Stern,Courtney E. Martin,2011-08-18 Written in conjunction with the documentary Rebirth a full decade in the making an uplifting look at the lives of nine individuals whose lives were forever changed by the largest tragedy our nation has ever faced The images of the burning towers the heartbroken friends building memorials the minute by minute accounts of the horrors of that day all are indelibly etched on our collective consciousness But what of those left behind after 9 11 What have they and we learned from the gift of time In Project Rebirth a psychologist and a journalist examine the lives of nine people who were directly affected by the events of September 11 2001 Written concurrently with the filming of a forthcoming documentary it is uniquely positioned to tackle the questions raised about how people react in the face of crippling grief how you maintain hope for a future when your life as you knew it is destroyed and the amazing ability of humans to focus on the positive aspects of day to day living in the face of tragedy The project follows people dedicated to rebuilding both physically and emotionally Spirituality resilience and hope are at the center of their stories Brian who lost his firefighter brother spent two years working at Ground Zero and then helped to rebuild the PATH train station Tanya who lost her fianc e on 9 11 finds

new love new life and joy as a mother in the years following all doors she thought closed to her forever Not a book that recounts the events of that day and not a book about grief Project Rebirth is a book about resilience and finding inner peace

Disconnect Cristina Lope Yl Rosello, 2011-05-20 Disconnect The Filipino Comfort Women portrays the inner worlds of elderly women survivors of the Pacific War as they grapple with their psychological and historical disconnection following the fifty year postwar silence of sexual enslavement and captivity Victimized at puberty ego formation was nipped in the bud When the war ended they did not have any sense of who they were They went through the motions of living stuck in the time bubble where fragments of what had happened to them kept creeping up in their minds and hearts To stop the unstoppable whirl of events in their psyche these survivors explored suffering as the punctum saliens of their existence A number was surprised to discover that the inability to form a sense of self inadvertently spared them of the egoic malaise inherent in humanity It is in the exploration of suffering that the book profoundly reaches out to the reader After all one need not be a war victim or a woman to have had experienced suffering in their lives

Leaping and Dancing Thelma Nambu, 2017-12-01 Samaritana Transformation Ministries helps women in prostitution shift from a life of disgrace and despair to one of abounding grace and hope Join Thelma Nambu as she recounts the history of Samaritana from its inception to the challenges it faced Leaping and Dancing gives us a view into the lives of the Samaritana women lives the Lord has touched in different ways offering us a glimpse of their journey toward healing restoration and transformation Thelma describes how she found herself moving into the work of Samaritana by living the questions I had about how Christians must respond to social issues confronting our country This book offers readers helpful insights on managing a small but growing ministry drawing from Thelma's own ministry experiences

Trauma Counseling Lisa Lopez Levers, 2012-03-15 A worthy addition to a graduate training bookshelf I was a bit daunted by the large almost 600 page book that landed on my desk but once I started reading it I had a hard time putting it down Melanie D Hetzel Riggins PhD Penn State Journal of Trauma and Dissociation This book is heavy in weight and heavy in substance It may be that you will not read this book from cover to cover but it is likely that you will jump in and out and often Illness Crisis and Loss Lisa Lopez Levers's work delivers an important contribution to enable beginning professionals to be familiarised with the basics of trauma and to provide specialists with her hidden gems of insight Her decision to cover trauma in its broadest sense allows her textbook to provide innovative insights into real world concepts such as hate racism oppression and evil in respect to trauma Intervention Trauma Counseling is a comprehensive multidisciplinary guide to the theory and treatment of survivors of a broad spectrum of traumatic events including interpersonal violence hate crimes school violence community violence natural disasters and war and terrorism It is written by a Fulbright scholar who is internationally recognized for her work with traumatized populations in Rwanda several southern African countries Russia and the United States It also includes the contributions of researchers from the United States Australia Africa and Europe The book discusses evidence based trauma assessment and intervention techniques and integrates the latest findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology It focuses on issues of loss and grief survivorship and disability genocide natural disasters the impact of war on civilians and veterans and the distinct effects of trauma in early childhood childhood and adolescence Also addressed are ethical perspectives and methods of self care for counselors who work with this population The text will be of value to graduate counseling students and professional counselors as well as social workers psychologists psychiatric nurses and other human service providers who will be able to attend to trauma survivors with a depth of knowledge and confidence The contents of Trauma Counseling not only fulfill but exceed the requirements of The Council of Accreditation and Counseling and Related Educational Program CACREP standards Key Features Addresses the theory and treatment of trauma survivors of interpersonal violence hate crimes school violence community violence natural disasters and war and terrorism Provides a multidisciplinary approach to treatment that integrates findings from neuropsychology and psychopharmacology Includes evidence based counseling techniques Illuminates the intersections of trauma crisis and disaster issues exceeding related requirements of CACREP standards Examines ethical dimensions and the need for self care among trauma counselors Emphasizes the relevance of clinical supervision in trauma care Offers topic relevant resources at the end of each chapter Jeremiah Kathleen M. O'Connor, 2011 Whether dealing with collective catastrophe or intimate trauma recovering from emotional and physical hurt is hard Kathleen O Connor shows that although Jeremiah s emotionally wrought language can aggravate readers memories of pain it also documents the ways an ancient community and the prophet personally sought to restore their collapsed social world Both prophet and book provide a traumatized community language to articulate disaster move self understanding from delusional security to identity as survivors constitute individuals as responsible moral agents portray God as equally afflicted by disaster and invite a reconstruction of reality Publisher description Choosing Wholeness Over Goodness Elise Loehnen, Courtney Smith, 2025-08-26 A provocative interactive workbook that leads us to reclaim our true selves so we can find the peace and well being we deserve With the publication of her electrifying New York Times bestseller On Our Best Behavior Elise Loehnen often deemed our culture s therapist offered a groundbreaking exploration of the rules women unwittingly follow in order to be considered good She illuminated the centuries old code of conduct that keeps us disempowered exhausted anxious and disconnected even from ourselves In Choosing Wholeness Over Goodness Loehnen partners with Courtney Smith a renowned Enneagram expert and coach to share tools they have learned from the visionary healers thinkers and therapists that prompt readers to dig into the stories they tell themselves These tools guide us to peel back the layers of cultural programming that prevent us from expressing our full potential The paradigm shifting process Loehnen and Smith teach on the pages of this workbook reveals the answers to the questions that tug at our souls Who am I What do I want What s standing in my way Being about Borders Michele Saracino, 2011-05-01 In an age of globalization where borders seem to be disappearing everywhere between nations religions and even within families it is easy to believe our reactions to difference are vanishing as well Bringing together the latest insights from constructive theology contemporary continental theory and trauma studies Michele Saracino shows how deceiving and even deadly this assumption can be She argues that in the post 9 11 era Christians are obligated now more than ever to be vigilant about difference to be attentive to the emotional dissonance that encountering others incites and to acknowledge it before border disputes escalate into violence We are neither so different that we have nothing to talk about nor so similar that we have everything to celebrate Instead for Saracino we are caught in the middle at porous borders at in between spaces which cause consternation fear anger and even rage By embracing these conflicting emotions that accompany border life Saracino claims that Christians can honor the person and work of Jesus Christ and the mystery of the incarnation and perhaps become living memorials to those who have suffered trauma all in the name of their being different Michele Saracino is an associate professor of religious studies at Manhattan College in Riverdale New York She is the author of On Being Human A Conversation with Lonergan and Levinas and researches and teaches on the intersections between theology and culture
