Woody Allens Angst Philosophical Commentaries On His Serious Films:

Woody Allen's Angst Sander H. Lee, 2013-03-08 While Woody Allen is generally considered to be a master of the comic genre he created his serious films are very important in understanding his role as one of this generation's more influential filmmakers In this work such Allen films as Annie Hall 1977 Broadway Danny Rose 1984 Crimes and Misdemeanors 1989 and Mighty Aphrodite 1995 are analyzed for the common philosophical themes they share Gender issues Allen's love/hate relationship with God narcissism and moral relativism and the use of the so-called existential dilemma are among the topics discussed The extensive research is augmented with a rare interview with Allen Eighteen Woody Allen Films Analyzed Sander H. Lee, 2015-10-02 This new textbook is an abridgment of the author's earlier Woody Allen's Angst Philosophical Commentaries on His Serious Films McFarland 1997 invaluable Choice Five main topics are explored the desire of many of his characters to ground their lives in traditional ethical values despite their realization that such values may no longer be certain the opposition between pessimism and optimism throughout his films gender issues relating to romantic love sexual desire and the ongoing changes in our cultural expectations of both men and women the idea that contemporary American society is rapidly descending into barbarism precisely because of societal failure to maintain a sense of individual moral responsibility and a critique of psychoanalysis as a method for understanding human behavior Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Doing Philosophy at the Movies Richard A. Gilmore, 2005-03-17 Doing Philosophy at the Movies finds the roots of profound philosophical ideas in the relatively ordinary context of popular mostly Hollywood movies Richard A. Gilmore suggests that narratives of popular films like Hitchcock's Vertigo John Ford's The Searchers Woody Allen's Crimes and Misdemeanors the Coen Brothers' Fargo and Danny Boyle's Trainspotting mirror certain epiphanies in the works of great philosophers Via Plato Aristotle Kant Nietzsche Wittgenstein and Zizek Gilmore addresses such themes as the nature of philosophy the possibility of redemption through love catharsis the sublime and the human problem of death Gilmore argues that seeing these movies through the lens of certain philosophical ideas can show how deeply relevant both philosophy and the movies can be Hermeneutics of the Film World Alberto Baracco, 2017-10-09 This book identifies a new methodological strategy for the interpretation of film philosophizing Many recent works in film philosophy adopting the approach identified with the term film as philosophy have considered film as capable of doing philosophy Focused on the basic relationship between film and filmgoer the proposed method is founded on the concept of the film world Combining Merleau-Ponty's and Ricoeur's philosophies and reconsidering Goodman's theory of worldmaking the film world becomes the hermeneutic horizon from which film philosophical thought can emerge The book shows how Ricoeurian methodology has the potential to provide a valuable resource for film studies by inviting scholars to consider film interpretation in terms of film world hermeneutics Bible and Cinema: Fifty Key Films Adele Reinhartz, 2012-12-12 Movies which have drawn inspiration from the Bible either directly or indirectly have been extremely popular since the earliest days of cinema Bible and Cinema Fifty Key Films introduces a wide range of those movies which are among the most important critically acclaimed and highest grossing films of all time including The King of Kings Ben Hur The Passion of the Christ Frankenstein Close Encounters of the Third Kind 2001 A Space Odyssey Apocalypse Now Monty Python's Life of Brian Written by a team of international scholars the fifty entries discuss the Biblical stories characters or motifs depicted in each film making this book the ideal guide for anyone interested in the long standing relationship between the Bible and film

Movies and Midrash Wendy I. Zierler, 2017-08-15 Finalist for the 2017 National Jewish Book Award in Modern Jewish Thought and Experience presented by the Jewish Book Council Movies and Midrash uses cinema as a springboard to discuss central Jewish texts and matters of belief A number of books have drawn on films to explicate Christian theology and belief but Wendy I Zierler is the first to do so from a Jewish perspective exploring what Jewish tradition text and theology have to say about the lessons and themes arising from influential and compelling films The book uses the method of inverted midrash while classical rabbinical midrash begins with exegesis of a verse and then introduces a mashal parable as a means of further explication Zierler turns that process around beginning with the culturally familiar cinematic parable and then analyzing related Jewish texts Each chapter connects a secular film to a different central theme in classical Jewish sources or modern Jewish thought Films covered include The Truman Show truth Memento memory Crimes and Misdemeanors sin Magnolia confession and redemption The Descendants birthright Forrest Gump cleverness and simplicity and The Hunger Games creation of humanity in God's image among others

The American Middle Class Robert S. Rycroft, 2017-05-12 What is the American Dream This book's author argues that contrary to what many believe it is not achieving the wealth necessary to enter the top one percent but rather becoming members of the great middle class by dint of hard work and self discipline Americans of all classes consider themselves to be middle class There are Americans who by any objective standard should be considered poor who would insist they are middle class just as other Americans who should be considered wealthy also insist they are middle class Thinking of yourself and being thought of by others as middle class is the American Dream for tens of millions of people But an enduring problem of the American middle class is the worry that the Dream is coming apart that forces are lurking in the shadows waiting to steal their progress and throw them back into poverty This thought provoking reference explores a disparate multitude of issues associated with being middle class in America It addresses a range of questions and subtopics including the meaning of the term middle class how middle class status is expressed by both the majority and the various minorities that make up the American mosaic what economic pressures are bearing down on the middle class and how economists and others attempt to make sense of the economic issues of the day Readers will also better understand how political institutions and public policies are shaping the way the middle class views the world how labor housing education and crime related issues have influenced the development and growth of the middle class the norms of the middle class versus those of other classes in society and the role of culture and media in shaping how members of the middle class view themselves and how they are viewed by others This two volume set provides a comprehensive look at the American middle class that supports student research in economics social studies cultural studies and political history The content supports teachers in their development of lesson plans and assignments that directly align with the Common Core State Standards and the recommendations of the National Curriculum Standards for Social Studies NCSS with respect to all ten NCSS themes Contemporary Literary Criticism Jeffery Hunter,2005 Covers authors who are currently active or who died after December 31 1959 Profiles novelists poets playwrights and other creative and nonfiction writers by providing criticism taken from books magazines literary reviews newspapers and scholarly journals

Enchantment C. Stephen Jaeger,2012-03-19 What is the force in art C Stephen Jaeger asks that can enter our consciousness inspire admiration or imitation and carry a reader or viewer from the world as it is to a world more sublime We have long recognized the power of individuals to lead or enchant by the force of personal charisma and indeed in his award winning Envy of Angels Jaeger himself brilliantly parsed the ability of charismatic teachers to shape the world of medieval learning In Enchantment he turns his attention to a sweeping and multifaceted exploration of the charisma not of individuals but of art For Jaeger the charisma of the visual arts literature and film functions by creating an exalted semblance of life a realm of beauty sublime emotions heroic motives and deeds godlike bodies and actions and superhuman abilities so as to dazzle the humbled spectator and lift him or her up into the place so represented Charismatic art makes us want to live in the higher world that it depicts to behave like its heroes and heroines and to think and act according to their values It temporarily weakens individual will and rational critical thought It brings us into a state of enchantment Ranging widely across periods and genres Enchantment investigates the charismatic effect of an ancient statue of Apollo on the poet Rilke of the painter Durer's self portrayal as a figure of Christ like magnificence of a numinous Odysseus washed ashore on Phaeacia and of the black and white projection of Fred Astaire dancing across the Depression era movie screen From the tattoos on the face of a Maori tribesman to the haunting visage of Charlotte Rampling in a film by Woody Allen Jaeger's extraordinary book explores the dichotomies of reality and illusion life and art that are fundamental to both cultic and aesthetic experience
