The Sustainable Asian House Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia Philippines:

Sustainable Asian House Paul McGillick, 2013-10-08 With over 350 vibrant photographs extensive commentary and architectural plans this architecture and design book showcases the modern luxury homes of Asia The Sustainable Asian House celebrates modern architecture as an expression of environmental social and cultural sustainability as seen in some of the most breathtaking luxury homes in Southeast Asia Gorgeous residences in Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia and the Philippines beautifully exemplify the trend towards sustainable architecture that engages with the natural world The 27 houses featured in this fascinating and stunningly photographed architectural digest provide endless inspiration for architects designers builders and home buyers The Sustainable Asian House illuminates the region's reinterpretation of tropical architecture and the growing interest in traditional materials and craftsmanship There is a new emphasis on fresh air natural light and spatial variety reflecting the importance of well being Designers are considering issues such as orientation to the sun and prevailing winds to reduce energy consumption and carbon footprint Instead of treating the tropical climate as something to overcome the architects featured in this book present regional solutions on how to live appropriately in the contemporary tropical world

The Sustainable Asian House, 2013 The sustainable Asian house celebrates the new architectural vocabulary of environmental social and cultural sustainability emerging in the five tiger economies of Southeast Asia Thailand Malaysia Singapore Indonesia and the Philippines The 27 houses featured in this book have been carefully selected to demonstrate how architects in the region are responding to the global trend towards sustainability The book deals with specific lifestyle and climate related issues as well as rapidly changing demographic and social trends in the region Jacket

The New Urban House Jonathan Bell, Ellie Stathaki, 2018-11-13 A stunning anthology of contemporary houses that showcases the ways that architecture can respond to local urban challenges while enhancing modern city living Architects face many challenges when designing a modern urban house Environmental performance aesthetics technical logistics material concerns site constraints these are all considerations that have the potential to limit what architects can achieve but that also can inspire creative solutions In addition each city's history obstacles and opportunities influence local design approaches Superbly illustrated with 600 color images this expansive compendium offers fascinating insights into building modern houses on a local level Jonathan Bell and Ellie Stathaki have selected urban structures from around the world to serve as both exemplary solutions and standout works of art in Beijing and Mexico City Athens and Tokyo Los Angeles and Cape Town By examining buildings on six continents from both emerging architects and established studios such as Zaha Hadid Architects MVRDV and Johnston Marklee this stunning volume explores the many ways in which architecture can enhance the experience of dwelling in a modern city by responding to traditional styles and challenges of site and providing a broader understanding of place

The Governance of Energy Megaprojects Benjamin K. Sovacool, C. J. Cooper, 2013-07-01 Benjamin Sovacool and Christopher Jon Cooper have produced an astonishing and well written book based on extensive original research in twelve countries They explore the technical social political and economic dimensions of four energy megaprojects The large scale of megaprojects always appears to complicate the decision making process and often causes failures Megaprojects may even reinforce corruption and erode democracy It highlights that today s experiences can be explained by statements by Aristotle and Einstein who argue both in their own way that it is always wise to take the limits of size into account and to reduce the size of projects wherever this is possible For everybody involved in megaprojects this book must be read Hugo Priemus Delft University of Technology The Netherlands Based on extensive original research this book explores the technical social political and economic dimensions of four Asian energy megaprojects a regional natural gas pipeline network in Southeast Asia a series of hydroelectric dams on the island of Borneo an oil pipeline linking Europe with the Caspian Sea and a very large solar energy array in the Gobi desert This book investigates why energy megaprojects fail to deliver their promised benefits It offers the first comprehensive assessment of the complicated dynamics driving and constraining megaprojects initiated in the rapid scramble for energy resources and efforts to improve energy security The authors approach the assessment of megaprojects from a socio technical angle emphasizing broad issues of political leadership regulation financing interest group opposition and environmental impact as well as conventional technological factors such as engineering design and project management The Governance of Energy Megaprojects will prove insightful for academics concerned about energy policy energy security environmental impact and technology assessment But the book should prove equally compelling to those engaged in the practical management and implementation of large scale energy projects anywhere in the world Yearbook of International Organizations 2005/2006, 2005-06 For the Yearbook of International Organizations the most up to date and comprehensive reference to international organizations the UIA has selected the most important 31 086 organizations from its extensive database of current and previous organizations Yearbook provides profiles of 5 546 intergovernmental and 25 540 international non governmental organizations active in nearly 300 countries and territories in the world today Organization descriptions listed in Volume 1 are numbered sequentially to facilitate quick and easy cross referencing from the other Yearbook Volumes Users can refer to Volumes 2 and 3 to locate organizations by region or subject respectively and comprehensive indexes are included Naturally the high standards of accuracy consistency and detail set by previous editions of the Yearbook of International Organizations have been maintained for this edition Yearbook of International Organizations 2014-2015, Volumes 1a & 1b (Set) Union of International Associations, 2014-06-16 Volume 1 A and B covers international organizations throughout the world comprising their aims activities and events The Library Journal, 1998-07 Includes beginning Sept 15 1954 and on the 15th of each month Sept May a special section School library journal ISSN 0000 0035 called Junior libraries 1954 May 1961 Also issued separately Far Eastern Economic Review, 2001 World Directory of Environmental Organizations Thaddeus C.
