Once a great man whispered, “Feeling thankfulness and not expressing it, is like wrapping a present and not giving it.”

A very fine morning to the respected principal, teachers and my dear students. Myself, Jadeja Bhavdeepsinh and I am here to express my gratitude on behalf of all the students and the school on this special day. I am also thankful to the school for giving me an opportunity to speak on this auspicious occasion, and it is a matter of honour for me.

“Teachers are the role models for the young generation, they affect the heart of every child and they continue to affect the eternity in the days to come.”

Dear respected teachers our guiding stars and our loving student community budding starts wishing you all a “HAPPY TEACHERS DAY”

We feel it is our great pride and honor on this day to thank all our alma maters who play a great role in making what we are all today.

First of all, I want to give a wholehearted thanks on behalf of all the students to our inspiring and respected Principal Mr. Ramanand Sharma. He is the one who is the source of

Theatre and Performance Patrick J. Ebewo,2017-05-11 In spite of the rich repertoire of artistic traditions in Southern Africa particularly in the areas of drama theatre and performance there seems to be a lack of a corresponding robust academic engagement with these subjects While it can be said that some of the racial groups in the region have received substantial attention in terms of scholarly discussions of their drama and theatre performances the same cannot be said of the black African racial group As such this collection of thirteen chapters represents a compendium of critical and intellectual discourses on black African drama theatre and performance in Botswana Lesotho South Africa and Swaziland The topics covered in the book include amongst others ritual practices interventionist approaches to drama textual analyses and the funeral rites viewed as performance of the South African liberation icon Nelson Mandela The discussions are rooted mainly using African paradigms that are relevant to the context of African cultural production The contributions here add to the aggregate knowledge economy of Southern Africa promote research and publication and provide reading materials for
