Ways Queering Seeing Jillian Cox:

Living Out Sexuality and Faith Joseph N. Goh, 2017-12-15 Sexuality religion and faith often have complex and conflicting interactions on both personal and societal levels Numerous studies have been conducted on queer subjects but they have predominantly focused on Western expressions of faith and queer identities This book contributes to the wider scholarship on queer subjects by drawing on actual lived experiences of self identifying gay and bisexual men in Malaysia It discusses what we can learn from the realities of their lives that intersect with their religious spiritual theological or humanistic values in an Asian context Analysed within the critical frameworks of queer theory and queer sexual theology this study divulges the meanings ascribed to sexual identities and practices as well as conceptualisations of masculinity sexual desire love and intimate physical connections It also lays bare the complex negotiations between gender desire and spirit and how they can affect one another Tying fascinating case studies and underexplored Asian theologies with wider conversations around sexuality and faith this book will be of significant interest to scholars working in religious studies theology queer studies sexuality studies and Asian studies

Unlocking Orthodoxies for Inclusive Theologies Robert E. Shore-Goss, Joseph N. Goh, 2019-11-28 This book enters a new liminal space between the LGBTQ and denominational Christian communities It simultaneously explores how those who identify as queer can find a home in church and how those leading welcoming or indeed unwelcoming congregations can better serve both communities The primary argument is that queer inclusion must not merely mean an assimilation into existing heteronormative respectability and approval Chapters are written by a diverse collection of Asian Latin American and U S theologians religious studies scholars and activists Each of them writes from their own social context to address the notion of LGBTQ alternative orthodoxies and praxes pertaining to God the saints failure of the church queer eschatologies and erotic economies Engaging with issues that are not only faced by those in the theological academy but also by clergy and congregants the book addresses those impacted by a history of Christian hostility and violence who have become suspicious of attempts at acceptance It also sets out an encouragement for queer theologians and clergy think deeply about how they form communities where queer perspectives are proactively included This is a forward looking and positive vision of a more inclusive theology and ecclesiology It will therefore appeal to scholars of Queer Theology and Religious Studies as well as practitioners seeking a fresh perspective on church and the LGBTQ community

Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23 This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia's plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore

Becoming a Malaysian Trans Man Joseph N. Goh, 2020-06-23 This book explores the fluid mutable and contingent ways in which transgender men in Malaysia construct their subjectivities Against the dearth of academic resources on Malaysian trans men this ground breaking monograph is rooted in the lived experiences of Malaysian trans men whose vicissitudes have mostly been hidden silenced and overlooked Comprising diverse age groups ethnicities socio economic status educational backgrounds and religious persuasions these trans men reveal how they navigate life in a country with secular and religious laws that criminalise their embodiments and the strategies they deploy to achieve self determination and self actualisation despite being perceived as aberrant and sinful This book demonstrates how negotiations with constitutive elements such as gender identity social interaction citizenship legality bodily struggle medical transitioning and personal spiritual validation condition the becomings of Malaysian trans men

Built to Win Leslie Heywood, Shari L. Dworkin, Annotation The sculpted speed of Marion Jones The grit and agility of Mia Hamm The slam dunk style of Lisa Leslie The skill and finesse of these sports figures are widely admired no longer causing the puzzlement and discomfort directed toward earlier generations of athletic women Built to Win explores this relatively recent phenomenon the confident empowered female athletes found everywhere in American popular culture Leslie Heywood and Shari L Dworkin examine the role of female athletes through interviews with elementary and high school age girls and boys careful readings of ad campaigns by Nike Reebok and others discussions of movies like Fight Club and Girlfight and explorations of their own sports experiences They ask what if any dissonance is there between popular images and the actual experiences of these athletes Do these images really redefine femininity and contribute to a greater inclusion of all women in sport Are sexualized images of these women damaging their quest to be taken seriously Do they inspire young boys to respect and admire female athletes and will this ultimately make a difference in the ways gender and power are constructed and perceived Proposing a paradigm shift from second to third wave feminism Heywood and Dworkin argue that in the years since the passage of Title IX gender stereotypes have been destabilized in profound ways and they assert that female athletes and their imagery are doing important cultural work to that end Important refreshing and engrossing Built to Win examines sport in all its complexity

The Routledge Handbook of Male Sex Work, Culture, and Society John Scott, Christian Grov, Victor Minichiello, 2021-03-20 Panoramic and provocative in its scope this handbook is the definitive guide to contemporary issues associated with male sex work and a must read for those who study masculinities male sexuality sexual health and sexual cultures This groundbreaking volume will have a powerful impact on our understanding of this challenging elusive subject While the internet has brought the previously hidden worlds of male sex work more starkly into public view academic research has often remained locked into descriptions of male sex workers and their clients as perverse Drawing from a variety of regions the chapters provide insights into the historical popular cultural social and economic aspects of sex work as well as demographic patterns health outcomes and policy issues This approach shifts thought on male sex work from a hidden social problem to a publicly acknowledged social phenomenon The book challenges myths and reconceptualizes male sex work as a discrete field Importantly it provides a vehicle for the voices of male sex workers and new and established scholars This richly detailed humane and innovative collection retrieves male sex work from silence and invisibility on the one hand and its association with scandal and stigma on the other The findings within have profound implications for how governments approach public health and regulation of the sex industry and for how society can make sense of the complexities of human sexualities A compelling scholarly read and a major contribution to a commercial sector that is often neglected in policy debates on sex work this handbook will be of great interest to scholars of criminology sociology gender studies and cultural studies and all those interested in male sex work

Aesthetics of Excess Jillian Hernandez, 2020-09-21 Heavy makeup gaudy jewelry dramatic hairstyles and clothes that are considered cheap fake too short too tight or too masculine working class Black and Latina girls and women are often framed as embodying excessive styles that are presumed to indicate sexual deviance In Aesthetics of Excess Jillian Hernandez examines how middle class discourses of aesthetic value racialize the bodies of women and girls of color At the same time their style can be a source of cultural capital when appropriated by the contemporary art scene Drawing on her community arts work with Black and Latina girls in Miami Hernandez analyzes the art and self image of these girls alongside works produced by contemporary artists and pop musicians such as Wangechi Mutu Kara Walker and Nicki Minaj Through these relational readings Hernandez shows how notions of high and low culture are complicated when women and girls of color engage in cultural production and how they challenge the policing of their bodies and sexualities through artistic authorship Ways of Queering, Ways of Seeing Jillian E.
