Working The Double Shift A Young Womans Journey With Autism:

Working the Double Shift Christine Motokane,2014-02-18 Working the Double Shift is a raw honest autobiography from a young woman with autism Feeling that the current books on autism were not a fit for her Christine decided to write a memoir covering different topics as well as the emotional process of a person with autism The book covers her journey from birth to college and how she learned to find her voice and path in life as well as interventions and approaches that worked for her This memoir also brings awareness to different social issues regarding autism and adulthood The Revolving Door

Christine Motokane,2024-02-08 The Revolving Door the Untold Story of Disability Supports is a story of a young adult woman trying to find good support people who are committed to helping her Many leave the field because of poor pay and high stress This is a raw honest story depicting young adults with developmental disabilities who are aging out of the system These adults are left alone with very little support Isolation is common with adults with developmental disabilities Statistics show that in the coming years there will be a tsunami of children with autism growing up to be young adults Our current social welfare system is not equipped to handle this tsunami coming our way The author wants to advocate for better pay and incentive for people entering the direct support professional field It is a MUST READ for anyone who deals with people with disabilities Although the book deals with serious topics the author imparts humor and honesty to engage with the reader
