Apocalypse Television David Craig,2023-11-15 On November 20 1983 a three hour made for TV movie The Day After premiered on ABC Set in the heartland of Lawrence Kansas the film depicted the events before during and after a Soviet nuclear attack with vivid scenes of the post apocalyptic hellscape that would follow The film was viewed by over 100 million Americans and remains the highest rated TV movie in history After the premiere ABC News aired an episode of Viewpoint a live special featuring some of the most prominent public intellectuals of the debating the virtues of the Arms Race and the prospect of a winnable nuclear war The response to the film proved more powerful than perhaps any film or television program in the history of media Aside from its record shattering Nielsen ratings it enjoyed critical acclaim as well as international box office success in theatrical screenings The path to primetime for The Day After proved nearly as treacherous as the film s narrative Battles ensued behind the scenes at the network between the network and the filmmakers with Broadcast Standards and Ad Sales in the edit room and on the set including the nuke mares experienced by the cast After the director was pushed aside he contemplated suicide while also engineering a comeback through the press But these skirmishes pale in comparison to the culture wars triggered by the film in the press alongside a growing Nuclear Freeze movement and from a united pro nuclear Right Once efforts to alter the script failed the White House conducted a full throttled propaganda campaign to hijack the film s message Apocalypse Television features a dramatic insider s account of the making of and backlash against The Day After No other book has told this story in similar fashion venturing behind the scenes of the programming and news divisions at ABC Reagan officials in the White House who mounted the propaganda campaign rogue publicists who hijacked the film to promote a Nuclear Freeze the backlash from the conservative movement and Religious Right the challenges encountered by film s production team from conception to reception and the experiences of the citizens of Lawrence Kansas where the film was set and shot if also ground zero in America s nuclear heartland

The North American Student ,1916 The Living Church ,1919 Civil War Sites, Memorials, Museums and Library Collections Doug Gelbert,2005-04-29 Although the exact number will never be known it is estimated that there were over 10 000 military engagements during the Civil War Most have long since been forgotten but the places where a number of them were fought have been maintained as historic sites Others have been memorialized by statues or markers as have many Civil War leaders and soldiers Arranged by state this reference work provides capsule descriptions and information on Civil War sites and collections throughout the United States including battlefields memorial markers and statues museums cemeteries and other landmarks In addition to the description the address and telephone number for each are given along with admission fees if any and policies hours open and other pertinent information For each state there is a brief profile of its role during the Civil War and a timeline of significant battles or other events that took place there News Letter American National Red Cross. Atlantic Division,1918 Popular Mechanics Henry Haven Windsor,1919 The Literary World ,1879 Norfolk Coast in the Great War Stephen Browning,2017-07-30 Norfolk Coast in the Great War focuses on the trials and joys the achievements and disappointments the humor and the sadness of everyday life in a region living on the edge of the country at the heart of the Kings vast Empire Everyone from the folk who went off to fight to scouts and schoolchildren had a role to play in this coastline that had since the time of the Spanish Armada been considered a likely place for an enemy invasion There were days of great tension even terror such as on the day of the first bombardment of the coast by the German Navy and the day of Zeppelin attacks and dog fights out to sea when the flimsy planes of a fledgling RAF took on the Red Baron and his comrades This unique study is based largely on original archive material much of it never before published in book form It is accompanied by many rare and fascinating photographs that show the day to day life of the people who lived in the many settlements on the coast and just inland In addition this book also gives an itinerary for a walk along the 46 mile stretch of the coast from Hunstanton to Cromer taking in many of the places discussed and giving views that are exactly the same as they were 100 years ago
