grieving process Coping with Loss Joseph V. Palazzola, 2013-07 Life is filled with many experiences that young people must cope with each day One of the most severe situations they will encounter is the death or loss of a parent relative or close friend To help teenagers cope with their grief author Joseph V Palazzola has written a workbook to help ease the pain and get youngsters through the seven stages of grief By using various learning strategies that rely on making personal connections participants can realize true understanding of the grieving process Joe is a former educator who has taught in the public schools and at college level His first wife died at a young age and he was left to raise their son Chris who was 15 at the untimely death of his mother Joe and Chris never really dealt with the loss of their loved one together They silently grieved alone They were coping but not addressing the issue of their mutual loss Six years after the death of his mother while a college student Chris was killed in an industrial accident Twenty years after the death of Chris Joe has written a workbook that will help teenagers cope with the pain of losing a loved one Joe realized how difficult it was for Chris so he wrote this workbook of activities He includes many strategies and concepts that he used in his teaching career and information he imparted to his graduate students This book will help ease the hopelessness and despair in a healthy and logical way A Detroit area native Joseph V Palazzola has retired from teaching and now resides in Vero Beach Florida This is his third book Publisher's website <http://sbpra.com/JosephVPalazzola> Helping Teens Work Through Grief Mary Kelly Perschy, 2012-09-10 The second edition of Helping Teens Work Through Grief provides a more complete and updated manual for facilitators of teen grief groups It includes additional background information about developmental aspects of teens the process of grief aspects of trauma and its effects on teens the value of a group determining the group appropriateness of particular teens and parental involvement The many details involved with beginning a group publicity interviews registration structure closure evaluation and follow up are listed Healing a Teen's Grieving Heart Alan D. Wolfelt, 2001-04-01 A compassionate resource for friends parents relatives teachers volunteers and caregivers this series offers suggestions to help the grieving cope with the loss of a loved one Often people do not know what to say or what not to say to someone they know who is mourning this series teaches that the most important thing a person can do is listen have compassion be there for support and do something helpful This volume addresses what to expect from grieving young people and how to provide safe outlets for teens to express emotion Included in each book are tested sensitive ideas for carpe diem actions that people can take right this minute while still remaining supportive and honoring the mourner's loss Healing Your Grieving Heart for Teens Alan D. Wolfelt, 2001-04-01 With sensitivity and insight this series offers suggestions for healing activities that can help survivors learn to express their grief and mourn naturally Acknowledging that death is a painful ongoing part of life they explain how people need to slow down turn inward embrace their feelings of loss and seek and accept support when a loved one dies Each book geared for mourning adults teens or children provides ideas and action oriented tips that teach the basic principles of grief and healing These ideas and activities are aimed at reducing the confusion anxiety and huge personal void so that the living can begin their lives again Included in the books for teens and kids are age appropriate activities that teach younger people that their thoughts are not only normal but necessary Healing Your Grieving Heart for Teens Alan D. Wolfelt,2001-04-01 NULL The Healing Your Grieving Heart Journal for Teens Alan D Wolfelt,2002-09-01 In light of how difficult it is just to survive the teenage years the grieving process can be especially difficult and overwhelming for teenagers This journal affirms the grieving teen s journey and offers gentle healing guidance In order to sort through their confusing feelings and thoughts teens are prompted to explore simple open ended questions Teens are encouraged to write what they miss about the person who died the specific feelings that have been most difficult since the death or the things they wish they had said to the person before they died Teens Together Grief Support Group Curriculum Linda Lehmann,Shane R. Jimerson,Ann Gaasch,2013-05-13 The texts focus on preschool aged children children in kindergarten through grade two children in grades three through six and teenagers Each curriculum contains ten ninety minute sessions that should be implemented over a period of ten weeks By employing age appropriate themes to engage the child and provide continuity throughout the sessions the division of material within the curricula assures that the activities reflect the developmental level of the grieving child or adolescent Each person grieves differently and Grief Support Group Curriculum addresses the issues related to mourning while recognizing the importance of individuality in grieving
