Ways Of Looking How To Experience Contemporary Art:

Ways of Looking Ossian Ward, 2014-09-16 Art has changed Today's works of art may have no obvious focal point Traditional artistic media no longer do what we expect of them The styles and movements that characterized art production prior to the twenty first century no longer exist This book provides a straightforward guide to understanding contemporary art based on the concept of the tabula rasa a clean slate and a fresh mind Ossian Ward presents a six step program that gives readers new ways of looking at some of the most challenging art being produced today Since artists increasingly work across traditional media and genres Ward has developed an alternative classification system for contemporary practice such as Art as Entertainment Art as Confrontation Art as Joke categories that help to make sense of otherwise obscure seeming works There are also 20 Spotlight features which guide readers through encounters with key works Ultimately the message is that any encounter with a challenging work of contemporary art need not be intimidating or alienating but rather a dramatic sensually rewarding and thought provoking experience

Historical Dictionary of Contemporary Art Ann Lee Morgan, 2016-12-05 The Historical Dictionary of Contemporary Art illuminates important artists styles and movements of the past 70 years Beginning with the immediate post World War II period it encompasses earlier 20th century masters including Pablo Picasso Henri Matisse Henry Moore Alberto Giacometti Joan Mir Jean Dubuffet Stuart Davis Georgia O Keeffe and other well known figures who remained creatively productive while also inspiring younger generations The book covers subsequent developments including abstract expressionism happenings pop art minimalism conceptual art arte povera feminist art photorealism neo expressionism and postmodernism as well as the contributions of such artists as Jackson Pollock Willem de Kooning Mark Rothko Helen Frankenthaler Joan Mitchell Robert Rauschenberg David Hockney Ellsworth Kelly Francis Bacon Louise Bourgeois Lucio Fontana Andy Warhol Richard Serra Donald Judd Joseph Beuys Christo Anselm Kiefer Judy Chicago Ai Weiwei and Jeff Koons Historical Dictionary of Contemporary Art contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography including more than 900 cross referenced entries on important artists styles terms and movements This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about contemporary art

How to Enjoy Art Ben Street, 2021-09-14 An entertaining and lively guide to rediscovering the pleasure in art How to Enjoy Art A Guide for Everyone provides the tools to understand and enjoy works of art Debunking the pervasive idea that specialist knowledge is required to understand and appreciate art instead How to Enjoy Art focuses on experience and pleasure demonstrating how anyone can find value and enjoyment in art Examples from around the world and throughout art history from works by Fra Angelico and Berthe Morisot to Kazuo Shiraga and Kara Walker are used to demonstrate how a handful of core strategies and skills can help enhance the experience of viewing art works With these skills anyone can encounter any work of art regardless of media artist or period and find some resonance with their own experiences How to Enjoy Art encourages us to rediscover the fundamental pleasure in viewing art

