Bjorklund, 2016-09-30 Several themes emerge in this 2014 2015 edition of the Yearbook The first is a notable focus on country and region specific developments Different articles focus on key developments in such countries as Australia Brazil China Ghana India Indonesia Russia and South Africa Others focus on regional innovations in particular in Latin America A second area of attention is reform and proposals for reform in investor

state dispute settlement and in investment law generally The third theme is the continued concern about states regulatory autonomy and the importance of their retaining ability to protect the interests of their nationals A fourth theme concerns the continued contribution that investment arbitration makes to the development of international law and the influence that it is starting to have on other areas of law whether that is as a source of inspiration in the interpretation of other norms or as a source of potentially powerful persuasive authority given the teeth that investment law has with respect to enforcement Included are the winning memorials of the FDI Moot for both 2014 and 2015 In 2014 a team from the University of Ottawa submitted the winning claimant's memorial while students from Harvard Law School submitted the winning respondent's memorial In 2015 Harvard repeated its stellar performance again winning best respondent's memorial The winning claimant's memorial in 2015 was submitted by students from the National and Kapodistrian University of Athens These excellent memorials reveal once again the growing interest of students in international investment law and demonstrate a striving for excellence and an enthusiasm for grappling with intellectually challenging issues

Universal's Guide to LL.B. Entrance Examination Manish Arora, Netherlands Yearbook of International Law 2015 Maarten den Heijer, Harmen van der Wilt, 2016-08-04 Jus cogens is a formidable yet elusive concept of international law Since its incorporation in the Vienna Convention on the Law of Treaties some 35 years ago it has made tentative inroads into international legal practice But its role in international law is arguably less prominent than might have been expected on the basis of its powerful potential and in view of wider developments in international law that call for constitutionalisation and hierarchy including the processes of fragmentation and humanization This volume of the Netherlands Yearbook of International Law sets out to clarify the concepts and doctrines relevant to jus cogens and to sharpen the debate on its theoretical foundations functions and legal effects To that purpose the volume brings together contributions on the genesis and function of jus cogens on the application of jus cogens in specialised areas of international law and on its enforcement and legal consequences Together they reinforce the understanding of jus cogens as a hierarchical concept of international law and shed light on its potential for further development

Justice in Private Law Peter Jaffey, 2023-08-24 This book discusses the dominant corrective justice and distributive justice approaches to private law and identifies their strengths and weaknesses It goes on to propose a general approach to private law including contract tort and private property and explains how it can provide solutions to some longstanding problems Two general ideas inform this approach the standpoint limitation and remedial consistency The standpoint limitation explains the distinctive character of private law that is to say why it is focussed mainly though not exclusively on particular individual interests rather than the common welfare Remedial consistency explains the way in which remedies depend on and give effect to primary rights The book also discusses the nature of common law legal reasoning and its relationship to the suggested understanding of private law

Tort Law Kirsty Horsey, Erika Rackley, 2017 This is an ideal main text for undergraduate tort law courses The authors combine a lively engaging writing style with a critical approach to the subject It uses pedagogical features such as counterpoint and pause for reflection boxes to encourage students to think more deeply

The Human Rights Council Damian Etone,2020-01-27 This book examines the engagement of African states with the United Nations Human Rights Council s Universal Periodic Review UPR mechanism This human rights mechanism is known for its pacific and non confrontational approach to monitoring state human rights implementation Coming at the end of the first three cycles of the UPR the work offers a detailed analysis of the effectiveness of African states engagement and its potential impact It develops a framework which comprehensively evaluates aspects of states UPR engagement such as the pre review national consultation process and implementation of UPR recommendations which until recently have received little attention The book considers the potential for acculturation in engagement with the UPR and unpacks the impact of politics regionalism cultural relativism rights ritualism and civil society The work provides a useful guide for policymakers and international human rights law practitioners as well as a valuable resource for international legal and international relations academics and researchers

Changing the Law Commonwealth Secretariat,2017-11-30 Changing the Law A Practical Guide to Law Reform is designed to provide practical assistance to users seeking to deliver high standard law reform outcomes Using examples and experience from around the Commonwealth and beyond it guides users through each phase of a successful reform from initiation to final implementation
