We Are A Caregiving Manifesto:

Feminist Manifestos Penny A Weiss, 2015-09-11 A wide reaching collection of groundbreaking feminist documents from around the world Feminist Manifestos is an unprecedented collection of 150 documents from feminist organizations and gatherings in over 50 countries over the course of three centuries In the first book of its kind the manifestos are shown to contain feminist theory and recommend actions for change and also to expand our very conceptions of feminist thought and activism Covering issues from political participation education religion and work to reproduction violence racism and environmentalism the manifestos together challenge simplistic definitions of gender and feminist movements in exciting ways In a wide ranging introduction Penny Weiss explores the value of these documents especially how they speak with and to each other In addition an introduction to each individual document contextualizes and enhances our understanding of it Weiss is particularly invested in how communities work together toward social change which is demonstrated through her choice to include only collectively authored texts By assembling these documents into an accessible volume Weiss reveals new possibilities for social justice and ways to advocate for equality A unique and inspirational collection Feminist Manifestos expands and evolves our understanding of feminism through the self described agendas of women from every ethnic group religion and region in the world Manifestos for the Future of Critical Disability Studies Katie Ellis, Rosemarie

Garland-Thomson, Mike Kent, Rachel Robertson, 2018-10-03 This collection identifies the key tensions and conflicts being debated within the field of critical disability studies and provides both an outline of the field in its current form and offers manifestos for its future direction Traversing a number of disciplines from science and technology studies to maternal studies the collection offers a transdisciplinary vision for the future of critical disability studies Some common thematic concerns emerge across the book such as digital futures the usefulness of anger creativity family as disability allies intersectionality ethics eugenics accessibility and interdisciplinarity However the contributors who write as either disabled people or allies do not proceed from a singular approach to disability often reflecting different or even opposing positions on these issues Containing contributions from established and new voices in disability studies outlining their own manifesto for the future of the field this book will be of interest to all scholars and students working within the fields of disability studies cultural studies sociology law history and education The concerns introduced here are further explored in its sister volume Interdisciplinary approaches to disability looking towards the future

We Can Do Better Linda Steiner, Stine Eckert, 2025-04-15 Feminist Manifestos for Media and Communication brings together evidence based manifestos for media and communication that take a feminist perspective and add up to a provocative vision of feminist media practices and of feminist communication The book discusses critical problems and complaints in ways that identify and make the case for actionable concrete solutions to media problems and deficiencies it shows how feminist thinking can be usefully and effectively applied to a wide range of journalism media and communication practices The manifestos are not only about women but rather offer specific feasible blueprints for restructuring media in ways that make them fairer and more equitable along many vectors of identity so that media can better serve democracy These manifestos give concrete solutions to specific problems that can and should be implemented by journalists media practitioners students faculty and scholars The manifestos are organized around three sets of demands for better media practices for more participatory online spaces and for more precise and appropriate language Modern Economic Manifesto II Leonardo Silveira Paines; Ayla Bordin Paines, 2025-08-19 Modern Economic Manifesto II uma obra instigante que mergulha nas complexidades da economia contemporânea oferecendo uma análise crítica das forças que moldam mercados políticas públicas e o futuro financeiro global Combinando teoria econômica estudos de caso e propostas inovadoras este livro desafia convenções e convida leitores empreendedores e formuladores de políticas a repensarem as estruturas econômicas tradicionais Uma leitura essencial para quem busca compreender as tendências do século XXI e explorar soluções práticas para os desafios econômicos atuais Analyzing Text and Discourse Kristina Boréus, Göran Bergström, 2017-02-25 A unique anthology of textual analysis methodologies this book offers a thorough introduction to the key approaches and the tools students need to implement them Every chapter contains not just the theory behind each methodology but also its advantages and disadvantages its problems with ontology and language and its relationship to studying social phenomenon Through contemporary and relatable real world worked examples the book illustrates different contexts in which a methodology has been successfully used and allows students to see the methods in action and extrapolate the techniques into their own research Methods included Content analysis Argumentation analysis Qualitative analysis of ideas Narrative analysis Metaphor analysis Multimodal discourse analysis Discourse analysis Engaging and authoritative in equal measure this guide to textual analysis is the perfect foundation for students conducting research in the social sciences
