Workers' Compensation Joseph W. Little, Thomas A. Eaton, Gary Randall Smith, 2014 Two major factors explain the workers compensation focus Foremost is that the topic is important and rich enough to recived the full attention of an entire course and entire book The place of compensation for industrial injuries in our culture and law is not waning and neither is the need for lawyers who are educated to cope with the legal issues The second major reason for the exclusive attention to workers compensation is almost the mirror image of the first Developments in other employment areas e g OSHA anti discrimination and social security continue to produce new volumes of materials that collectively justify separate treatment independent of workers compensation PREFACE

Fact Investigation

David A. Binder, Paul Bergman, 1984 Describes how facts are proved at trial examining the principal categories of rational and psychological evidence which is the basis of trial stories How at trial does each party tell a story bolstering its own legal position and detracting from that of its adversary What attributes of stories tend to make them persuasive From these attributes the authors derive a set of investigatory objectives that generally apply regardless of the nature of the case With objectives in place turns to the thought processes that lawyers employ to analyze and develop evidence Cases and Materials on Water Law Frank J.
