Womens Holocaust Writing Memory And Imagination:

Women's Holocaust Writing S. Lillian Kremer, 1999-01-01 Women's Holocaust Writing the first book of literary criticism devoted to American Holocaust writing by and about women extends Holocaust and literary studies by examining women's artistic representations of female Holocaust experiences Beyond racial persecution women suffered gender related oppression and coped with the concentration camp universe in ways consistent with their prewar gender socialization Through close insightful reading of fiction S Lillian Kremer explores Holocaust representations in works distinguished by the power of their literary expression and attention to women's diverse experiences

Plight and Fate of Women During and Following Genocide Samuel Totten, 2017-07-05 The plight and fate of female victims during the course of genocide is radically and profoundly different from their male counterparts Like males female victims suffer demonization ostracism discrimination and deprivation of their basic human rights They are often rounded up deported and killed But unlike most men women are subjected to rape gang rape and mass rape Such assaults and degradation can and often do result in horrible injuries to their reproductive systems and unwanted pregnancies This volume takes one stride towards assessing these grievances and argues against policies calculated to continue such indifference to great human suffering The horror and pain suffered by females does not end with the act of rape There is always the fear and reality of being infected with HIV AIDS Concomitantly there is the possibility of becoming pregnant Then there is the birth of the babies For some the very sight of the babies and children reminds mothers of the horrific violations they suffered When mothers harbor deep seated hatred or disdain for such children it results in more misery The hatred may be so great that children born of rape leave home early in order to fend for themselves on the street This seventh volume in the Genocide series will provoke debate discussion reflection and ultimately action The issues presented include ongoing mass rape of girls and women during periods of war and genocide ostracism of female victims terrible psychological and physical wounds the plight of offspring resulting from rapes and the critical need for medical and psychological services

Civil Courage Naomi Kramer, 2007 If we are responsible educators the causes of the Holocaust must be addressed in order to prevent future genocide Contemporary Jewish Identity Emanuele Ottolenghi and Mark Weitzman examine contemporary antisemitism in Europe and North America respectively Michael Pollan reflects upon Jewish identity from the unique perspective of a young Jew who worked as a civil servant for the Austrian government in a program designed to acknowledge Austria's role as a perpetrator of the Shoah Testimony Firsthand testimony will soon be available only in memoirs or recorded oral histories In the future second and subsequent generations must speak as witnesses Sheldon Schreter a grandchild of Holocaust victims describes a visit with his four sons to Sighet Romania his parents birthplace and struggles with the question of Why The prevention of genocide is in large measure dependent upon the good will and intervention of citizens living in modern cultures

Representations of Anne Frank in American Literature Rachael McLennan, 2016-08-05 This book explores portrayals of Anne Frank in American literature where she is often invoked if problematically as a means of encouraging readers to think widely about persecution genocide and victimisation often in relation to gender ethnicity and race It shows how literary representations of Anne Frank in America over the past 50 years reflect the continued dominance of the American dramatic adaptations of Frank's Diary in the 1950s and argues that authors feel compelled to engage with the problematic elements of these adaptations and their iconic power At the same time though literary representations of Frank are associated with the adaptations critics often assume that these texts unquestioningly perpetuate the problems with the adaptations This is not true This book examines how American authors represent Frank in order to negotiate difficult questions relating to representation of the Holocaust in America and in order to consider gender coming of age and forms of inequality in American culture in various historical moments and of course to consider the ways Frank herself is represented in America This book argues that the most compelling representations of Frank in American literature are alert to their own limitations and may caution against making Frank a universal symbol of goodness or setting up too easy identifications with her It will be of great interest to researchers and students of Frank the Holocaust in American fiction and culture gender studies life writing young adult fiction and ethics

What Happened to Abraham? Victoria Aarons, 2005 What Happened to Abraham Reinventing the Covenant in American Jewish Fiction examines the ways in which contemporary American Jewish writers reinvent and reconfigure stories of the Hebraic covenant as a way of conceiving negotiating and redefining Jewish identity in America In attempting to locate a place for Jewish identity at the end of the twentieth century and the beginning of the twenty first American Jewish writers look to an imaginary memory to reengage a defining central Jewish history that has post World War II become diluted in American culture
