism Historically the dominant framing marginalised indigenous practices as legacies of the distant past Today indigenous approaches are demanded in order for settler colonialism itself to have a future. Becoming indigenous we are told is a necessity if humanity is to survive and cope with the catastrophic changes wrought by modernist excess in the Anthropocene. Becoming Indigenous provides an agenda setting critique analysing how and why indigeneity has been reduced to instrumental imaginaries of perseverance and resilience. Indigenous alternatives are today central to a range of governing discourses which promise empowerment but are highly disciplinary. Critical theorists often endorse these framings happy to instrumentalise indigenous peoples as caretakers of the environment or as teaching the moderns about their more than human responsibilities. Chandler and Reid argue that these discourses have little to do with indigenous struggles or with challenging settler colonial power. In fact instrumentalising indigeneity in these ways merely reinforces neoliberal hegemony marginalising critical alternatives for both indigenous and non indigenous peoples alike.

Born Again Jeffrey Champlin, 2025-05-23 Born Again examines the deep historical roots of fundamentalism in Protestantism and the imaginative traditions of Romantic literature. It explores how the resurgence of fundamentalist thought within born again Christianity seeks to repress the trauma of modernity through the belief that the world must be radically transformed to align with a divine standard. By analysing the logic of this repression the book reveals an alternative vision a revivalist rebirth that offers a new ethical imperative to creatively shape the world in collaboration with others. Thinkers such as Immanuel Kant Percy Shelley and Friedrich Schlegel are central to the analysis as are the literary works Faust and Frankenstein. Jeffrey Champlin illustrates how a revivalist imagination challenges blind faith presenting figures of life reawakened to conscious moral and political engagement. Engaging with Arendt's politics of natality and Derrida's ethics of survival Born Again offers pathways to reimagine a world that confronts the profound losses fueling fundamentalist ideologies making it a timely and thought provoking exploration for contemporary readers.

Decolonising the Neoliberal University Jaco Barnard-Naude, 2021-09-08 Taking the postcolonial or more specifically the post apartheid university as its focus the book takes the violence and the trauma of the global neoliberal hegemony as its central point of reference. Following a primarily psychoanalytic line of enquiry it engages a range of disciplines law philosophy literature gender studies cultural studies and political economy in order better to understand the conditions of possibility of an emancipatory or decolonised higher education. And this in the context of both the inter generational transmission of the trauma of colonialism on the one hand and on the other the trauma of neoliberal subjectivity in the postcolonial university. Oriented around an important lecture by Jacqueline Rose the volume contains contributions from world renowned authors such as Judith Butler and Achille Mbembe as well as numerous legal and other theorists who share their concern with interrogating the contemporary crisis in higher education. This truly interdisciplinary collection will appeal to a wide range of readers right across the humanities but especially those with substantial interests in the contemporary state of the university as well as those with theoretical interests in postcolonialism psychoanalysis gender studies cultural studies jurisprudence and law.

Homiletics? Wessel Wessels, 2024-03-29 This book pursues the question of consciousness and thought through the art of preaching in a postcolonial era Indeed the past has bestowed upon the present the legacy of colonization and in the South African context apartheid However the endeavor of postcolonizing theology and homiletics is a contentious space that has not been settled This book promotes a counterargument to the prevalent directions of decolonization by focusing on three themes of importance consciousness perspective and identity through the insights of primary postcolonial sources

Edinburgh Companion to Animal Studies Lynn Turner, 2018-03-07 This volume critically investigates current topics and disciplines that are affected enriched or put into dispute by the burgeoning scholarship on Animal Studies Problems of Hope Patrick Bresnihan, Leila Dawney, 2017-11-01 However hopeless we often feel we are creatures of hope This collection of short accessible essays explores the ways in which hope is bound up with power in worlds that are composed through imagination transformation and feeling Hope is the most precious ingredient of power The essays do not assume hope to be inherently good or emancipatory Rather they reflect on how hope can both support and obstruct us in our efforts to make lives more livable or futures more just The essays draw on social research philosophy literature music and film to show how hope might re enchant writing and politics for a post hopeful age This is a book for those who want to remain hopeful but find it hard to see how Contents Introduction Problems of hope Cranes Luke Carter On finding hope beyond progress Leila Dawney Xanadu Miles Link Hope without a future in Octavia Butler s Parable of the Sower Patrick Bresnihan Eagles Luke Carter Seeking Claire Blencowe Hope in a minor key Naomi Millner Hopefully indebted Sam Kirwan Starlings Luke Carter Rhythms of hope Julian Brigstocke Networked hope A cio Amaral The Psychonaut s journey Race closure and hope Tehseen Noorani Epilogue Further Reading The SAGE Handbook of Political Sociology, 2v William

