conclusion This is further supported by the fact that the final workshop manual for the T15 T20 T20C T20S published under the Triumph name was the August 1964 manual No 8 part number 906 64 which only included the external distributor models In addition under BSA ownership the Tiger Cub engine had previously been utilized as the basis for the 1959 BSA C15 and ultimately by the BSA Bantam Cub series from 1966 onwards Unfortunately Triumph motorcycle owners are subjected to considerable confusion surrounding the appropriate selection from the multitude of originals and reprints of the various manuals that have recently flooded the online marketplace We encourage you to exercise caution when purchasing a manual for your motorcycle or automobile as many of the reprints found on internet websites are from bedroom sellers at enticingly low prices by individuals that really have no idea what they are selling Many are nothing more than poor quality comb bound photocopies that are scanned and printed complete with greasy pages and thumbprints and as such are deceptively described as pre owned used or even refurbished In addition they are often advertised for the incorrect series and or model years      Workshop Manual No. 11 for Triumph Motorcycles ,1965*      Triumph 650 & 750 Twins Jeff Clew,1973
