Unisa Application Forms 2015:

Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century Fudge, Tamara Phillips, Ferebee, Susan Shepherd, 2021-06-25 The world of education has undergone major changes within the last year that have pushed online instruction to the forefront of learning Thanks to the COVID 19 pandemic online learning has become paramount to the continued and uninterrupted teaching of students and has forced students and teachers alike to adjust to an online learning environment Though some have already returned to the traditional classroom or plan to very soon others have begun to appreciate the value of online education initiatives that had previously been discussed but never acted upon as they have been in the past year With plenty of positive and negative aspects online learning is a complex issue with numerous factors to consider It is an issue that must be studied and examined in order to improve in the future Curriculum Development and Online Instruction for the 21st Century examines the issues and difficulties of online teaching and learning as well as potential solutions and best practices This book includes an examination on the value of teaching fully via the internet as well as the challenges inherent in the training of teachers to teach in online environments While addressing key elements of remote learning such as keeping student data safe as well as methods in which to engage students this book covers topics that include assessment tools teaching deaf students web technology and standardized curricula Ideal for K 12 teachers college faculty curriculum developers instructional designers educational software developers administrators academicians researchers and students this book provides a thorough overview of online education and the benefits and issues that accompany it ICEL 2017 - Proceedings of the 12th International Conference on e-Learning Laurie O. Campbell, Richard Hartshorn, 2017 Intimate Partner Violence, Risk and Security Kate Fitz-Gibbon, Sandra Walklate, Jude McCulloch, Jane Maree Maher, 2018-06-14 This edited collection addresses intimate partner violence risk and security as global issues Although intimate partner violence risk and security are intimately connected they are rarely considered in tandem in the context of global security Yet intimate partner violence causes widespread physical sexual and or psychological harm It is the most common type of violence against women internationally and is estimated to affect 30 per cent of women worldwide Intimate partner violence has received significant attention in recent years animating political debate policy and law reform as well as scholarly attention In bringing together a range of international experts this edited collection challenges status quo understandings of risk and questions how we can reposition the risk of IPV and particularly the risk of IPH as a critical site of global and national security It brings together contributions from a range of disciplines and international jurisdictions including from Australia and New Zealand United Kingdom Europe United States North America Brazil and South Africa The contributions here urge us to think about perpetrators in more nuanced and sophisticated ways with chapters pointing to the structural and social factors that facilitate and sustain violence against women and IPV Contributors point out that states not only exacerbate the structural conditions producing the risks of violence but directly coerce and control women as both citizens and non citizens States too should be understood as collaborators and facilitators of intimate partner violence Effective action against intimate partner violence requires sustained responses at the global state and local levels to end gender inequality Critical to this end are environmental issues poverty and the divisions often along race and ethnic lines underpinning other dimensions of social and economic inequality Theories of Change Karen Wendt, 2021-05-07 Today it has become strikingly obvious that companies no longer operate in an environment where only risk return and volatility describe the business environment The business has to deal with volatility plus uncertainty plus complexity and ambiguity VUCA that requires new qualities competencies frameworks and it demands a new mind set to deal with the VUCA environment in investment funding and financing This book builds on a new megatrend beyond resilience called anti fragility We have had the black swan financial crisis and the red swan COVID the Bank for International Settlement is preparing for regenerative capitalism block chain based analysis of financial streams and is aiming to prevent the Green Swan the climate crisis to lead to the next lockdown In the light of the UN 17 Sustainable Development Goals what is required is Theories of Change Written by experts working in the fields of sustainable finance impact investing development finance carbon divesting innovation scaling finance impact entrepreneurship social stock exchanges alternative currencies Initial Coin Offerings ICOs ledger technologies civil action co creation impact management deep learning and transformation leadership the book begins by analysing existing Theories of Change frameworks from various disciplines and creating a new integrated model the meta framework In turn it presents insights on creating and using Theories of Change to redirect investment capital to sustainable companies while implementing the Sustainable Development Goals and the Paris Climate Agreement Further it discusses the perspective of planetary boundaries as defined by the Stockholm Resilience Institute and investigates various aspects of systems organizations entrepreneurship investment and finance that are closely tied to the mission ingrained in the Theory of Change As it demonstrates solutions that ensure the parity of profit people and planet through dynamic change can effectively address the needs of entrepreneurs and business By exploring these concepts and their application the book helps create and shape new markets and opportunities Sustainability, Climate Change and the Green Economy Nhamo, Godwell, Mjimba, Vuyo, 2017-02-03 Written by 18 authors this book on Sustainability Climate Change and the Green Economy brings together insights at the nexus of the four key concepts embedded in its title The book is unpacked in six parts Part 1 is a single chapter that covers the context of the topic Part 2 looks at the green economy and green jobs and addresses the challenges of government coordination and socio economic development with emphasis on skills and immigration regimes Part 3 reflects on sustainable development with a focus on relearning our wants and needs and provides critical reflection on engineering for sustainable development Management of natural resources and wetlands makes up Part 4 which teases out issues on timber harvesting as well as challenges and opportunities in addressing environment economic development and growth conflicts A critique of climate change coverage in news media mainstreaming climate change into wildlife policies and tourism are matters covered in Part 5 The last part Part 6 is another single chapter which articulates emerging issues from the whole book and presents some policy and take home messages Given the growing literature in the field of sustainability climate change and the green economy this piece will prove a must read for policy makers academics industry and civil society Research Anthology on Remote Teaching and Learning and the Future of Online Education Management Association, Information Resources,2022-09-02 The sudden implementation of emergency health procedures at the start of the COVID 19 pandemic forced many educators and educational institutions to explore new territory in terms of policy teaching strategy and more Now that many institutions are familiar with online education innovations have been developed and implemented It is essential to study these best practices and innovations that have been developed in remote teaching and learning to better understand the future of online education The Research Anthology on Remote Teaching and Learning and the Future of Online Education explores the recent developments strategies and innovations in remote teaching and learning that have been implemented globally Covering topics such as emergency remote teaching psycho social well being and cross cultural communication this major reference work is an indispensable resource for educators and administrators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers teacher educators librarians government officials IT managers researchers and academicians Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa Dallen J. Timothy,2023-03-13 Cultural Heritage and Tourism in Africa examines the multiple and diverse manifestations of cultural heritage based tourism in Africa from a regional social science and sustainability perspective This book delivers a comprehensive treatise on the interdependent concepts of cultural heritage and tourism Heritage is one of the most pervasive tourism assets worldwide and lies at the foundations of tourism in many localities including Africa However despite its salience there has not been a systematic examination of Africa s heritage resources markets policies practices successes and challenges in a tourism framework despite the continent s immense heritage value This book reviews the different types of heritages that pervade the cultural environment of Africa and comprises its vast heritagescapes It also examines the increasing potential for the growth of heritage tourism throughout the entire continent The contributions in this volume delve into current thinking about space and place and their effects on heritage mobilities globalization colonialism and indigeneity conflict identity and nation building connections with other regions through migration and the slave trade and a greater emphasis on the ordinary heritage of Africa which has long been ignored by tourism scholars and industry representatives The chapters herein are authored by Africa specialists most being from Africa offering a truly African perspective The chapters are conceptually rigorous and empirically rich with examples from all regions of the African continent This unparalleled interdisciplinary glimpse at cultural heritage and tourism in Africa delivers strong value and is a vital resource for all students and researchers of tourism cultural studies heritage studies geography anthropology sociology history and global studies Decarbonising the Built Environment Peter Newton,Deo Prasad,Alistair Sproul,Stephen

