Learning Democracy in School and Society: Education, Lifelong Learning, and the Politics of Citizenship Gert J.J. Biesta, 2011-10-21 This book explores the relationships between education lifelong learning and democratic citizenship It emphasises the importance of the democratic quality of the processes and practices that make up the everyday lives of children young people and adults for their ongoing formation as democratic citizens The book combines theoretical and historical work with critical analysis of policies and wider developments in the field of citizenship education and civic learning The book urges educators educationalists policy makers and politicians to move beyond an exclusive focus on the teaching of citizenship towards an outlook that acknowledges the ongoing processes and practices of civic learning in school and society This is not only important in order to understand the complexities of such learning It can also help to formulate more realistic expectations about what schools and other educational institutions can contribute to the promotion of democratic citizenship The book is particularly suited for students researchers and policy makers who have an interest in citizenship education civic learning and the relationships between education lifelong learning and democratic citizenship Gert Biesta www.gertbiesta.com is Professor of Education at the School of Education University of Stirling UK Chinese Philosophy on Teaching and Learning Xu Di, Hunter McEwan, 2016-03-01 Written over two and a half millennia ago the Xueji On Teaching and Learning is one of the oldest and most comprehensive works on educational philosophy and teaching methods as well as a consideration of the appropriate roles of teachers and students The Xueji was included in the Liji On Ritual one of the Five Classics that became the heart of the educational system during China's imperial era and it contains the ritual protocols adopted by the Imperial Academy during the Han dynasty Chinese Philosophy on Teaching and Learning provides a new translation of the Xueji along with essays exploring this work from both Western and Chinese perspectives Contributors examine the roots of educational thought in classical Chinese philosophy outline similarities and differences with ideas rooted in classical Greek thought and explore what the Xueji can offer educators today All Under Heaven John H. Berthrong, 1994-01-01 This book is a study of comparative philosophy and theology The themes are the critical issues arising from the modern interpretation of Confucian doctrine as they confront the Christian beliefs of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries Handbook of Cultural Politics and Education, 2010-01-01 In academia the effects of the cultural turn have been felt deeply In everyday life tenets from cultural politics have influenced how people behave or regard their options for action such as the reconfiguration of social movements protests and praxis in general Many authors writing in this field are known for their scholarship and social activism both of which are arguably guided by principles of cultural politics about the nature of representation and the deployment of power in political discourses The Handbook of Cultural Politics and Education is less an attempt to standardize contemporary educational scholarship and more a collection that engages the problems and promises of recent themes in social and cultural thought which require our attention and demand a response In other words it opens doors to questions rather than convenient answers to difficult educational dilemmas The Handbook is part of the appraisal of an opening created by interdisciplinary writings on such themes as representation civil society cultural struggle subjectivity and media within the context of education Indeed cultural politics troubles traditional frameworks in search of critical explanations concerning education's place within society The contributions in the collection support this endeavor

Ordering International Politics Janice Bially Mattern, 2005-09 How do states sustain international order during crises Drawing on the political philosophy of Lyotard and through an empirical examination of the Anglo American international order during the 1956 Suez Crisis Bially Mattern demonstrates that states can and do use representational force a forceful but non physical form of power exercised through language to stabilize international identity and in turn international order

Revisiting Youth Political Participation Joerg Forbrig, 2005-01-01 Technology and the Politics of University Reform E. Hamilton, 2016-04-08 Do new technologies mean the end of the university as we know it Or can they be shaped in a way that balances innovation and tradition This volume explores these questions through a critical history of online education

Life and Learning Between Hong Kong and Toronto Chun-Kwok Lau, 2021-08-24 This book presents a narrative inquiry into the cross cultural educational experiences of a family living in Hong Kong and Toronto Canada At heart a go and return story Lau reflects on the difficulties of adjusting to the different practices of teaching and learning in two places with their own distinctive cultures Ever more prescient now amid the current social and political upheavals in Hong Kong and around the world the book considers the profound impacts such transitions have on families By delving into the challenges of living working and learning across cultures he reflects upon the deep rooted values in both family and school landscapes to gain new insights about educational and cultural practices in Hong Kong and Toronto

Artistic Practices, Participation and Politics Hugo Cruz, 2025-08-29 I know of no other empirical study of community arts that is so widespread and executed so thoroughly Eugene Van Erven Utrecht University Netherlands The book focuses on participatory artistic practices with South of Europe and Latin America as the central geographical context for analysis The book aims to redefine and explore key concepts such as community art practices civic and political participation and cultural and artistic involvement Through in depth case studies the work re examines the elements of community artistic practices and the quality of artistic and cultural participation particularly in the context of Brazilian and Portuguese theatre groups

Educating for Citizenship in a Canada-China Sister School Reciprocal Learning Partnership Yishin Khoo, 2022-12-13 This book enriches the discourse around Global Citizenship Education in teacher education through the example of a teacher's experience in a Canada China Sister School reciprocal learning landscape Instead of positioning global citizenship teaching and learning as a set of fixed goals to be attained by teachers alone this book approaches global citizenship teaching and learning as unfinished lifework in progress and as situated curriculum problems to be inquired together by university researchers school teachers and students under the spirit of reciprocity and community This reimagination of narratives theory and action start from collaborative and reciprocal learning partnerships among Chinese and Canadian researchers and teachers in the practicality of re searching and re enacting the purpose and meanings of twenty first century education in a Canada China Sister School setting