Outhwaite, Stephen Turner, 2017-10-30 The SAGE Handbook of Political Sociology offers a comprehensive and contemporary look at this evolving field of study The focus is on political life itself and the chapters written by a highly respected and international team of authors cover the core themes which need to be understood in order to study political life from a sociological perspective or simply to understand the political world The two volumes are structured around five key areas PART 1 TRADITIONS AND PERSPECTIVES PART 2 CORE CONCEPTS PART 03 POLITICAL IDEOLOGIES AND MOVEMENTS PART 04 TOPICS PART 05 WORLD REGIONS This future oriented and cross disciplinary handbook is a landmark text for students and scholars interested in the social investigation of politics Theology After Gaza Mitri Raheb, Graham McGeoch, 2025-08-14 This is a book about genocide and Gaza Gaza has become the moral compass of our world today In this war theology was weaponized against the Palestinian people by both Israeli politicians and Christian Zionists It is a book inspired by Palestinian liberation theologies The book foregrounds scholarly and practical responses to the Israeli invasion of a part of the occupied Palestinian territories widely referred to as Gaza in the media and popular discourse However the book also situates Gaza and Palestine in the longue dur e of settler colonialism colonialities of power and the underside of modernity Theology After Gaza A Global Anthology is fruit of the urgency of the time Inspired by Palestinian liberation theologies it articulates some of the death of God and the moral and ethical outrage familiar to those versed in Western Christianity and theology It also explores Gaza as an exteriority an exteriority to Western Christianity and theology to the international system and as a counter witness to Zionism This anthology is the first of its kind timely and relevant contribution that tackles a relevant issue of global importance with well known authors and prolific writers including Jewish and Muslim scholars

Feminism, Diversity and HRD Beverly Dawn Metcalfe, Yasmeeen Makarem, 2024-06-18 Feminism Diversity and HRD aims to enhance critical understandings of feminism diversity and HRD theorization and practice in the global political economy This involves addressing race class and intersectional approaches to evaluating inequalities in society organizations The book will bring together cutting edge analysis to offer a critical interdisciplinary overview of the feminism diversity and HRD debates that are only just emerging Crucially it will offer new insights on the governance and policy making dimensions of national HRD and the gender agendas advocated by global institutions which are influenced by social justice themes In this respect the contributions in this volume offer more than just a tried and tested analysis of the political knowledge and skill gap problems that face organizations and nation states Rather they are agenda setting and forward looking since they critically consider what the HRD solutions currently on offer are and how they can be further improved Thus the contributions will cover theoretical and policy perspectives not previously covered in a critical text of this kind

Women, Entrepreneurship and Development in the Middle East Beverly Dawn Metcalfe, Bettina Lynda Bastian, Haya Al-Dajani, 2021-12-20 The Middle East was the region least impacted in the 2008 crisis has investment systems markedly different to the West is largely governed by Islamic Shari a and has varying forms of governance and institutional organization which are not understood by many nor how these systems shape entrepreneurial and industrial development While the Middle East as a region has seen a small growth in entrepreneurship for women and business scholarship on the Middle East has grown there is no text in English that has brought critical insights from the Middle East together in a single volume In examining women s entrepreneurship in the Middle East this book aims to challenge Global North assumptions about the disempowering impacts of Islamic Shari a and governance Referring to the constraints of Islam on women s subjectivity and agency greatly misunderstands religious identity of both men and women and the way in which public administration and private sector institutions are organized in very different ways to Western regions This timely text expands and adds new insights to the theorizations of women s entrepreneurship in the Middle East through unravelling spatialized themes and incorporates contemporary themes including an Islamic science reading of women work and venturing changing families and entrepreneurship development women managing social crises Islamization governance and women Islamic feminist activisms and entrepreneurship representations of women s entrepreneurship on social media and women s collectives leading entrepreneurship via Facebook entrepreneurship It will be of interest to researchers academics and students in the fields of entrepreneurship gender work and organizations      Gender, Alterity and Human Rights Ratna Kapur, 2018-07-27 Human rights are axiomatic with liberal freedom Yet more rights for women sexual and religious minorities has had disempowering and exclusionary effects Revisiting campaigns for same sex marriage violence against women and Islamic veil bans Gender Alterity and Human Rights lays bare how human rights emerge as a project of containment and unfreedom rather than meaningful freedom Kapur provocatively argues that the futurity of human rights rests in turning away from liberal freedom and towards non liberal registers of freedom
