Unisa Study Guide Indigenous Law Study Guide:

African Indigenous Knowledge and the Sciences Gloria Emeagwali, Edward Shizha, 2016-07-08 This book is an intellectual journey into epistemology pedagogy physics architecture medicine and metallurgy The focus is on various dimensions of African Indigenous Knowledge AIK with an emphasis on the sciences an area that has been neglected in AIK discourse The authors provide diverse views and perspectives on African indigenous scientific and technological knowledge that can benefit a wide spectrum of academics scholars students development agents and policy makers in both governmental and non governmental organizations and enable critical and alternative analyses and possibilities for understanding science and technology in an African historical and contemporary context Human Rights from a

Comparative and International Law Perspective Joan Church, Christian Schulze, Hennie Strydom, 2007 In terms of the South African Constitution of 1996 there is a general need for an introduction to comparative law and one that covers what is technically known as applied comparative law more particularly applied comparative law that involves a study of the bills of rights in other countries Customary Law in a Changing Society Digby Sghelo Koyana, 1980 Legal pedagogy, practice and curriculum transformation: What does the future hold and look like? Charles Maimela, 2025-07-18 In an era marked by rapid technological innovation and complex socio political shifts legal education stands at a critical crossroads This timely publication explores the imperative for a curriculum that is both responsive and resilient capable of adapting to the evolving needs of students institutions and society at large Blending theoretical analysis with practical insight the book offers forwardthinking strategies to navigate the multifaceted challenges of curriculum transformation Drawing on the lived experiences and reflections of law educators across diverse institutions it provides a unique lens into how curriculum innovation can enhance teaching learning and research in the legal academy More than a commentary this book is a call to action a vital resource for educators academic leaders and policymakers committed to ensuring the continued relevance excellence and social responsiveness of legal education in the 21st century Policing for a New South Africa

Mike Brogden, Clifford D. Shearing, 2005-08-04 The state police force of South Africa has acquired massive notoriety since its formation Its officers have developed a reputation for routinely provoking violence and torturing suspects As the key bastion of apartheid it is in urgent need of change In Policing for a New South Africa Mike Brogden and Clifford Shearing evaluate the options for change They critically analyse orthodox policing ideas imported from the West and contrast them with the indigenous model of independent policing from the townships of South Africa itself Together they offer significant possibilities for the future Importantly they suggest that rather than South Africans import ideas wholesale from the West the latter countries in the light of the failures of their own police systems have much to learn from South Africa The Guide to Sentencing in South Africa S. S. Terblanche, 1999 Critical Racial and Decolonial Literacies Debbie

Bargallie, Nilmini Fernando, 2024-08-22 This collection offers a unique exploration of critical racial literacy and anti racist praxis in Australia's educational landscape Combining critical race and Indigenous theories and perspectives contributors articulate a decolonial liberatory imperative for our times In an age when decolonization has become a buzzword the book demystifies critical anti racism praxis advocating for critical and multidisciplinary approaches Educators from a range of disciplines including Law Indigenous Studies Health Sociology Policy and the Arts collectively share compelling stories of educating on race racism and anti racism offering strategies that can be put into practice in classrooms activism and structural reforms Navorsingsverslag ,1991 Comparative Contract Law Thomas Kadner Graziano,2023-01-17 This significantly revised and expanded third edition of Comparative Contract Law brings together extracts from legislation and court practice in a way that enables students to experience comparative law in action African Law and Legal Theory Gordon R. Woodman,Akintunde Olusegun Obilade,1995 The papers presented in this volume aim to contribute to the development of African legal theory Issues discussed include legal anthropology customary law in the state legal system legal concepts and procedural and substantive justice