Creative

Engagements with Ecologies of Place Mary Modeen, Iain Biggs, 2020-12-28 This book explores an exciting range of creative engagements with ecologies of place using geopoetics deep mapping and slow residency to propose broadly based collaborations in a form of disciplinary agnosticism Providing a radical alternative to current notions of interdisciplinarity this book demonstrates the breadth of new creative approaches and attitudes that now challenge assumptions of the solitary genius and a culture of possessive individualism Drawing upon a multiplicity of perspectives the book builds on a variety of differing creative approaches contrasting ways in which both visual art and the concept of the artist are shifting through engagement with ecologies of place Through examples of specific established practices in the UK Australia and the USA and other emergent practices from across the world it provides the reader with a rich illustration of the ways in which ensemble creative undertakings are reactivating art's relationship with place and transforming the role of the artist This book will be of interest to artists art educators environmental activists cultural geographers place based philosophers and postgraduate students and to all those concerned with the revival of place through creative work in the twenty first century Mapping Multimodal Performance Studies Maria Grazia Sindoni, Janina Wildfeuer, Kay O'Halloran, 2016-12-01 This book is a first attempt to map the broad context of performance studies from a multimodal perspective It collects original research on traditional performing arts theatre dance opera live durational performance and mediated recorded performances films television shows as well as performative discursive practices on social media by adopting several theories and methodologies all dealing with the notion of multimodality As a mostly dynamic and also interactive environment for various text types and genres the context of performance studies provides many opportunities to produce meaning verbally and non verbally All chapters in this book develop frameworks for the analysis of performance related events and activities and explore empirical case studies in a range of different ages and cultures A further focus lies on the communicative strategies deployed by different communities of practice taking into account processes of production distribution and consumption of such texts in diverse spatial and temporal contexts The 12-Hour Art Expert Noah Charney, 2022-10-30 Brimming with examples from across the artistic spectrum this is the perfect primer to hook future art enthusiasts Publishers Weekly Interested in art but feel under informed Curious but afraid you might not get it Already a fan and wishing to immerse yourself in a fun engaging informative and informed read that will refresh and top up your Art History 101 and Introduction to Art courses from college The 12 Hour Art Expert Everything You Need to Know about Art in a Dozen Masterpieces avoids the common approach of throwing hundreds of images at a reader and expecting them to learn from and memorize them all Instead the book will guide its readers through a brief series of masterpieces of Western art from cave paintings to sharks in formaldehyde This book twelve chapters teach readers about art the art trade and art history in a thorough though concise fashion Each chapter is linked to one notable masterpiece with references to others giving readers a fixed digestible number of objects that they will get to know in depth and which they can use as a lens to understand the thousands of other related objects that they might encounter in the future Museums can be daunting and art presents a strange new language one that certainly intrigues but is often intimidating and foreign This book written by one of the world s best known art historians uses entertaining stories to break down intimidating barriers and invites readers of all ages for a one stop immersion into art

Going Public Jeffrey L. Cruikshank, Pam Korza, 1988 1 copy located in Circulation Red Enlightenment Graham Jones, 2023-05-09 Why we need a materialist spirituality for the secular left and how to build one The left commonly rejects religion and spirituality as counter revolutionary forces citing Marx s famous dictum that religion is the opium of the people Yet forms of spirituality have motivated struggles throughout history ranging from medieval peasant uprisings and colonial slave revolts to South American liberation theology and the US civil rights movement And in a world where religion is growing and political movements are ridden with conflict burnout and failure what can the left learn from religion Red Enlightenment argues not only for a deepened understanding of religious matters but calls for the secular left to develop its own spiritual perspectives It proposes a materialist spirituality built from socialist and scientific sources finding points of contact with the global history of philosophy and religion From cybernetics to liberation theology from ancient Indian and Chinese philosophy to Marxist dialectical materialism from traditional religious practices to contemporary art music and film Red Enlightenment sets out a plausible secular spirituality a new socialist praxis and a utopian vision Contemporary Art and Multicultural Education Susan Cahan, Zoya Kocur, 1996 Contemporary art and multicultural education is the first book of its kind to address the role of art within today s multicultural education Co published with the New Museum of Contemporary Art this beautifully illustrated book provides both theoretical foundations and practical resources for art educators and students combining exquisite color reproductions statements from contemporary artists and interviews with notable educators Absent from multicultural art education is an approach which connects everyday experience social critique and creative expression with classroom learning for students from widely varied backgrounds and differing levels of English comprehension art becomes a vital means of reflecting upon the nature of society and social existence To this end this volume features both works of art and artists personal statements in English and Spanish with lesson plans which explore topics that connect what students learn in school to what life experiences might reveal Buddha Mind in Contemporary Art Jacquelynn Baas, Mary Jane Jacob, 2004 Eminently readable and extremely meaningful The contributors tackle essential questions about the relationship of art and life The book is also very timely offering a way to approach Buddhism through unexpected channels Lynn Gumpert Director Grey Art Gallery New York University
