

76 Most Common Questions About Hinduism

In its vast collection of holy scriptures (including Vedas, Upanishads, Gita, Bhagavatam, etc.), Hinduism contains an ocean of knowledge. These invaluable spiritual teachings address all the questions that a person may have about God, soul, human existence, and the search for happiness. But, because of the depth and detail of the explanations in these scriptures, it can be difficult to grasp their true meaning. As a result, many confusions and misconceptions about Hinduism exist. In this book, 76 of the most commonly asked questions about Hinduism are answered directly, clearly and succinctly. This resource should provide a good foundation for the further study of Hindu philosophy, which is possible through the many other publications of Radha Madhav Dham.
