Twilight Los Angeles Script:

Scriptwork David Kahn, Donna Breed, 1995 Most importantly they delineate the parameters of the relationship between the director and the playwright offering proven methods to help the playwright and to facilitate the healthy development of the script Trans Scripts Part I: The Women Paul Lucas, 2019 Based on over seventy interviews conducted around the world by playwright Paul Lucas Trans Scripts Part I The Women is a compelling exploration of the lives of trans women as told in their own words These unique and compelling stories are honest funny moving insightful and inspiring but most of all they are human shedding light not on our differences but on what we all as humans share Ethnotheatre Johnny Saldaña, 2016-06-16 Ethnotheatre transforms research about human experiences into a dramatic presentation for an audience Johnny Saldaña one of the best known practitioners of this research tradition outlines the key principles and practices of ethnotheatre in this clear concise volume He covers the preparation of a dramatic presentation from the research and writing stages to the elements of stage production Saldaña nurtures playwrights through adaptation and stage exercises and delves into the complex ethical questions of turning the personal into theatre Throughout he emphasizes the vital importance of creating good theatre as well as good research for impact on an audience and performers The volume includes multiple scenes from contemporary ethnodramas plus two complete play scripts as exemplars of the genre

Connected George E. Marcus, 1996-07-15 From the frontiers of cyberspace to Tibetans in exile from computer bulletin boards to faxes film and videotape the ongoing and often startling evolution of media continues to generate fresh new avenues for cultural criticism political activism and self reflection How is contemporary life affected by this stunning proliferation of information technologies How does the Internet influence and perhaps alter users experience of community and their sense of self In what way are giant media conglomerates implicated in these far reaching developments Connected the third volume in the groundbreaking and highly acclaimed Late Editions series confronts these provocative questions through unique experiments with the interview format It explores both the new pathways being forged through media and the predicaments of those struggling to find their way in the twilight of the twentieth century Dialogue Rob Anderson, Leslie A. Baxter, Kenneth N. Cissna, 2004 Readers of Dialogue will be able to frame different influential conceptions of dialogue establish the concepts history in communication studies and trace both common and unique threads that connect different theorists This volume is recommended for graduate and advanced undergraduate courses in Communication Theory Interpersonal Communication and Organizational Communication In the Lurch Ryan Claycomb, 2023-01-18 Some of theater's most powerful works in the past thirty years fall into the category of verbatim theater socially engaged performances whose texts rely on word for word testimony Performances such as Fires in the Mirror The Laramie Project and The Vagina Monologues have at their best demonstrated how to hold hard conversations about explosive subjects in a liberal democracy But in this moment of what author Ryan Claycomb terms the rightward lurch of western democracies does this idealized space of democratic deliberation remain effective In the Lurch asks that question in a pointed and self reflexive way tracing the history of this branch of documentary theater with particular attention to the political outcomes and stances these performances seem to seek But this is not just a disinterested history Claycomb reflects on his own participation in that political fantasy including earlier scholarly writing that articulated with breathless hopefulness the potential of verbatim theater and on his own theatrical attendance imbued with a belief that witnessing this idealized public sphere was a substitute for actual public participation In the Lurch also recounts the bumpy path towards its completion two years marked by presidential impeachments an insurrection a national reckoning with racism and a global pandemic At the heart of the book is a central question is verbatim theater any longer an effective cultural response to what can look like the possible end of democracy

Twilight--Los Angeles, 1992 Anna Deavere Smith, 2003 THE STORY Acclaimed as an American masterpiece Newsweek TWILIGHT LOS ANGELES 1992 is a stunning new work of documentary theatre in which Anna Deavere Smith uses the verbatim words of people who experienced the Los Angeles riots to Documentary and Verbatim Theatre Stuart Young, 2025-12-12 Documentary and Verbatim Theatre surveys the emergence and rise of work based on real life in contemporary theatre exploring the artists methodologies plays and central themes that have characterised its enduring popularity After charting the recent history of modern documentary theatre in the twentieth century and the debates that have surrounded it in the past thirty years each chapter examines in depth key practices such as headphone verbatim and extreme verbatim and practitioners from Anna Deavere Smith and David Hare to The Civilians and DV8 Physical Theatre Practitioners chosen topics playwriting process and engagement with sometimes fraught debates in the field are brought to the fore Focusing on the various dramaturgical and theatrical strategies used to create and stage documentary theatre this book provides a practice centric understanding of some of the principal issues related to the form including the tensions between fidelity to the documentary or verbatim record and the exercise of artistic licence the ethical issues entailed in representing living people the implications for actors and our understanding of acting and our assumptions about aesthetic distancing This is an essential introduction to documentary and verbatim theatre for theatre studies students teachers and scholars as well as theatre practitioners

Labyrinth of Hybridities Marc Maufort, 2010 Taking its cue from Eugene O'Neill's questioning of faithful realism voiced by Edmund Tyrone in Long Day's Journey into Night this book examines the distant legacy of the Irish American playwright in contemporary multiethnic drama in the U S It explores the labyrinth of formal devices through which African American Latina o First Nations and Asian American dramatists have unconsciously reinterpreted O'Neill's questioning of mimesis In their works hybridizations of stage realism function as aesthetic celebrations of the spiritual potentialities of cultural in betweenness This volume provides detailed analyses of over forty plays authored by such key artists as August Wilson Suzan Lori Parks Jos Rivera Cherr e Moraga Hanay Geiogamah Diane Glancy David Henry Hwang and Chay Yew to give only a few prominent examples All in all Labyrinth of Hybridities invites its readers to reassess the cross cultural patterns characterizing the history of twentieth century American drama

"Mouths on Fire with Songs". Caroline De Wagter, 2013 This book the first cross cultural study of post 1970s anglophone Canadian and American multi ethnic drama invites assessment of the thematic and aesthetic contributions of this theater in today s globalized culture A growing number of playwrights of African South and East Asian and First Nations heritage have engaged with manifold socio political and aesthetic issues in experimental works combining formal features of more classical European dramatic traditions with such elements of ethnic culture as ancestral music and dance to interrogate the very concepts of theatricality and canonicity Their mouths on fire August Wilson these playwrights contest stereotyped notions of authenticity In spired by songs of anger passion experience survival and regeneration the plays analyzed bespeak a burning desire to break the silence to heal and empower Foregrounding questions of hybridity diaspora cultural memory and nation this comparative study includes discussion of some twenty five case studies of plays by such authors as M J Kang August Wilson Suzan Lori Parks Djanet Sears Chay Yew Padma Viswanathan Rana Bose Diane Glancy and Drew Hayden Taylor Through its cross cultural and cross national prism Mouths on Fire with Songs shows that multi ethnic drama is one of the most diverse and dynamic sites of cultural production in North America today