White,2019-06-07 This book focuses on the challenge that Australia faces in transitioning to renewable energy and regenerating its cities via a transformation of its built environment Both are necessary conditions for low carbon living in the 21st century This is a global challenge represented by the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals and the IPCC's Climate Change program and its focus on mitigation and adaptation All nations must make significant contributions to this transformation This book highlights the new knowledge and innovation that has emerged from research projects undertaken in the Cooperative Research Centre for Low Carbon Living between 2012 and 2019 an initiative of the Australian Government's Department of Industry Science and Technology that is tasked with responding to the UN challenges Four principal transition pathways were central to the CRC and provide the thematic structure to this volume They focus on technology buildings precinct and city design and human behaviour and their interactions Universities and Sustainable Communities: Meeting the Goals of the Agenda 2030 Walter Leal Filho,Ubiratã Tortato,Fernanda Frankenberger,2019-09-25 The book showcases examples of university engagement in community initiatives and reports on the results from research and from a variety of institutional projects and programmes As a whole the book illustrates how actors at the community microlevel and other levels meso and macro can make valuable and concrete contributions to the implementation of the Sustainable Development Goals SDGs and more specifically to achieving the objectives defined at the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development It is one of the outcomes of the Second World Symposium on Sustainability Science which was jointly organised by the Pontifícia Universidade Católica do Paraná Brazil the Research and Transfer Centre Sustainable Development and Climate Change Management and the European School of Sustainability Science and Research at Hamburg University of Applied Sciences Germany in cooperation with the Inter University Sustainable Development Research Programme IUSDRP The Routledge Handbook for Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research

John H. Hitchcock,Anthony J. Onwuegbuzie,2022-05-10 This groundbreaking edited book The Routledge Handbook for Advancing Integration in Mixed Methods Research presents an array of different integration ideas with contributions from scholars across the globe This handbook represents the first major volume that comprehensively discusses this topic of integration Perhaps the most fundamental and longstanding question in mixed methods research is How does one best integrate disparate forms of information to produce the best form of inquiry Each of the 34 seminal chapters in this handbook accelerates the discussion of integration across a broad range of disciplines including education arts based analyses and work in the Global South as well as special topics such as psychometrics and media research Many of the chapters present new topics that have never been written about before and all chapters offer cutting edge approaches to integration They also offer different perspectives of integration leading the introductory chapter to offer a new and comprehensive definition for integration as follows referring to the optimal mixing combining blending amalgamating incorporating joining linking merging consolidating or unifying of research approaches methodologies philosophies methods techniques concepts language modes disciplines fields and or teams within a single study The concluding chapter offers a meta framework that accounts for this definition and is designed to help scholars think more about integration in a way that represents a continuous dynamic iterative interactive synergistic and holistic meaning making process This handbook will be an essential reference work for all scholars and practitioners using or seeking to use mixed methods in their research
