Working Through Conflict

An illustration on the right side of the book cover. It features a large, light blue circle that overlaps a dark blue vertical band on the left. Inside the circle, there is a faint, stylized image of two figures standing on a globe, holding long poles or staffs that cross each other. The background within the circle is a lighter blue with some cloud-like patterns.

Reading the Bible, Transforming Conflict Carol J. Dempsey, Elayne J. Shapiro, 2011 An interaction between biblical studies and communication studies that demonstrates how understanding situations of conflict in the Bible can help develop skills in dealing with conflict today Each of eleven chapters presents a biblical story from Adam and Eve through the letters of Paul that examines some aspect of conflict intrapersonal interpersonal or between humans and God Each chapter takes up a particular theme the nature of conflict the role of identity the need for forgiveness the use of power the potential of mediation the skills of negotiation the possibility of reconciliation with the goal of helping students learn how to be in right relationship with one another and with God Each chapter includes discussion questions suggested readings and sidebars to form an attractive text for undergraduates and general readers Accessible language and tools to engage students are used throughout Creating the Third Force Maureen P. Flaherty, Hamdesa Tusso, 2016-11-21 The profession of peacemaking has been practiced by indigenous communities around the world for many centuries however the ethnocentric world view of the West which dominated the world of ideas for the last five centuries dismissed indigenous forms of peacemaking as irrelevant and backward tribal rituals Neither did indigenous forms of peacemaking fit the conception of modernization and development of the new ruling elites who inherited the postcolonial state The new profession of Alternative Dispute Resolution ADR which emerged in the West as a new profession during the 1970s neglected the tradition and practice of indigenous forms of peacemaking The scant literature which has appeared on this critical subject tends to focus on the ritual aspect of the indigenous practices of peacemaking The goal of this book is to fill this lacuna in scholarship More specifically this work focuses on the process of peacemaking exploring the major steps of process of peacemaking which the peacemakers follow in dislodging antagonists from the stage of hostile confrontation to peaceful resolution of disputes and eventual reconciliation The book commences with a critique of ADR for neglecting indigenous processes of peacemaking and then utilizes case studies from different communities around the world to focus on the following major themes the basic structure of peacemaking process change and continuity in the traditions of peacemaking the role of indigenous women in peacemaking the nature of the tools peacemakers deploy common features found in indigenous processes of peacemaking and the overarching goals of peacemaking activities in indigenous communities Interpersonal
