Growing Musicians Bridget Sweet, 2015-12-23 Growing Musicians Teaching Music in Middle School and Beyond focuses on teaching adolescents within the context of a music classroom regardless of content area orchestra band choir or general music It provides a look at the importance of music courses in the lives of adolescents as they navigate the path between being a child and an adult As every music student is completely unique there is no one size fits all prescriptive way of working with this age group Rather music educators must approach adolescents with high musical standards and aspirations to learn and achieve within music a willingness to honor the individuality of each adolescent musician a sense of structure but an ability to be flexible a desire to foster and promote a safe classroom environment where students feel empowered to be themselves and speak openly about what they think and believe an understanding that music classes are not only safe places where students learn how to become better musicians but also better people through musical experiences focused on humanity and empathy and a dose of humor or at least the ability to acknowledge that adolescents are extremely funny whether or not they realize it In addition this book encourages pre service and practicing music educators to mindfully examine and better understand their own teaching practices

Teaching and Learning in a Diverse World Patricia G. Ramsey, 2015-03-20 How can we create truly multicultural classrooms In this new edition of her popular text renowned early childhood educator Patricia Ramsey draws on a wide range of research and practice from different communities around the world to further explore the complexities of raising and teaching young children in a world fraught with societal divisions and inequities Using engaging examples and stories this comprehensive volume offers concrete suggestions to encourage teachers to reflect on their own histories and experiences and to challenge and rethink their assumptions and attitudes toward children and teaching This new up to date edition describes research based classroom practices to engage children in exploring the complexities of race economic inequities immigration environmental issues and sustainability gender and sexual orientation and identities abilities and disabilities It also addresses the challenges of teaching in the context of globalization pervasive social media and increased standards and accountability

The Grandparenting Effect Trevecca Okholm, 2020-07-21 Whatever life gives you and wherever life takes you there is always a story Life and relationships all begin and are sustained in the context of a story This is not a how to do it right book as much as it is a book of stories personal stories from the author biblical stories and stories of ordinary grandparents and grandchildren who have been willing to share their own stories with which you may be able to identify and be encouraged in your own adventures of grandparenting This is a book for everyone that either has biological grandchildren or has the potential to influence the lives of non biological youth and children in the role of grandparenting

