The Sweetest Thing A Boxers Memoir:

The Sweetest Thing Mischa Merz, 2011-01-04 Journalist and amateur boxer Mischa Merz fulfills a long held ambition to travel across the United States and compete in a series of amateur boxing tournaments On this wild and fascinating journey she meets her idols including Lucia Rijker of Million Dollar Baby fame and some other truly extraordinary characters Merz discovers the horrors and delights of the world of women s boxing and gains insights into this eccentric subculture s place in American life She also meets some of the pioneers and trailblazers of the contemporary rise in women s boxing as well as some of the younger stars now hoping to make it onto the first women s boxing team in the 2012 Olympic Games Written in a compelling and highly entertaining narrative style Mischa Merz takes us right into the ring and reports with a rare insider s view on a sport that has for centuries defined our ideas about masculinity

Female Olympian and Paralympian Events Linda K. Fuller, 2018-10-04 Female Olympian and Paralympian Events is a groundbreaking book that examines women s sports in the Olympic and Paralympic Games which have long been underappreciated and under analyzed The book begins with a brief background on women s participation in the Olympic Games and their role relative to the International Olympic Committee then introduces the underlying Gendered Critical Discourse Analysis theory used throughout the book s analysis before delving into a literature review of female Olympians and Paralympians events It includes a listing of noteworthy firsts in the field followed by individual discussions of twenty eight Summer and seven Winter events analyzed according to their historical rhetorical and popular cultural representations Women s unique role s in the various events are discussed particular athletes and Paralympic events are highlighted and original tables are also included At the end of each section affiliated organizations and resources are included in this invaluable referential volume

Boxing, Narrative and Culture Sarah Crews, P. Solomon Lennox, 2023-10-16 Boxing Narrative and Culture Critical Perspectives is the first interdisciplinary response to the dominant boxing narratives that are produced performed and circulated in commercial boxing culture This collection includes global perspectives on boxing It highlights the diverse range of bodies and communities that engage with boxing practices but are oftentimes overlooked and overwritten by popular narrative tropes and misconceptions of the sport These interdisciplinary and global perspectives engage with boxing s shared narrative resources offering new readings and insights on how and what boxing performs and for whom The contributors to this collection are academics artists amateur boxers and or coaches who provide a culture critique of boxing The work shows how boxing practices are performed and channelled by individuals and communities who access and utilise boxing culture as a means of physical enquiry political statement and community building These contributions challenge the notion that boxing is a sport reserved for masculine bodies adorned as heroes warriors or victims of the sport Exploring key themes in socio cultural studies including gender race community media and performance this book is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in physical culture sport studies cultural studies gender studies cultural geography critical race theory labour studies performance studies or media studies A History of Women's Boxing Malissa Smith, 2014-06-05 Records of modern female boxing date back to the early eighteenth century in London and in the 1904 Olympics an exhibition bout between women was held Yet it was not until the 2012 Olympics more than 100 years later that women's boxing was officially added to the Games Throughout boxing's history women have fought in and out of the ring to gain respect in a sport traditionally considered for men alone The stories of these women are told for the first time in this comprehensive work dedicated to women's boxing A History of Women's Boxing traces the sport back to the 1700s through the 2012 Olympic Games and up to the present Inside the ring action is brought to life through photographs newspaper clippings and anecdotes as are the stories of the women who played important roles outside the ring from spectators and judges to managers and trainers This book includes extensive profiles of the sport's pioneers including Barbara Buttrick whose plucky carnival shows launched her professional boxing career in the 1950s sixteen year old Dallas Malloy who single handedly overturned the strictures against female amateur boxing in 1993 the famous boxing daughters Laila Ali and Jacqui Frazier Lyde and teenager Claressa Shields the first American woman to win a boxing gold medal at the Olympics Rich in detail and exhaustively researched this book illuminates the struggles obstacles and successes of the women who fought and continue to fight for respect in their sport A History of Women's Boxing is a must read for boxing fans sports historians and for those interested in the history of women in sports New Books on Women and Feminism ,2013 New Books on Women, Gender and Feminism ,2013 The Arc of Boxing Mike Silver, 2012-09-21 Are today's boxers better than their predecessors or is modern boxing a shadow of its former self Boxing historians discuss the socioeconomic and demographic changes that have affected the quality prominence and popularity of the sport over the past century Among the interviewees are world renowned scholars some of the sport's premier trainers and former amateur and professional world champions Chapters cover such topics as the ongoing deterioration of boxers skills their endurance the decline in the number of fights and the psychological readiness of championship caliber boxers The strengths and weaknesses of today's superstars are analyzed and compared to those of such past greats as Joe Louis Sugar Ray Robinson Jack Dempsey and Jake LaMotta Memoirs of Zehir-Ed-Din Muhammed Baber Babur (Emperor of Hindustan), 1826 Memoirs of Zehir-Ed-Din Muhammed Baber, Empereur of Hindustan, Written by Himself, in the Jaghatai Turki, and Translated, Partly by the Late John Leyden, ...
