Fullmer, Laura F. Bond, Crystal N. Molyneaux, Samuel J. Nayman, Maurice J. Elias, 2022-04-27 A field tested classroom based approach for developing the critical thinking social emotional problem solving and discussion skills students need to be good citizens and effective changemakers We often hear that a key purpose of schooling is to prepare students for informed and active citizenship But what does this look like in practice How do teachers pursue this goal amid other pressing priorities including student mastery of both academic content and social emotional competencies Students Taking Action Together based on a program of the same name developed at Rutgers University clarifies that the way to prepare young people for life in a democracy is by intentionally rehearsing democratic behaviors in the classroom This field tested program STAT for short is built on five research backed teaching strategies that work with existing social studies English language arts and history curriculum in the upper elementary middle and high school levels Incorporating these strategies into your lessons is a way to meet students natural desire to be heard with skill building that empowers them to Adhere to norms of civil conversation even when topics are controversial and emotions are high Speak confidently and listen actively Engage in respectful debate aimed at understanding issues rather than winning points Target communication to different audiences needs and contexts and Examine problems from many sides considering potential solutions drawing up action plans and evaluating these plans effectiveness against historical examples In addition to vignettes that show the five STAT strategies in action you ll find practical teaching tips and sample STAT lesson plans For school leaders there is a road map for schoolwide STAT implementation and guidance on communicating the program s value to stakeholders Are you ready to help students understand complex content confront pressing social issues and engage with the structures of power to advocate for change This book is for you Educate the Heart Jennifer Lee Quattrucci,2019-08-21 In a world where children are rushed from place to place often on devices teachers need to create an environment where they are given time and allowed to focus to think to create and to learn This book provides over 100 screen free ideas and activities to help teachers of students in preK Grade 6 inspire authentic learning in their classroom Teachers will learn how to promote peace all day by empowering students to handle conflict through kindness They will see how effectively implementing collaborative work space can transform the classroom into a respectful learning community There are literature based lesson plans which cover a great variety of subjects and skills such as reading writing language arts mathematical discourse movement and cooking Teachers will find ways to engage students in collaborative work critical thinking skills and find out how to encourage innovative ways to solve problems through creativity with STEM challenges and meaningful curriculum based art projects Teachers will discover ways to build community with a growth mindset approach to classroom discipline The ideas and activities in this book are designed with the whole child in mind catering to providing the best possible environment and activities to allow students to feel valued and be nurtured in a way that inspires them to reach their true potential Multi-Tiered Systems of Support Lesley Sylvan,2020-10-13 Many school based speech language pathologists SLPs deal with large caseloads and limited resources Taking on additional workload by implementing multi tiered systems of support MTSS can seem overwhelming Multi Tiered Systems of Support Implementation Tools for Speech Language Pathologists in Education offers practical research based tools that school based SLPs can use to balance the high demands of their job with supporting general education students This professional resource provides answers to a range of questions about policy implications applicability of the framework to a speech language pathologist s role in schools and how an SLP can implement MTSS in their practice Part I breaks down the important concepts of MTSS while Part II is designed as an SLP MTSS Toolkit featuring the collective wisdom of practitioners and researchers in the field Throughout the text readers will also find real world snapshots of MTSS in action based on the experiences of actual SLPs in the field Disclaimer Please note that ancillary content such as documents audio and video etc may not be included as published in the original print version of this book

It's Not "One More Thing" Anne Swenson Ticknor,Christy Howard,Mikkaka Overstreet,2021-07-01 Ticknor Howard and Overstreet offer educators insights into the how tos of culturally responsive pedagogy They build on their experiences and research of CRP to offer vignettes of literacy instruction that may be common in K 12 classrooms These examples are offered as a way to situate how teachers may use research based and effective literacy practices while ignoring the identities and experiences of their students They disrupt the vignettes using theories and concepts presented in the chapter to make visible how each practice could be reimaged to integrate more culturally responsive strategies Example lessons and activities are provided in each chapter that offer readers glimpses into CRP thinking and decision making Guiding prompts are also included for readers to use the chapter topic and example lessons to consider ways to be more culturally responsive teachers for their students and in their local communities Changing Faces: A Journey of Hope and Perseverance Lisa D.

Brown,2022-04-01 Moments after giving birth to their first child Lisa and Steve Brown are devastated to learn that even the doctors didn t know his prognosis much less how to explain it to them Their newborn son Logan looked profoundly different What challenges would this young family face in the future Twelve days later they handed their newborn son over to surgeons for them to build and remodel his skull Before the initial shock and grief wore off they learned this would become the first of many surgeries and challenges they would endure Lisa D Brown tells her family s riveting story that will take you through their journey of real life hardships diagnoses new family additions bullying acceptance humor and perseverance This inspiring story offers hope and encouragement to others to face fear and find joy in life s journey Story Katie Egan Cunningham,2015 Stories surround us support us and sustain us We see and hear them when walking down the street on our digital newsfeeds in our interactions with one another in the ways our students play and in literature poetry music images multimedia and dramatic works While acknowledging the importance of teaching students strategies to read different kinds of text to write across genres and to speak and listen with purpose Katie Egan Cunningham reminds us that when we bridge strategy with the power of story we deepen literacy learning and foster authentic engagement Story Still the Heart of Literacy Learning compels us to ask crucial questions Why do stories matter Whose stories count Where do stories live How do stories come alive How do we build stories How do we talk about stories And why does this work take courage Katie shares her story as a classroom teacher literacy specialist staff developer and professor She shows teachers how to create classrooms of caring and inquisitive readers writers and storytellers Katie explains specific ways to build a classroom library that reflects our diverse society through rich purposeful and varied texts She also provides numerous examples of multigenre and multimodal stories from children s and young adult literature poetry songs and multimedia The practical toolkit at the end of each chapter demonstrates how to make stories come alive in any classroom