This is also a book for churches to consider while planning for ministry to bring generations together in meaningful interactions and in doing so to create space for generations to share their stories and share in God's overarching Story of reconciling the world one story at a time Ruby Bridges Madeline Donaldson,2009-01-01 True or False When Ruby Bridges went to first grade in New Orleans Louisiana on November 14 1960 she made history Notable Caribbeans and Caribbean Americans Serafín Méndez-Méndez,Gail Cueto,2003-07-30 This is the first major biographical dictionary devoted exclusively to celebrating Caribbeans and Caribbean Americans who have made significant contributions to their society and beyond More than 160 profiles feature historical and contemporary figures from every Caribbean island the United States and even England and Canada and from a diverse range of fields such as acting sports political activism and more Selection criteria included the notable demonstration of a Caribbean ethos or style combined with a lasting and novel impact Individual narrative entries discuss family background education challenges and achievements The breadth of coverage in Notable Caribbeans and Caribbean Americans will enlighten and inspire students and general readers alike Many lesser known role models such as labor activist and educator Antonia Pantoja and political philosopher Frantz Fanon are presented along with engaging portraits of better known personalities like reggae superstar Bob Marley and baseball great Sammy Sosa Bibliographical sources for further research complement each entry A wide selection of photographs accompanies the text Questioning Assumptions and Challenging Perceptions Connie L. Schaffer,Meg White,Corine Meredith Brown,2016-01-15 For a moment consider you don't know what you don't know What individuals know about urban schools is often based on assumptions and perceptions It is important for individuals to examine these assumptions and perceptions of urban schools and the students who attend them While many textbooks support how teachers should teach students in urban settings this book asserts individuals can be effective teachers in these settings only if they first develop an understanding urban schools and the students who attend them As readers progress through the chapters they will realize they don't know what they don't know Within a framework of cognitive dissonance readers will continuously examine and reexamine their personal beliefs and perceptions Readers will also investigate new information and varied perspectives related to urban schools When readers finish this book they will be on their way to becoming effective teachers in urban environments Lessons and Units for Closer Reading, Grades K-2 Nancy Boyles,2016-02-22 Ever wished for comprehension lessons that get students where they need to be in reading With Lessons and Units for Closer Reading K 2 you get just that 20 initial close reading standards based lessons and 80 follow up comprehension skill lessons that expertly scaffold young readers The lessons arranged into 5 units of study include 12 illustrated Active Reader Cards printable in four color Day by day how to's for initial and follow up lessons 12 Formative Assessments with graphic support and options for oral and written tasks Performance criteria so you can adjust your instruction The Story of Ruby Bridges Robert Coles,2010-11-01 The inspirational true story of Ruby Bridges The year is 1960 and six year old Ruby Bridges and her family have recently moved from Mississippi to New Orleans in search of a better life When a judge orders Ruby to attend first grade at William Frantz Elementary an all white school Ruby must face angry mobs of parents who refuse to send their children to school with her Told with Robert Coles powerful narrative and dramatically illustrated by George Ford Ruby's story of courage faith and hope continues to resonate more than 60 years later Christian Education in the Small Membership Church Dr. Karen B. Tye, 2010-09-01 Christian Education is part of the vital ministry of all churches but especially of small membership churches In a culture that places great value on numbers small membership churches often mistakenly see themselves at a disadvantage Small membership churches can create wonderful opportunities to form and disciple faithful followers of Jesus Christ In offering viable Christian Education the role of the pastor is critical This book invites pastors to lead their small membership churches to develop an imaginative and holistic vision of Christian Education Read the Introduction Classroom Reading to Engage the Heart and Mind Nancy Boyles, 2020-04-01 Storybook characters and situations are perfect for launching discussions of social emotional learning why not let them help In picture books well loved characters deal with many of the same problems students face in their own lives What better resource could there be for encouraging students to think about their actions and responses Using classroom texts to start SEL conversations during an interactive read aloud or an extension of shared close reading lessons weaves social emotional learning organically into the fabric of an existing curriculum rather than adding a new block to the day In a book perfect for a study group or for immediate use in the classroom literacy educator Nancy Boyles connects the dots between the competencies identified by leaders in the SEL field with the rich content of children's literature More than 200 award winning picture books are profiled along the way as she unpacks each SEL skill sketches typical classroom situations in which teachers might not see that skill demonstrated discusses what to look for in books that address it and provides carefully crafted sets of questions to explore with students Along the Way Ron Bruner, Dana Kennamer Pemberton, 2015-09-08 A call for the church the whole church to enter into a serious conversation about the spiritual nourishment of our children Conversations about children and faith draw us close to the heart of God among the people of God these talks are justifiably nuanced and passionate The authors of Along the Way lead everyone in the church parents grandparents teachers friends ministers and leaders in a careful yet understandable dialogue about nurturing children spiritually Along the way we discover that the individuality of each child and the distinctiveness of their context call us to see each child's walk with God as a unique journey of discovery We also learn that sharing these paths with children changes and bless us at least as much as it does them Massive Resistance and Southern Womanhood Rebecca Brückmann, 2021 Massive Resistance and Southern Womanhood offers a comparative sociocultural and spatial history of white supremacist women who were active in segregationist grassroots activism in Little Rock New Orleans and Charleston from the late 1940s to the late 1960s Through her examination Rebecca Brückmann uncovers and evaluates the roles actions self understandings and media representations of segregationist women in massive resistance in urban and metropolitan settings Br ckman argues that white women were motivated by an everyday culture of white supremacy and they created performative spaces for their segregationist agitation in the public sphere to legitimize their actions While other studies of mass resistance have focused on maternalism Br ckman shows that women s invocation of motherhood was varied and primarily served as a tactical tool to continuously expand these women s spaces Through this examination she differentiates the circumstances tactics and representations used in the creation of performative spaces by working class middle class and elite women engaged in massive resistance Br ckman focuses on the transgressive street politics of working class female activists in Little Rock and New Orleans that contrasted with the more traditional political actions of segregationist middle class and elite women in Charleston who aligned white supremacist agitation with long standing experience in conservative women s clubs including the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Daughters of the American Revolution Working class women s groups chose consciously transgressive strategies including violence to elicit shock value and create states of emergency to further legitimize their actions and push for white supremacy The Read-aloud Handbook Jim Trelease,2006 Explains the importance of reading aloud to children offers guidance on how to set up a read aloud atmosphere in the home or classroom and recommends titles to select Bully Busters Arthur M. Horne,Christi L. Bartolomucci,Dawn Newman-Carlson,2003 The Bully Busters approach is research based and emphasizes both control and prevention It helps teachers increase their awareness knowledge base and intervention skills to attack the root causes of bullying behaviour and to deal with the problem confidently The manual is organised into seven modules Each module includes a teacher information component and a series of classroom activities Reclaiming Powerful Literacies Rebecca Rogers,2017-10-30 Offering a unique reflexive framework for Critical Discourse Analysis focused on discourses of hope transformation and liberation this book showcases a variety of powerful literacies in action Drawing from original research in a range of public educational spaces across the lifespan from Kindergartners studying social justice movements to sixth graders designing a social justice museum exhibit focused on the environment and sustainability to teacher education students practicing racial literacy in response to the death of Michael Brown in Ferguson Missouri Rogers makes the case that critical social theories often associated with Critical Discourse Analysis have not kept pace with a recent shift toward the positive referred to as Positive Discourse Analysis Encouraging readers to reconsider their understanding of concepts such as power action context critique and reflexivity this book illustrates the potential of theorizing discourse analysis from a positive orientation The Mother of All Booklists William Patrick Martin,2014-12-24 The Mother of All Booklists The 500 Most Recommended Nonfiction Reads for Ages 3 to 103 is written for parents grandparents and teachers unfamiliar with the bewildering array of award and recommended reading lists This book is a long overdue composite of all the major booklists It brings together over 100 of the most influential book awards and reading lists from leading magazines newspapers reference books schools libraries parenting organizations and professional groups from across the country The Mother of All Booklists

is to reading books what the website Rotten Tomatoes is to watching movies the ultimate one stop synthesizing resource for finding out what is best Mother is not the opinion of one book critic but the aggregate opinion of an army of critics Organized into five age group lists each with one hundred books preschoolers ages 3 5 early readers ages 5 9 middle readers ages 9 13 young adults ages 13 17 and adults ages 18 The Mother of All Booklists amalgamates the knowledge of the best English language booklists in the United States including a few from Canada and Great Britain Each of the 500 books is annotated describing the contents of the book and suggesting why the book is unique and important Each includes a picture of the book cover
