and Language Through Multimodal Texts Domínguez Romero, Elena, Bobkina, Jelena, Stefanova, Svetlana, 2018-08-17 In the past few decades there has been a growing interest in the benefits of linking the learning of a foreign language to the study of its literature However the incorporation of literary texts into language curriculum is not easy to tackle As a result it is vital to explore the latest developments in text based teaching in which language culture and literature are taught as a continuum Teaching Literature and Language Through Multimodal Texts provides innovative insights into multiple language teaching modalities for the teaching of language through literature in the context of primary secondary and higher education It covers a wide range of good practice and innovative ideas and offers insights on the impact of such practice on learners with the intention to inspire other teachers to reconsider their own teaching practices It is a vital reference source for educators professionals school administrators researchers and practitioners interested in teaching literature and language through multimodal texts The English Handbook William Whitley, 2009-12-01 The English Handbook A Guide to Literary Studies is a comprehensive textbook providing essential practical and analytical reading and writing skills for literature students at all levels. With advice and information on fundamental methods of literary analysis and research, Whitley equips students with the knowledge and tools essential for advanced literary study. Includes traditional close reading strategies integrated with newer critical theory ranging from gender and genre to post-structuralism and post-colonialism with examples from Beowulf to Atwood, folk ballads to Fugard and Christopher Marlowe to Conrad's Marlow. Draws on a wide range of resources from print to contemporary electronic media. Supplies a companion website with chapter summaries, charts, examples, web links and suggestions for further study. Using Film and Media in the Language Classroom Carmen Herrero, Isabelle Vanderschelden, 2019-07-11 This book demonstrates the positive impact of using film and audiovisual material in the language classroom. The chapters are evidence-based and address different levels and contexts of learning around the world. They demonstrate the benefits of using moving images and films to develop intercultural awareness and promote multilingualism and suggest Audiovisual Translation (AVT) activities and projects to enhance language learning. The book will be a valuable continuing professional development resource for language teachers and those involved in curriculum development as well as bringing the latest research theory and pedagogical techniques to teacher training courses.

Literature in Language Education Geoff Hall, 2015-07-06 A state-of-the-art critical review of research into literature in language education of interest to teachers of English and modern foreign languages. Includes prompts and principles for those who wish to improve their own practice or to engage in projects or research in this area. The Cultural Analysis of Texts Mikko Lehtonen, 2000-09-05 Drawing upon a range of perspectives from textual and cultural studies, this book synthesizes textual, contextual and audience analysis into an overall picture of meaning-making. Using examples ranging from Balzac to blonde jokes, modernist poetry to pop lyrics, the book discusses the factors that contribute to the formation of meaning in language, media, texts, contexts and readers. In the cultural study of texts, texts, contexts and practices are equally important; the author argues meaning-making takes place in the articulation between these different elements. But how can one examine all three areas at the same time? In The Cultural Analysis of Texts, Mikko Lehtonen develops a model to enable just such an approach.

How to Write Essays and Dissertations Alan Durant, Nigel Fabb, 2015-10-30 The first book that literature students should read, this guide reveals the distinct set of skills, conventions and methods of essay and dissertation writing. Taking students through the various stages of writing from planning to final submission, it offers specific guidelines and a lively, detailed commentary on actual examples of student work at each stage.
