Water In Environmental Planning:

Water in Environmental Planning Thomas Dunne, Luna B. Leopold, 1978-08-15 A classic advanced undergraduate graduate level text showing how knowledge of hydrology fluvial geomorphology and river quality are used in environmental planning The focus is on maintenance or reclamation of environmental quality with the text examples and exercises emphasizing early identification of problems and address nonstructural solutions

Water Resources Asit K. Biswas, 1997 Water is increasingly viewed as one of the major global resource issues of the 1990s This reference offers international coverage of water quality management and environmental issues and presents data on waterlogging sedimentation and fisheries

Public Representation In Environmental Policymaking Sheldon Kamieniecki, 2019-06-26 Relying on the results of a large survey research project in western New York State the author compares the environmental planning beliefs of public officials and citizens His major finding is that although leaders involved in water quality planning projects and the public share similar views on environmental issues these leaders are by far the worst predictors of citizens views Professor Kamieniecki s systematic probing of the determinants that make some officials more adept than others at accurate calculation of public preference uncovers imbalanced public representation due to several factors He concludes with an evaluation of citizen participatory mechanisms and consequent recommendations designed to elicit a wide range of public opinion a prerequisite for acceptable environmental planning
